Office of The Canadian Parliamentary Companion,

Ottawa, Ont., Feb., 1879.

In presenting the Parliamentary Companion for 1879, the Editor would call attention to the fact that the elections in the Provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Manitoba, as well as throughout the Dominion, have necessitated an extra amount of careful work: this volume, therefore, he trusts will be found equal in all respects to its predecessors. A synopsis of Speakers' Decisions since Confederation will be found in this edition, together with a list of the Governors and Cabinets of Canada since 1841. The Editor is deeply indebted to those gentlemen in the different Provinces who have aided him in gathering the data required to render this volume complete.

The Editor will earnestly consider any suggestions that may be made by the general public, of a nature promising to add to the usefulness of the Companion as a book of ready reference.

Imperial Customs, St. John, N.B., in 1842; Surveyor of Shipping in 1850; Comptroller of Customs and Navigation, and Registrar of Shipping, 1855; Receiver-General of Admiralty-droits, 1858; Commr. to investigate complaints against Police Department of St. John, N.B., in 1862; mem. of the West Indian Trade Commission for B.N.A., in 1865, representing New Brunswick in the Commission; Secy. of the Dept. of Marine and Fisheries of the Dominion of Canada in 1867; Deputy of the Min. of Marine and Fisheries of Canada, also a member of the Audit Board and Civil Service Board of Canada, on the 29th May 1868; member of the Civil Service Commission for the purpose of reorganizing the Civil Service of Canada, on the 22nd June 1868; in 1875, while in England on public business for the Government of Canada, he was directed by that Government to confer with Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the officers of the Board of Trade, on the subject of Imperial Merchant Shipping legislation, which was then under consideration of Parliament, with the view of protecting the interests of Canadian shipowners, who strongly objected to such proposed legislation; in 1876, when

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies requested the Canadian Government to send a representative to London, to confer again with Her Majesty's Government, on behalf of Canada, on the subject of proposed Imperial legislation relating to shipping, then before Parliament, he was appointed for this purpose by the Canadian Government, and remained in London in conference with the Imperial Government, till the close of the session of Parliament, when the Merchant Shipping Bill of 1876 became law; when on this mission he succeeded in procuring a number of alterations in the Bill, which rendered it much more acceptable to the marine interests of Canada than it formerly was, and since then all agitation on the subject, among Canadian shipowners, has ceased. 2. HOUSE OF COMMONS.—The Speaker takes the chair at 3 P.M. daily. If there be a quorum, the business is proceeded with; if not, the House is adjourned to the next day, at 3 P.M. Early meetings take place before the termination of the Session, in order to expedite business and bring matters to a close; the House does not usually meet on Saturday, nor does it assemble on any holiday. No one can be admitted to hear the debates without an order from the Sergeant-at-Arms, which is generally obtained through a member. Twenty members, including the Speaker, constitute a quorum.

3. SPEAKER.—He is the presiding officer of the body. He reads all communications which come from the Queen's Representativ to the Commons; he has to present and read such addresses and petitions as are carried up to the Governor-General by the Whole House, and to deliver the usual speeches, on the part of the Commons, when presenting the Supply Bill, and other Bills calling for peculiar note and remark. Through him, all witnesses and prisoners at the Bar of the House are examined, and he directs all arrangements when the House is to be addressed by Counsel. It is his duty to deliver the reprimand of the House to any one who has incurred the penalty of receiving it; it is also his duty to issue warrants of committal or release for breach of privilege; to communicate with any parties, when so instructed by the House. It is his duty to closely examine the provisions of private Bills, so as to protect the public against any surprise, or undue encroachment or injury. He controls and regulates the conduct of subordinate officers of the House, and enforces the Rules of the House; he cannot join in any debate unless in Committee of the Whole House. As the presiding officer of the House, he has all the duties attached to such an office. The Speaker is chosen by the members of Parliament, and holds his office until the Parliament in which he is elected is dissolved. Should a member persevere in disobeying the order of the Speaker, and of the House, the Speaker may "name him," as the term applies, a course uniformly followed by the censure of the House. In extreme cases, the Speaker may order members or others into custody until the pleasure of the House be signified. On divisions, when the numbers happen to be equal, he gives the casting vote, but he never otherwise votes. Some questions as to the prerogatives and duties of the Speaker will be found among Speakers' Decisions.

4. MEMBERS, INTRODUCTION OF.—Members elected during the existence of Parliament, will, after taking the oath of allegiance and subscribing the roll, appear at the Bar of the House and claim their seats, the custom being an introduction by other members, who announce that these requirements have been fulfilled. This is as necessary when a session is commencing as when in progress. A member who has been unseated and re-elected must again sign the roll and take the oath; should he take his seat and vote without doing so, he incurs the penalty of £500 sterling for every day he so sits and votes. Though his fresh introduction at the Bar is unnecessary, such is the practice, to save any re-elected member from unwittingly incurring the penalty. (During the recess of 1877, Mr. Speaker ANGLIN resigned his seat in the House and was re-elected. At the opening of the Session of 1878, upon the Governor-General directing the re-assembled House to elect a Speaker, Mr ANGLIN and other re-elected members forthwith took their seats and voted on the question. For particulars of this case, see "Clerk of the House.") When a member is unseated by a tribunal which at the same time declares another person duly elected to the seat, the new member may (after taking the oath) without any introduction, take his seat and vote, as if he had occupied it from the first.

5. CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.—"The Clerk of the Commons House of Parliament" holds an office of great trust and importance. He, with two assistants, sits at the upper end of the table. The Crown appoints him by commiss on under the great seal. It is his duty to make minutes, not of the arguments held in the House, but the decisions at which it arrives—in other words, to make a true and faithful record of all the proceedings in which it may be engaged; to see that they are correctly printed and distributed to the members; to read aloud all such documents as the House may order to be read; to perform the duty (without taking the chair), of president or moderator during the choice of a Speaker, putting a question and directing a division in the same manner that a Speaker would do.

A case has recently occurred for which, in either English or Canadian practice, no precedent exists. During recess, after session of 1877, r.M Speaker ANGLIN resigned his seat in the House (owing to a question respecting breach of the Independence of Parliament Act) and was re-elected to the House. The intention of Government (controlling majority of House) was to re-nominate him as Speaker; but the technical difficulty occurred, that he was neither a member, in the old session, nor had he been introduced in the new.

Foreseeing this dilemma, for which Mr. Alfred Patrick, the present Clerk of the House, in his fifty years' experience of Parliamentary practice, could find no precedent, the Clerk of the House appealed to Sir T. Erskine May, the Clerk of the House of Commons of Great Britian and Ireland, and one of the highest living authorities upon Parliamentary practice. That gentleman's first reply was irrelevant, inasmuch as it related to British practice (supposed, at the time of writing, to obtain in Canada) viz.: that newly-elected members (during an elected Parliament) must be sworn in before the Speaker; this would preclude Mr. ex-Speaker ANGLIN from being sworn in before a Speaker was elected, and consequently from being eligible for election himself.

Mr. Patrick, however, explained to Sir T. Erskine May the Canadian practice respecting the oath (viz.: the taking thereof before the Clerk of the House, and not before the Speaker) and received the following reply, which the Editor of the PARLIAMENTARY COMPANION considers of sufficient importance to be given in extenso, and in accordance with which, Mr. Anglin took his seat without any introduction, and was duly re-elected as Speaker of the House.

House of Commons, 18th July 1877.

My Dear Mr Patrick,

As you have now explained the regulations under which oaths are taken by new members, and their return ratified to the House, I think I may venture to offer an opinion upon the questions submitted to me.

It appears to me that as there are official records of the resignation of his seat by the Speaker; of his re-election, and of his having duly taken the oaths, the Clerk, in the absence of the Speaker, may properly communicate these records to the House.

It is not improbable that objections may be raised to any departure from the accustomed course of proceedings, but I cannot but think it would be justified by the exceptional circumstances of the present case.

You will have to assume the responsibility of this course; otherwise, I can perceive no means of re-electing the Speaker.

Wishing you well through your difficulties,

I am,

Yours very faithfully.

T. Erskine May.

A. Patrick, Esq.

6. Sergeant-at-Arms.—This officer, although in attendance on the House of Commons, is appointed by the Crown. It is his duty to obey the commands of the House, to apprehend and take into custody all those who are committed for any offence by the House. All the messengers and servants of the House, except the Clerks, are under his orders. He has a seat at the Bar of the House, and directs all arrangements for the maintenance of order in the approaches thereto, and in the galleries. He is of course in immediate attendance upon the Speaker, from whom he takes all orders in connection with his duties. He is assisted by a Deputy.

7. Order.—By this word is meant an obedience to certain rules and regulations intended to facilitate the despatch of business, and preserve that neeessary decorum so essential in all deliberative assemblies. The rules by which the business of Parliament is conducted are of two kinds; one kind the House possesses in common with all deliberative assemblies—another is peculiar to its own existence and powers. For the proper application of all these rules, the Speaker o Chairman's decision is had, and to this decision due deference is at all times paid. The Speaker, while in the Chair, takes no part in the debate, it being his duty to relate the manner in which business shall be transacted; to confine those members who address the House to the subject under consideration; to give his opinion in all things which relate to order; to put the matter in dispute into the form of a question, upon which the votes of members are taken, and to declare the majority as soon as it is communicated to him by the Clerk. It is also his duty to declare the business of the House closed, and to see that the affairs of the House are correctly and properly recorded. After routine he calls upon the member whose motion stands first on the paper of notices, or who is otherwise entitled to precedence. All motions must be seconded, or they fall to the ground; being seconded, the motion is handed in writing to the Speaker, who has to read it before debate can be had upon it; having been read, objections may be urged. There are several ways by which a motion may be opposed; it may be met by a direct negative, or by an amendment, or by a motion to postpone, or by proceeding to the next order of the day, or by moving the previous question, or by the simple motion of adjournment. A motion once read cannot be withdrawn without the permission of the House. It must not be forgotten that unless a speech is made objecting to a motion, neither mover nor seconder can speak a second time except in explanation. If, however, a debate does arise, in which an opposition is given to the mover of a motion, he has the right of reply; but it must be understood that this privilege does not belong to the mover of an amendment. All are permitted to explain. The debate being ended, the Speaker or Chairman puts the question, and calls upon those in favor to say "Yea," and those of a contrary disposition to say "Nay." He then declares that in his opinion the "Yeas" or the "Nays" (as the case may be) have it. If his decision is questioned, the House divides, the "Yeas" rising, and their names being taken down, the "Nays" following; the numbers are counted from the record and declared. Should a member, when the voice of the House is called for, say "Aye," and should he afterwards, on Division, vote "Nay," and attention be called to the fact, his vote will be recorded "Aye." The simply calling for a Division, when the Speaker has declared that "the Ayes have it," would not, however, require the record of his vote adversely as "Nay," the Canadian rule differing herein from the English. (See Speakers' Decisions upon this point. No. 55.) When an amendment has been moved, the vote is simply taken on the amendment, and then on the original question. Should the amendment be adopted, it then becomes the substantive motion, and may be amended in the same way that the original motion was amended. Thus a number of successive amendments to the original motion may be disposed of. Any member is at liberty to interrupt another by "rising to order," which means that he rises in his place and calls the attention of the Chair and the House to a breach of the orders then being committed. In the debate it is contrary to order to mention any member by name; the same rule prevails in Committee of the Whole, except as regards the Chairman, who is sometimes called by his name, and not Mr. Chairman. For special questions of order that have arisen since Confederation see Speakers' Decisions, No. 55.

Strangers.—If any member shall take notice that strangers are present, Mr. Speaker, or Chairman (as the case may be) shall forthwith put the question that strangers be ordered to withdraw, without permitting any debate or amendment; provided that Mr. Speaker or the Chairman, may, whenever he thinks proper, order the withdrawal of strangers.—(Rule 6.)

---

8. Committees.—Are, first, those of the Whole House, which may be to consider certain resolutions, as to the nature of which considerable latitude prevails; or the House itself resolves into such Committee to consider the details of a Bill, the principle of which may be discussed at any or all of its other stages; or there may be Committees for financial purposes, as those of "Supply," or "Ways and Means," (which see.) Secondly, there are Select Committees chosen by ballot or otherwise, for some specific purpose—the number composing such bodies seldom exceeds fifteen members, except by permission of the House. During the Session of 1877, an important discussion took place, involving both the composition and powers of Select Committees. (See Speakers' Decisions.) Thirdly, Committees on Private Bills (which see.) When the whole House is in Committee, the Speaker vacates the chair, the Mace is placed under the table, and some other member is called to preside, who sits in the seat of the Clerk of the House.

9. PETITIONS.—The following Rules respecting Petitions should be carefully observed, as deviation therefrom will involve rejection.

(1.) Petitions involving Public expenditure, such as grants of money or lands, claims for arrears of pay or for remuneration for public service rendered, or other demands imposing a burthen upon the people, cannot be received by the House, which has not the power of initiating such imposition. A petition which only expressed a hope for a grant, was excluded in Session of 1878.—(See Speakers' Decisions, No. 109.) In 1877, however, a petition for imposition of duty, or for bounty, on coal was received. (See Speakers' Decisions, No. 68.)

Petitions of this nature should be addressed to "His Excellency the Governor-General in Council." The correct form is to forward them to the Secretary of State, who will then, "by command," refer them to the Ministers of the Crown to whose Departments their subjects respectively relate; and they will thereafter be dealt with Departmentally, in the same manner as any official letter or communication received direct from the parties interested. In point of fact, however, the forwarding of such a petition, by the Minister of Parliament, with a covering letter, direct to the Department concerned, at any time, and without waiting for the Session, is practically the best course. In this mode, a Petition may be brought before the Executive in ample time for consideration before the meeting of Parliament, when the representative can, if desired, bring on a discussion upon the merits of the case, in due course.

Although such a Petition may not be presented to the House, which has not the power of granting it, it is quite in order (after proceeding as above) to bring it under the cognizance of Parliament by moving an Address to His Excellency, for the Petition, and any other papers connected with it in the Departments, to be brought down; and the Government, upon its responsibility to Parliament, can then be brought to account for the exercise or non-exercise of the power vested in it, of granting the pecuniary or other relief prayed for.

(2.) It has been decided that Aliens, non-residents of the Dominion of Canada, have not the right of petitioning this Parliament. An exception to this rule was made during Session of 1878.—(See Speakers' Decisions, No. 107.)

(3.) Petitions may be either written or printed; provided always that the signatures of at least three Petitioners are subscribed on the sheet containing the prayer of the Petition.

(4.) Signatures to Petitions must be original; no agent should sign a Petition to Parliament for any purpose. No chairman can sign for a public meeting, but the common seal of a corporation is received as the petition of the whole body.

(5.) All Petitions must be in respectful and temperate language, and must not contain any matter in breach of the Privileges of the House, such as animadversion upon the conduct of Parliament, or reference to any subject under Debate, or to a motion in course of preparation.

(6.) Petitions to the House of Commons should be addressed: "To the Honorable the Commons of Canada, in Parliament assembled;" the statement of grievance or cause of complaint should be clearly and succinctly set forth; and it must close with a specific prayer, thus:

"Wherefore your Petitioner prays that, &c., setting forth the redress and relief that is sought.

(7.) The Member presenting a Petition shall endorse his name thereon, and shall present it in his place in the House, confining himself, when doing so, to a statement of the parts from whom it comes, the number of signatures attached to it, and the material allegations it contains. He is responsible that it does not contain impertinent or improper matter.

(8.) After a lapse of two days for scrutiny by the Speaker and Clerk of the House, every Petition, which proves to be properly receivable is (Rule 86) "brought to the Table by direction of the Speaker, who can not allow any debate, or any Member to speak upon, or in relation to, such Petition; but it may be read by the Clerk at the Table if required; or if it complain of some present personal grievance, requiring an immediate remedy, the matter contained therein may be brought into immediate discussion." In ordinary course, it may, upon motion, be referred to a committee, or Resolutions may be based upon it, &c."

10. BILLS (MONEY.)—All Bills relating to public income and expenditure, and all Bills usually called Money Bills, must originate in the Commons and be introduced by the Government.

11. BILLS (PUBLIC.)—A Bill is the draft or skeleton of a Statute. Any Bill which the Senate can originate may be introduced and laid on the table by an individual Senator without the previous permission of the House; but in the Commons no Bill can be brought in unless a motion for leave be previously agreed to. Permission having been granted, a Committee is appointed to prepare the Bill. It is then brought in and read a first time, without amendment or debate, and a day is appointed for a second reading, previous to which it is printed, and a copy furnished to each member. The Bill, after the second reading, is referred to a Committee of the Whole House, at the sittings of which its details are considered, as its principles were at each of its several readings. Members are at liberty to discuss its principles at any of its stages, but no one is considered to have declared decisively in favor of its principles, unless by his vote he supports its second reading. In Committee, the Bill is debated clause by clause; the blanks left for amount of penalties, salaries or grants, etc., are filled up, and sometimes the Bill is entirely remodelled. The blanks, as they are called, which are usually filled up in italics, are agreed to without a question being put, unless a member should propose to alter them. The next proceeding is, that the Chairman of the Committee should make a report to the House of the changes that the Bill has undergone, which he does by presenting it to the Speaker in its altered form. The report of the Committee is agreed to without discussion, the Bill is ordered to be printed, and it is then read a third time, when any further amendments can be made. If a new clause be added it is called a rider. The last question but one is that the "Bill do pass;" after this, nothing remains except to determine its title, which used to be a general one for all the Acts passed in the session, but in modern times distinct titles are used for each Statute. During the progress of the Bill, the House may divide on the following questions: 1st, on the second reading; 2nd, that it be committed; 3rd, on the consideration of report of Committee, in case of amendments; 4th, or that the Bill be re-committed; 5th, that it be read a third time; 6th, that it do pass; 7th, the title of the Bill. These are quite exclusive of any division in the Committee, or any amendments, or of any clauses added to or expunged from the measure, in or out of the Committee. Alterations are not usually proposed in a Bill until after its principle has been disposed of on the second reading. Immediately after the passing of a Bill, it is taken by a member to the Bar of the Senate, desiring their concurrence, where it passes through the same forms as in the Commons. If the Bill be rejected, no further proceedings ensue. When the Senate agree with the Commons in the principle of the measure, but differ on matters of detail, a conference usually follows between members deputed from each House, who generally succeed in adjusting the difference; but if both Houses remain inflexible, the Bill is dropped. The same proceedings are adopted, mutatis mutandis, when the Bill originates in the Upper House. The Bill having thus passed both Houses, remains with the Senate, except in the case of a Bill of Supply, which is sent back to the Commons, to be by them presented at the Bar of the Senate to the Representative of the Sovereign. The assent of the Crown is the final proceeding which converts a Bill into an Act of Parliament. [Several discussions have arisen respecting procedure with Bills during recent Sessions, for which see Speakers' Decisions.]

---

12. BILLS (PRIVATE).—Private Bills are chiefly introduced to enable individuals or bodies corporate to undertake works of public utility at their own risk, and chiefly for their own emolument and benefit; but there are other Private Bills which frequently come before Parliament, such as Bills for adjusting claims to property between individual claimants, and Bills relating to divorce, naturalization, etc., etc. The expenses of legislation in such matters must be paid by the parties seeking the relief; and a deposit of $200 must be made immediately after the second reading of the Bill. After the second reading if all the rules of the House have been complied with, Private Bills go to the Committee, and it is before this Committee that proper attention must be given by the parties interested. Individuals or companies may appear by Parliamentary Agents.

13. PARLIAMENTARY AGENTS.—In England all the business for private corporations and individuals is transacted by Parliamentary Agents, who conduce to the interest of their clients, as well as to the convenience of Committees and Members, through their familiarity with Parliamentary practice. Their employment is sanctioned in Canada, every agent being (Rule 72) personally responsible to the House and to the Speaker for the observance of the rules, orders and practice of Parliament, and for the payment of all fees and charges; and all agents must have received the express sanction and authority of the Speaker.

14. AVOIDANCE OF A DECISION.—When a motion has been made upon which the House is unwilling to come to a vote, there are certain formal modes of avoiding a decision, amongst which are "passing of the orders of the day," or moving "the previous question." The former means that the House should—casting aside and taking no notice of the matter then before it—proceed to the other business appointed for that day; the latter, that a vote be previously taken as to the expediency of coming to any decision on the question raised If "the previous question" be negatived as a matter of expediency, the motion to which it referred is only gotten rid of for the time, whereas a direct negative to the motion itself would be a proscription of it for the remainder of the Session, as well as a denial of its principle With respect to a Bill, moving that it "be read this day six months," or "this day three months," is a mode of throwing it out without coming to an express declaration against the principle of the measure.

15. ROYAL ASSENT.—The Act by which the Crown agrees to a Bill is called the Royal Assent; this assent is usually given at the end of a Session, unless there is urgent necessity for the Act becoming law without loss of time, in which case, the Governor-General, or the person administering the Government, comes down to the Upper House, and there, in the presence of both Houses, gives his assent. His Excellency specially manifests his assent to the Supply Bill. Bills to which the Royal Assent is not given are pronounced to be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, and are mentioned in the "Official Gazette" as having been reserved for Her Majesty's consideration. Unless a reserve is made in the Act itself, so soon as the Royal assent is given, the Act becomes a Law, and can be proceeded on before any competent Court.

---

16. PRIVILEGES OF PARLIAMENT.—Amongst the privileges which the Commons claim, are:—

The power of committing individuals to prison—the power of publishing matters which, if not issuing from such high authority, might become the subject of proceedings in a Court of Law—the power of directing the Law Officers of the Crown to prosecute persons accused of offences against the laws, or affecting the privileges of Parliament—and finally, of doing anything not directly contravening an existing Act of Parliament, which may be necessary for the vindication and protection of its own rights, in the exercise of its constitutional functions. Questions of privilege take precedence of all other proceedings, and are always in order. The privileges claimed by individual members, are freedom of speech and person, including freedom from legal arrest and seizure under process from the Courts of Law and Equity. This does not extend to indictable offences, or to actual contempts of the Courts of Justice. Members of Parliament are exempt from all duties, the performance of which might interfere with their prompt attendance to their Parliamentary calls. Privilege of Parliament, such as it is, continues for a convenient time after prorogation and dissolution. [During recent sessions, several Questions of Privilege have arisen, which will be found among Speakers' Decisions.]

17.—COMMITTALS.—In common with Courts of Law and Equity, the Houses of Parliament can punish all contempt of their authority, or disobedience of their mandates. Each House is armed with power to repress any aggression committed upon its rights, or any interference with its privileges; but in the case of the Commons, the operation of this power is limited to the session of Parliament, committals by that House being invalidated by a prorogation. Either House can delegate to a committee the power of sending for papers and records, and of enforcing the attendance of necessary witnesses.

18. CONFERENCE.—This is a species of negotiation between the two Houses of Parliament, conducted by managers appointed on both sides, for the purpose of producing concurrence, in cases where mutual consent is necessary; or for the purpose of reconciling differences which may have arisen. If the conference be upon the subject of a Bill depending between the two Houses, it may be demanded by that House which is in possession of the Bill at the time of asking the conference. It is the sole privilege of the Senate to name the time and place for holding a conference, no matter by which House it may have been demanded. Reasons in writing for the course resolved to be taken are usually furnished to the managers on both sides, in which case it is simply called "a conference." Should this proceeding fail, "a free conference" must be held, which gives an opportunity for the managers individually, and unrestrained by any precise form of argument, to urge such reasons as, in their judgment, may best tend to influence the House to which they are addressed. A free conference is usually demanded after two conferences have been holden without effect. After one free conference, none other but free conferences can be held touching the same subject.

19. SUPPLY.—All proceedings which relate to the public income or expenditure, must originate with the Commons, and must be begun by resolution moved in Committee of Supply, which is always Committee of the Whole House. In the course of the Session, estimates are submitted to a Committee of Supply, and resolutions moved thereon, granting to the Crown the sums requisite for the management of the various departments of the Government, and the support of various public and private institutions. Such as are confirmed by the Committee of Supply are reported to the House, where they are again re-considered and adopted, or rejected, as the case may be. Upon these a Bill is passed, and this Supply Bill furnishes authority to the Government for disbursing the various sums appropriated. The Upper House may reject this or any other Money Bill, but they cannot alter or amend the substance of a Supply or Money Bill; such a course would be regarded as an invasion of the privileges of the Lower House. Before any Bill can be introduced, authorizing the expenditure of any public money, resolutions must be moved in Committee of Supply, agreed to there, reported and confirmed by the House.

20. WAYS AND MEANS.—As the Committee of Supply relates to the expenditure of the country, so the functions and duties of a Committee of Ways and Means have reference to the funds by which such expenditure is to be met. Loans, duties, taxes, excise and revenue of every description, are submitted to the Committee of Ways and Means. The propositions of Government on this subject are reduced to resolutions, submitted, considered and decided on, and such as are agreed to are reported to the House. The series of resolutions in com. when reported, is read a 1st time, pro forma; then a 2d time, en bloc, (not the first resolution a 2d time, as formerly the practice in Canada.)—(See Speakers' Decisions, No. 89), at which stage general discussion of the subject takes place. The resolutions are then read singly, when discussion is confined to the subject matter of each. Those which may be adopted or embodied in a Bill or Bills, and in due course and form become the law of the land. As in Supply the Upper House may reject these Bills, but cannot amend them, nor can the Upper House insert a pecuniary penalty in any Bill.

21. ADJOURNMENT, PROROGATION AND DISSOLUTION.—Adjournment is a postponement of the sittings or proceedings of the House, from one time to another, specified for the re-assemblage. When the sittings of both Houses are interrupted by royal authority, it is called prorogation. Dissolution puts an end to the representative character of the individuals who, at the time, compose the House of Commons, and Parliament cannot therefore assemble until after a new election, except in cases hereinafter mentioned. The power of adjournment is a right belonging to each House, and there are no restrictions to this power.

The House of Commons can interrupt or postpone any debate, defer the consideration of any measure, or altogether adjourn its sitting, but the practice is always to adjourn to some stated time; and we think there can be no doubt that, by the previous permission of the House, the Speaker can leave the Chair for a certain number of hours: but this does not amount to an adjournment, and could not be noted as such by the Clerk. But it must be remarked that the adjournment of one House does not adjourn the other. The Crown may, pending an adjournment, summon by Proclamation either House or both, and may direct either House or both to adjourn to any particular day. But while the power exists, and although in former times it has been frequently exercised in the Imperial Legislature, it has grown into desuetude there as well as in the Provinces enjoying the privileges of their own Local Legislatures.

An individual member may for a time interrupt the progress of business by successive motions for adjournment, which may be repeated indefinitely, with this restriction: no second motion to adjourn can be made until after some intermediate proceeding shall have been had. The motion in committee, that the chairman report progress, is equivalent to a motion to adjourn the debate.

Adjournment does not close the session, nor does prorogation terminate Parliament. The former is an act which either House can perform; the latter is a power vested in the Crown, the duration of which may be subsequently shortened or extended as the Crown pleases. All unfinished business terminates and dies with a prorogation, but during an adjournment they remain in statu quo to be revived on the re-assembling of Parliament. A member who moves the adjournment of a debate, or who is in possession of the floor at the time of an adjournment is said to be in possession of the House with the right to re-open the debate which had been interrupted. This is not the case, however, when Committees of the whole House adjourn. Prorogation never extends beyond forty days, but it may be repeated from time to time by proclamation, and continue to be renewed until it is intended that Parliament shall meet for the despatch of business. The Crown can summon Parliament to meet at any time by giving fourteen days' notice. Dissolution is the simple death of Parliament and may be brought about in two ways, either by the pleasure of the Crown, or by lapse of time for which it was called into existence. There was a time when the existence of a Parliament terminated by the demise of the Crown, but a special law removed this provision of the Constitution. But there is no power in the Constitution by which a Parliament in Canada can be extended beyond five years. If Parliament, at the time of the Sovereign's death, be separated by adjournment or prorogation, it must assemble immediately, or within a reasonable period. If no Parliament be then in existence, the members of the last must again meet, and may serve as a Parliament for six months unless sooner prorogued. By the British North America Act, 30 Sec., it is provided that "there shall be a session of the Canadian Parliament once, at least, every year, so that twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting, etc."

SPEAKER—THE HON. JAMES COCKBURN.

1. Speaking Twice on Motion checked.—20 March 1868. On motion for reference of Petition of Hon. J. C. Chapais, relative to Kamouraska election, to the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, a debate ensued, in which Hon. G. E. Cartier drew a parallel between the Lotbiniere election in 1858 and the present case, and alluded incidentally to the Corrigan murder. Mr. Joly raised a point of order, that the murder of Corrigan had nothing to do with the point at issue. Objection OVER-RULED, and debate proceeded. At its close the Speaker said: "That in order "to put a check upon such sharp retorts as they had been listening "to, he would, in future, enforce a rigid observance of the rule for- "bidding any member to speak more than once upon the same "motion."—Debates, p. 130.

2. Trade—Bill on Banking:—27 March 1868. On motion for second reading of the Bill to enable Banks in any part of Canada to use notes of the Dominion instead of issuing notes of their own, the Hon. L. H. Holton, contended, "that, this being a Bill relating " to Trade, and also involving a pledge of the public credit, it ought " to have originated in Committee of the Whole House; and, that " step not having been taken prior to the first reading, the Bill " cannot now be read a second time." After considerable discussion, RULED: " I hold that the Bill does not involve an increased pledge " of the public credit, and, therefore, ought (see Rule 41), and (May, " page 364) strictly to have originated in Committee of the Whole " House."

" But the Bill, having been read a first time, by leave of the " House, and subsequently having been moved into Committee upon " the resolutions, which were afterwards concurred in by the House, " it is now too late to raise the objection. In none of the prece- " dents quoted where Bills of this class were rejected on the 2nd or " 3rd readings had the House been in Committee,—that proceeding " having been entirely omitted. Here the contrary appears; and " we need not enquire at this stage whether the introduction of the " Bill, or the resolutions in Committee, were the first step in point " of time.

" I think the Hon. Member is not required to proceed de novo, " but may go on with his Bill." The Bill was then read a second time.—Journal, p. 161.

3. Trade—Bill on Insurance.—27 March 1868. On motion for second reading of the Bill respecting Insurance Companies, requiring the deposit of a guarantee of $50,000 from fire, and $100,000 from Life Insurance Companies, to be made in Dominion Stock, the Hon L.H. Holton objected that—" this Bill relates to Trade, and should be " based upon resolutions passed in Committee of the Whole House. " That it is a Bill relating to Trade, and that, from the terms of the " 'British North America Act,' unless it could be so treated, it is " beyond the jurisdiction of this House, as it is only under the head " 'Relating to Trade and Commerce' that this House can deal with " it, and that, if it does not come under that head, the jurisdiction " falls to the Local Legislature."

After much discussion, RULED: " I hold that the term 'Trade' " does not, in its general and popular sense, apply to Insurance. " Trade means buying and selling, importing and exporting goods " to market, banking, railways, navigation and telegraphs; all assist " trade, and are auxiliaries, but are not branches of trade in the " popular sense; yet certainly the first, 'Banking,' is more intimately " connected with Trade than Insurance. I do not find that Bills " relating to these subjects must necessarily be considered in

"Committee of the Whole; sometimes it may have been done, but "the practice is not uniform, and I see no rule which requires it. "I over-rule the point of order.

The House then proceeded upon the Bill. The other question raised by Mr. Holton, viz: "That the regulation of Insurance "Companies is a subject properly within the jurisdiction of the "Provincial Legislatures,"—being no point of order, but a question of law, was advisedly passed over by the Speaker. It was, however, decided by the House, on 20 May (see Journal, p. 426) adversely to Mr. Holton's objection. Journal, p. 161.

4. Amendment Inconsistent with Motion.—6 April 1868. On motion, for an address for copies of certain papers, including copies of any instructions to Hon. Dr. Tupper, now on a mission to England, Dr. Parker moved in amendment, an addition to the address, requesting the recall of Dr. Tupper. Mr. Morris objected that the amendment was inconsistent with the main motion, and that both would be unintelligible if co-joined. Objection OVER-RULED. Journal, p. 185.

5. Complex Amendment to Motion into Committee of Supply.—6 May 1868. On motion to go into Committee of Supply, Hon. Mr. Holton moved, in amendment, that it is expedient to reduce the salary of the Governor-General, and salaries of all Government employés receiving more than $800 per annum, and to provide against salaried officers receiving emolument for special services. Hon. Mr. Dunkin objected to the amendment as being complex, and requiring sub-division in order to a regular vote thereon, while, being an amendment to go into Committee of Supply, it cannot, if so put, be divided, or an amendment upon it moved. RULED:— "This motion, which contains three distinct propositions, on each "of which a separate question might be put (and which is therefore "a complex motion), is not, therefore, irregular, or out of order. "The House could, in general, according to precedent, order a com- "plicated motion to be divided. But that could only be done by "amending the motion, which cannot be done now, for but one "amendment can be moved in going into Committee of Supply. "Therefore, the motion must stand or fall as a whole. The diffi- "culty pointed out by the Hon. Member for Brome is one which "does not affect the regularity of the motion, and that is all that I "have to deal with." Amendment put and negatived. Journal, p. 268.

6. Petitions for Money Refused.—The reception of various Petitions, on the ground that they asked for grants of public money, or aid, and were not recommended by the Crown, was rejected on the following occasions: 7 May 1868, Journal, p. 297; 1, 3, 7, 10 March 1870, Journal, pp. 30, 32, 40, 56; 11 March, 7 and 23 April 1870, Journal, pp. 59, 167, 233; 20 February and 3 March 1871, Journal, pp. 18, 44, and on several other occasions, for which refer to Index of Journals. (See also No. 52 hereof, relative to Petitions for Exemptions from Taxation. See also No. 12 hereof.)

7. Amendments—Greater Expenditure than in Message—Unnecessary Instruction to Committee.—16 May 1868. On motion to receive report of Committee of the Whole on the Bill respecting Militia and Defence, Mr. Pope moved, in amendment, to re-commit the Bill, to consider two resolutions; the first declaring the inexpediency and injustice of present large sums paid to Staff Officers, while Battalion and Company Officers are inadequately paid; the second providing that no money shall be paid to Staff Officers until such time as all the officers of the Force are properly considered, &c. The Hon. A. T. Galt proposed, in amendment thereto, to refer the Bill back to Committee, for the purpose of so adjusting the Militia expenditure, that the officers "may receive such allowance "as will distinguish between their respective ranks and that of the "men." Hon. Mr. Holton, raising the question of order on Hon. Galt's amendment, RULED:—"Not in order, inasmuch as its adop-"tion would involve the expenditure of a greater sum than that "recommended by His Excellency's Message." Hon. Sir John "Macdonald, raising the question of order on Mr. Pope's amend-"ment, RULED:—"Not in order, inasmuch as, if adopted, it would be "an instruction to the Committee to consider certain resolutions "which could have been considered without any instruction from "the House; and, moreover, that it involves an increase of the "Public Expenditure over that recommended by the message from "His Excellency the Governor-General." Journal p. 390.

8. Petition for Canal Construction Received—19 April 1869. On presentation of petition for construction of Ottawa Ship Canal, Mr. Alex. Mackenzie objected to its reception, on the ground that it involved an expenditure of public money. RULED: "That, "although the prayer of the petition, if granted, might ultimately "involve the expenditure of public money, yet, as it related only "directly to public works, it might be received without any viola-"tion of the rules." On recommendation of the Minister of Justice, reception delayed till next sitting.

When again presented, Mr. Mackenzie raised a similar objection. A short debate ensuing, RULED: "The reception of this petition is objected to, because of the rule adopted last session, when, "for the first time, the English practice was introduced into this "Chamber. [7 May, 1868, Journal, p. 297.] These are the words "in which the decision of the Chair was then announced:—Though "there is no rule of this House expressly applicable to the question, "yet by rule 116, it is ordered that in unprovided cases, the rules, "usages and forms of the English House of Commons are to be followed. The practice in England has been clearly against the "reception of such petitions, and I find, by a Standing Order of the "House of Commons of the 20th March, 1866, it is declared:— "'That this House will receive no petition for any sum relating to "'Public Service, or proceed upon any motion for a grant or "'charge upon the Public Revenue, whether payable out of the "'Consolidated Fund, or out of moneys to be provided by Parliament, unless recommended from the Crown.' That decision "having been given, the House agreed unanimously to adopt it as "the rule to be followed in future. The present Petition does not, "in my opinion, come within that rule. It is very general in its "terms. It sets out a variety of facts with reference to the construction of a work which would, no doubt, involve an expenditure of money, but it concludes with these words:—'Therefore "'your petitioners humbly request that Your Honorable House "'will take such measures as will cause the obstructions to this "'navigation to be removed, and an uninterrupted line, to the full "'capacity of the leading channel, and the supply of water from "'the summit level, opened throughout.' Now, as I take it, this "is not a petition asking for any grant, which would be a charge "on the public exchequer, and I do not think it would be my duty, "sitting in this chair, to interfere with the right of the people to "petition this House, unless there is a clear rule of this House, "which would prevent the petition, beyond a doubt, from being "received. I cannot so apply the rule, for by express language it "does not cover this case. This is not a petition asking for "money. It is a petition asking simply for legislation, and were "I to say that the petition came within that rule, I should be "opposing my authority against the rights of the public at large to "approach this House. If it is the pleasure of the House to "exclude petitions of this class in future, the proper way would be "to adopt a substantive rule, which would clearly exclude such "petitions. I consider, therefore, that the petition must be 'received." The petition was then received. Journal p. 22.

9. Motion Over-ruled—Committee on Depreciated Silver.—26 May 1869. Mr. Dufresne moved that the House go into Committee, on Monday next, to consider a resolution, declaring the expediency of the purchase, by the Dominion, of depreciated silver coins now in circulation, their export, and the substitution of Dominion notes. A debate ensued, when the Speaker RULED, his attention having been called to a point of order, that:—"The motion involved a "charge upon the public revenue, and should originate by Message "from His Excelleney." Motion withdrawn. Ottawa Times Debates, p. 77.

10. Amendments Over-ruled—Newfoundland Public Lands.—10 June, 1869. On motion of concurrence in resolutions, reported from Committee, on Union of Newfoundland with Canada, Mr. Blake moved an amendment, relative to Newfoundland Public Lands; negatived. Hon. Mr. Wood moved an amendment, relative to the lands, and to financial arrangements; RULED: Out of "order, inasmuch as it alters the manner in which the amount "recommended by His Excelleney's Message is to be applied." Mr. Wood subsequently moved another amendment relative to lands only; RULED: Out of order, the House having decided upon this question, on Mr. Blake's amendment. Journal, p. 219.

11. Nova Scotia Financial arrangements, Amendments, Abstract principle.—12 June 1869. On motion of concurrence in resolutions, reported from Committee, for adjustment of the financial arrangements with Nova Scotia, Hon Mr. Wood moved an amendment, declaring inexpediency, unless arrangements be at the same time made in favor of Quebec and Ontario. Objected to, as proposing an expenditure in excess of that recommended in His Excelleney's Message. RULED: In order, as being a mere assertion of an abstract principle. "Beyond that, it proposes nothing; it does not propose "to take any step in the direction of legislation; but, on the contrary, "as I read the motion, the effect would be, if passed, to prevent con- "currence in the resolutions, and to stop the whole proceedings— "so that the question on this proposed appropriation could not be "approached again, this session, unless a Message came down "from the Crown recommending such additional expenditure." (Extract.) Amendment put and negatived. Journal, p. 235.

12. Private Motion for Taxation over-ruled.—14 June 1869. Resolution moved to tax American wheat, &c. OVER-RULED, inasmuch as motions for imposition of duties should emanate from Government. Journal, p. 242.

13. Amendments Irrelevant.—30 March 1870. Of motion of Mr. Blake, for an Address to the Queen, for Imperial Legislation, to debar the Canadian Parliament from disturbing the financial arrangements of Union between the Provinces, two amendments, objected to as irrelevant and vague, were RULED in order. Journal, pp. 122-127.

14. Canada School Lands—Resolution Irregular.—4 April 1870. On motion of Hon. Mr. Wood, for the adoption of a resolution, detailing the proceedings of the Government of the late Province of Canada respecting the Crown and School Lands, declaring that good faith towards the settlers required that Government to make certain provisions which it had failed to do, and that the objection to carry out the compact made with the settlers, devolves upon the Government of Canada under the B.N.A. Act: Mr. Casault objected that the resolution cannot be considered in the manner proposed, and should have originated in Committee of the whole House. The Speaker RULED: That the objection was good, as the Resolution unquestionably involved a charge upon the public purse of the Dominion. With regard to a point raised by the member for Lambton, as to the Dominion Government "having power to pay this "money out of the Provincial subsidies, the very circumstance of "this House being the trustee, as it were, of the Provinces of Ontario "and Quebec, should make it all the more necessary that every pro-"per constitutional check should be interposed before any charge "should be incurred, which would eventually be imposed upon those "Provinces." He moreover thought there should be a Message from the Governor-General before such a motion could be entertained, and therefore declared the motion out of order. Journal, p. 143.

15. Motion on Hop Interest—Abstract Principle—Resolution affecting Trade.—4 April 1870. On motion of concurrence in Report of Select Committee on Hop-growing and Salt interests, Hon Mr. Wood objected that adoption of motion would lead to imposition of duties. Objection OVER-RULED, as it does not follow conclusively that a tax or duty will be imposed; the measures asked for are measures of relief, so far as the House is informed. The Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier objected, that the subject matter of the Report related to Trade, and should originate in Committee of the whole House. Objection OVER-RULED, as this rule, in express terms, is confined to Bills only; and the Speaker thought the House might adopt a Report of this general character, which would leave it uncommitted as to specific measures. Journal, p. 147.

16 Instruction to a Commission not appointed. 4 April 1870. Motion to give certain instructions to the Commission shortly to be appointed to consider the question of Canals. OVER-RULED, as the motion purports to give an instruction to a Commission which is not appointed. Motion withdrawn. Journal, p. 149.

17. Senate Bill providing Expenditure.—5 April 1870. On motion for 3rd reading of Bill from the Senate, amending the Act relating to Lighthouses, Hon. Mr. Holton called attention to certain clauses, which make dispositions respecting public expenditure. Objection OVER-RULED. "By referring to the authorities, it appeared "that the Commons had accepted provisions in Bills from the "Lords creating charges not directly imposed by the Bill, but to be "defrayed out of moneys to be provided by Parliament; but that "exception having been taken to this practice, it did not appear to "have been continued since 1860." The present Bill fell far short of the class of Bills alluded to. A clause in it provides that nothing in the Act shall authorize expenditure by the Minister, until previously sanctioned by Parliament. No contract could therefore be entered into unless thus previously sanctioned. (Extracts.) Bill passed. Journal, p. 155.

18. Amendment not connected with Motion.—21 April 1870. Upon reading of Resolutions reported from Committee of Supply, to defray expenses of certain Dominion offices, Mr. Mackenzie moved, "That this House regrets that the Government should "have deemed it necessary to increase the salaries of officers in the "Public Service, &c." Mr. Masson (Soulanges) then moved, "That "no Public Employees shall receive more than one salary," &c. This second motion was objected to, on the ground that the two motions had no connection with one another; and the Speaker, concurring, OVER-RULED it. Mr. Mackenzie's motion was put and negatived. Journal, p. 212.

19. Amendment changing Expenditure recommended by Message.—6 May 1870. On motion for third reading of the Bill for Civil Service Superannuation, Mr. Godin moved an amendment as to the mode of administering the fund, and providing that no officer shall benefit unless he has contributed to the fund during five years, and that widows and orphans of employees shall benefit, &c., &c. Amendment objected to, Imp. Act, 30 Vic., c. 3, sec. 54, providing that the House of Commons shall not pass any vote, resolution, &c., for any appropriation to any purpose not first recommended by Message of the Governor-General during the same session as the vote. Objection sustained, and amendment OVER-RULED. "This "amendment proposes a substantial change from the proposal "recommended in the Message of 2nd May inst.," &c. Journal, p. 303.

20. Trade—Bill on Insurance—Question already passed upon.—6 & 11 May, 1870. On motion for second reading of Bill to limit the rate of interest, it was objected to, as it related to Trade, and should therefore have originated in Committee of the Whole. The Speaker in a lengthy decision, and quoting precedents, RULED, that the term "Trade" does not, in its general and popular sense, apply to insurance. "Banking, railways, navigation, and telegraphs, all "assist Trade and are its auxiliaries, but are not branches of Trade "in the popular sense; yet certainly the first, 'Banking,' is more "intimately connected with Trade than Insurance. I do not find "that Bills relating to these subjects must necessarily be first con-"sidered in Committee of the Whole; sometimes it may have been "done, but the practice is not uniform, and I see no rule which "requires it." The Speaker therefore allowed the Bill to be proceeded with. (Mr. Mills then objected, and the Speaker CONCURRED that the same question had substantially been already brought before the House and postponed for three months; whereupon the order for its second reading was discharged.) Journal, pp. 313, 314, 348.

21. Motion Respecting Re-vote Re-committed.—10 May 1870. The order of the day being read, for resuming debate of amendment proposed on 21st April, to concurrence in resolution of Committee, appropriating $1,300,000 for settlement and government of N.W. Territories (Re-vote) which amendment provided that no Dominion funds should be expended for regaining, by force of arms, possession of the Territory, &c.

Hon. Mr. Dunkin moved, amendment to amendment, to refer the resolution back to Committee of Supply, for reconsideration with Message transmitting Supplementary Estimates for 1869-70, and with such estimates presently under reference to said Committee. Hon. Mr. Holton objected, that as this was a re-vote of last year, and the Committee of Supply had already before it a second Message, accompanying the Supplementary Estimates, recommending a re-vote in another form, one or other must be withdrawn. Objection OVER-RULED: The House can know nothing of what goes on before the Committee of Supply until it reports. The resolution which is proposed to be referred back, may, or may not, be intended for the same sum of money as that in the Supplementary Estimates which have also been referred to same Committee. If two resolutions are reported for two distinct sums, the House can then refuse concurrence in one or other of them. Mr. Dunkin's amendment put and carried. Journal, pp. 330, 340.

22. Motion Over-ruled for Address on Prov. of Canada Debt.—6 March, 1871. Hon. Mr. Dorion moved that the House will, on Wednesday next, go into Committee, to consider certain resolutions, for an Address to the Queen, for amendment of the B.N.A. Act, to assign the debt of the late Province of Canada entirely to the Dominion, &c.

The Speaker, concurring in an objection raised by Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier, OVER-RULED the motion, as conflicting with Sec. 54, of B.N.A. Act, which debars the House from any vote, address, &c., for appropriation of Revenue not first recommended by Message. "The contention is that the proposed appropriation being beyond "the power of the Parliament of Canada, this provision of the "Statute cannot therefore apply. In its literal construction it does "apply to the motion, and certainly it seems to me to the full as "necessary in a constitutional sense," &c. Journal, p. 50.

23. Decisions on Motions—Address, Debt of the Prov. of Canada. —9 & 13 March, 1871. Hon. Mr. Dorion moved an Address to the Queen, praying that the B.N.A. Act be amended, to authorize the Canadian Parliament to legislate on all questions connected with surplus debt of the late Province of Canada.

Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier moved an amendment, to the effect that the House refrains from expressing an opinion on the award rendered by the Arbitrators upon said debt.

Hon. Mr. Chauveau moved a second amendment, declaring that the House will give its most favorable consideration to any measure introduced by the Government, to arrange existing financial difficulties between Ontario and Quebec, "and involving any aid "on the part of the Dominion commensurate with the importance "of the object itself, and with our resources; due regard being had "to the rights of the other Provinces."

Mr. Mills (Bothwell) having objected to the latter motion, as involving an appropriation, and asking the House to commit itself to an expenditure of money, which cannot be done without a Message from the Government, RULED: "That the said motion is out of order."

Hon. Mr. Holton moved an amendment to Sir G. E. Cartier's amendment, expressing the regret of the House that the Governor-General had not been advised to recommend the adoption of an Address to the Queen, similar to that set forth in Mr. Dorion's original motion. House adjourned.

Previously to the House resuming consideration hereof, on March 13, the Speaker corrected the entry on the Journal of the foregoing RULING. "The motion was out of order, in my opinion, not "because it proposed an appropriation of public money within the "meaning of the 54th Section of the British North America Act, "and should have been preceded by Message, but because it "involved an increase to the Public Debt, and should therefore "have been first considered in Committee of the Whole.

"I am aware that it is doubted whether it is a correct rule of "Parliamentary practice that every abstract proposition which, if "acted on, would increase the Public Debt of the country, should be "first considered in Committee; but my opinion on the point has "been expressed on two or three occasions, and I shall so continue "to decide, unless the House should think proper to express a con-"trary opinion. This rule, however, being self-imposed, may be "enforced or relaxed as the House shall determine. But the consti-"tutional rule contained in the 54th Section of the Imperial Act is "one that, being absolutely binding, should be neither extended "nor restrained by implication, but should at all times be most "guardedly considered by the House."

This decision was ordered to be entered on the Journal. Mr. Holton's amendment was negatived, and Sir G. Cartier's carried. Journal, pp. 62 and 72.

24. Bill on Stamp Duties, simply Declaratory. — 16 and 20 March 1871. On second reading of Bill to remove doubts as to the liability to stamp duties of Premium Notes, taken or held by Mutual Fire Insurance Companies, Hon. L. H. Holton objected that,— under section 54 of B.N.A. Act, the Bill must first be recommended by Message from the Crown, and also that it should have originated in Committee of the Whole. Decision reserved, and debate adjourned.

On March 20, the Speaker ruled:—"The Bill is to remove "doubts ; and declares that certain notes shall be deemed to be "promissory notes within the meaning of the Act 31 Vic. chap. 9, "and shall be subject to the duties thereby imposed, and it provides "that all such notes heretofore given and not stamped,shall be made "valid by a double stamp.

"There being no appropriation of money proposed, there need "be no recommendation from the Crown ; and the objection rests on "the ground that, as it involves an additional charge on the people, "the Bill should have originated in Committee of the Whole, and "should, moreover, have been proposed by a Minister.

"It appears to me that the Bill is merely declaratory, and that "it involves no new charge except in so far as the double stamp "duty may effect that purpose. On looking carefully at the 31st "Vic. chap. 9, I find by section 7 that the Governor in Council may "declare that any kind or class of instruments, as to which doubts "exist, shall be chargeable with any and what duty under the Act ; "and by sections 10, 11 and 12, provisions are enacted to render "valid notes in the hands of innocent holders, and notes passed to "third parties. The provisions as to double stamps in the present "Bill is merely an extension of the former Act in its remedial "clauses to the class of notes here referred to, and which are now "declared to be within that Act.

"The Bill is one which, therefore, in my opinion, may be pro- "perly introduced and proceeded with by a private Member.

"The question, generally, whether private Members may in- "troduce and proceed upon measures relating to taxation, which "was discussed in the course of the argument, is one of very grave "importance, and, though not needful to the decision of the present "objections, I think it proper to say a few words upon it to the "House. Instances may undoubtedly be found in the Journals of "the English House of Commons, of Bills and Motions by private "Members to increase taxation, some of which have passed unchal- "lenged, whilst in other cases the indirect assent of a Minister has "been deemed sufficient. Recently, however, in 1869, a high "authority, Sir Thomas Erskine May, stated before a Joint Commit- "tee of the two Houses of Parliament, that 'no private Member is "'permitted to propose an Imperial tax upon the people ; it must "'proceed from a Minister of the Crown, or be in some other form "'declared to be necessary for the public service.'

"I think the House may properly accept of this as the correct "construction of the rules regulating the introduction of similar "measures. The Motion or Bill should either be introduced by a "Minister, or, if initiated by a private Member (a practice which "should not be encouraged), a Minister should assume the respon- "sibility of it by signifying the consent of the Government to its "being entertained by the House.

"If the House agrees with me as to the desirability of adopting "this constitutional restriction, it will become my duty to enforce "the observance of the rule hereafter."

The Bill was then read and committed. Journal, pp. 96, 112.

25. Amendment Contrary to Previous Decisions.—22 & 23 March, 1871. The House having considered in Committee of the Whole, a Bill to amend the Acts relating to duties of Customs, Hon. Sir F. Hincks moved that the Bill be read a third time to-morrow. The Hon. L. H. Holton moved in amendment that the Bill be now re-committed to a Committee of the Whole House, for the purpose of so amending the same as to repeal the duties on coal, coke, wheat and flour. Hon. Mr. Blanchet moved an amendment to the amendment, adding the words, "and also salt, peas and beans, etc." This was agreed to on division. Then Mr. Colb moved, in further amendment, to substitute for Mr. Holton's amendment, as now amended, a resolution that: "It is inexpedient, during the "present Session of Parliament, to make any alteration in the "existing duties on coal, coke, wheat, flour, salt, peas and beans, "barley, rye, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat and all other grain, "Indian meal, oatmeal and flour or meal of any other grain" inserted instead thereof;

Objection being taken by Mr. Holton, as it proposes to strike out certain words which the House has already decided shall form part of the question; RULED: "The point of order is well taken. "It seems conclusively so by English authority, and there is good "reason for it. The House has pronounced its decision upon the "proposition that salt and other articles shall form part of the "question to be submitted to the House, and now the House is "asked to say that they shall be struck out of the question.

"This would be a contradiction, and is clearly out of order." Journal, pp. 131, 132.

26. Amendment Substantially Same as Original Motion, but Differing in Details—23 & 27 March, 1871. Mr. Blake moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to consider the following resolutions: 1. Defining the legislative action on which Confederation was based. 2. Defining the provisions in the B.N.A. Act for the admission of the N.W. Territories into the Union. 3, 4 & 5. Setting forth the measures already taken and proposed to be taken by the Imperial and Canadian Governments for the admission of said territories, and the erection of part of them into the Province of Manitoba. And 6th, "That in the opinion of this "House, the sense of both Houses of the Parliament of Canada "should be taken as to, and should form the basis of such proposed "Legislation."

The Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier moved, in amendment, six resolutions, the first five detailing Legislative and Governmental measures taken for establishing the Province of Manitoba, and 7th, "That "the provisions of the said draft Act meet the approval of this "House, and are in consonance with the will of this House, as "expressed in the most formal manner in the said Act relating to "Manitoba."

The Hon. A. A. Dorion moved, in amendment to the amendment, that, "Irrespective of the merits of the measures proposed "by the Government of Canada to be submitted to the Imperial "Parliament for the purpose of confirming certain Canadian Legis-"lation depriving the Parliament of Canada of certain existing "powers, and altering the British North America Act, 1867, this "House would be wanting in its duty if it did not express its "decided opinion that no such Imperial Legislation should be "asked for by the Government of Canada, except after the details "of such proposed Legislation shall have been submitted to both "Houses of the Parliament of Canada for their judgment, and "addresses of such Houses to the Queen, praying for such Legisla-"tion, shall have been passed."

Mr. Harrison objected to this amendment, as being, in effect, the same as that involved in the original motion. RULED: "The "amendment is in order. It proposes to the House a resolution "which is substantially the same as that involved in the original "motion, but it omits considerable matter of recital, both of fact "and law, and in that respect, I think, the proposition is one which "the Honorable Member may propose as an amendment. He may "say very properly, as he does say, that he has no desire to commit "the House to the recitals which form a part of the original motion. "I think the motion is therefore in order."

Mr. Dorion's amendment was then put and negatived, and that Sir G. Cartier carried, on division. Journal, pp. 136, 145.

27. Bill Over-ruled—Question Already Passed Upon.—3 April 1871. A Bill respecting Insolvency having been passed and sent to Senate for concurrence, another Bill, introduced to repeal the Insolvency Laws, was objected to, and OVER-RULED, on the ground that the House had already passed upon this question, and that no measure could be entertained at variance with the former one during the present Session. Journal, p. 209.

28. Motion of Urgency—Without Notice—10 April, 1871. On motion for a Select Committee, to enquire into a charge made in the House, that Mr. Delorme, Member for Provencher, had been concerned in the rebellion in the Hudson's Bay Territories, and implicated in the murder of Thomas Scott,—it was objected that previous notice of motion was required. The Speaker, after citing May on the subject, said:—"That it rested with the discretion of the House as to whether notice of this motion should be given or not. If the House believed that this was a case of such urgency that it should at once be entertained and disposed of, the House may say that the absence of notice should not bar progress in the matter, but on the other hand, the House may consider the matter of so grave a character as to require time for consideration. I think it rests with the House."

After statements, and amendments, the House, on division, passed to the Order of the Day.—Journal, p. 249.

59. Correspondence Respecting Damages Claim, Referred to Committee.—10 April, 1871. Mr. Currier moved that the Return to Address for copies of correspondence between the Department of Public Works and George Sterling respecting a claim for damages by the said Sterling, be referred to a Select Committee.

The Speaker said, that his attention had already been called to this motion. He RULED: "That it does not appear to be objec-"tionable to refer a claim of this nature to a Select Committee. "Should their report recommend a payment of money, this House "will refuse its concurrence, unless the recommendation from the "Crown is announced by a Minister." Question put and motion negatived. Journal, p. 254.

30. Reply to Speech from Throne not a Decision on Special Questions.—11 April, 1871. On motion of Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier, to go into Committee, to consider a resolution, recommended by His Excellency, that the Pacific Railway should be a private, and not a Government work, and should be aided by land grant and subsidy,

Mr. Mackenzie objected that the House had, during present session, passed upon a motion in terms similar thereto [by negativing an amendment proposed by Sir A. T. Galt (Sherbrooke) to motion for second reading of Address respecting admission of British Columbia. Journal, 202] RULED: That if the two Resolutions which have been offered to the House—the Resolution of the Member for Sherbrooke, and that of the Honorable Minister of Militia, were precisely the same, word for word, it would still be open to the House to consider the Motion of the Minister of Militia at this stage. The reason of that is this:—The Motion of the Honorable Member of Sherbrooke was offered by way of amendment, as an alternative proposition to the House. The House had its option to adopt either the Main Motion, which was to read the Address a second time there and then, or to adopt the Motion of the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke, which was to postpone the reading of that Address to a future day, and to resolve certain things. The House, in negativing the Motion of the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke, has not passed upon the Resolution contained in that Motion. It has simply chosen to say, "we will now read the Address a second "time, and we will not pass upon the Resolution, offered by way of "amendment, at the present time."

I think we have only to consider the form used in the House of Commons in England in putting questions, to see what is the true effect of the vote on the Motion proposed by the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke. Had the Question been put as it would have been put in England, that all the words proposed to be omitted, "stand part of the question, that is, that the Main Motion "should be voted upon yea or nay," the House would not appear to have passed upon the alternative proposition. But though we may vary our form of Question, our votes must have no different effect then if taken in the English House of Commons.

Therefore, according to my view, if the two Motions had been precisely the same, it would have been still open to the House now, to consider and pass upon the Motion of the Honorable the Minister of Milita. But there are, I observe, important variances between the two Motions. I would particularly allude to the one referred to by the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke, that his Motion proposed to pronounce an opinion upon the understanding of the two contracting parties, apart from, and irrespective of the written evidence altogether; this motion does not do that. With regard to the former Motion, the House might well hesitate in coming to a decision upon a Question so difficult to decide upon; whilst it may or may not hesitate about pronouncing upon its own future action, which is what is proposed by the present Motion. Therefore, for these reasons, I think the Motion is in order."

The House went into Committee accordingly. Journal p. 264.

31. Motion for instructions already possessed by Committee.—2 May, 1872. On motion into Committee on Bill to repeal Insolvency Laws, a motion to instruct Committee to except Ontario from its operation was OVER-RULED, as the Bill affected the Dominion, and the Committee had already the power asked for. Journal, p. 78.

32. Petition sent by Telegraph, rejected.—3 May 1872. A petition respecting Red River Claims, sent by telegraph from Manitoba, was presented by Hon. A. Mackenzie. RULED: "This petition cannot be received, because there are no real signatures attached to it."

33. Bill repealing Insolvency Laws need not originate in Committee of Whole.—17 May 1872. Third reading of Bill to repeal Insolvency Laws, objected to, the Bill not having originated in Committee of the Whole. Objection OVER-RULED, this Bill not imposing burthens, but repealing them. Moreover, it applies to traders, as individuals, not to Trade as a subject matter. Journal, p. 120.

34. Practical Amendment to an Abstract Motion.—27 May 1872. On resuming adjourned debate on motion of Mr. Joly, to go into Committee for consideration of a resolution, that the Superannuation Fund should be entirely devoted to the relief of officials and their families, Mr. Jackson moved in amendment, that it is inexpedient now to alter the Act, and that the subject should be considered by a new Parliament. Amendment objected to as having no relation to the original motion, but RULED in order. Mr. Joly's motion, though merely an abstract opinion, being expressed against the present system, and Mr. Jackson's being a practical proposition, which might be adopted in lieu of the other, and pertinent to the subject of the main motion, the amendment was put and carried. Journal, p. 166.

35. Bill Regulating Bonds — Does not Compound Debts with Government.—16*th April* 1873. On motion for second reading of Bill extending provisions of Grand Trunk Act, 1862, so far as relates to certain preferential bonds, etc., Hon. Mr. Cauchon objected that it should have been introduced in Committee of the Whole, as its object was virtually to compound a debt due to the Government. Objection OVER-RULED: "'Compounding' is strictly the "taking less than the thing that is due. That is not asked in this "case."—Journal, p. 164.

36. Second Amendment to Motion into Committee of Supply.—2 May 1873. On debates on amendment of motion to go into Committee of Supply, Hon. Mr. Tupper moved a second amendment, which was objected to by Hon. Mr. Holton as out of order, and OVER-RULED. Journal, p. 262 (See also No. 59).

37. Amendment to an Amendment Obliterating Original Motion.—8 May 1873. On motion of Mr. Mackenzie, declaring it reprehensible for Ministers or other servants of the Crown to use the powers of office in elections, and censuring Gilbert Griffin, Post Office Inspector, for a certain letter by him addressed to J. Rannie, Postmaster, Hon. Mr. Tupper moved in amendment, that the House proceed to the orders of the day. Mr. Joly moved a second amendment, declaring the advisability of so amending the Election Law as to disfranchise the whole Civil Service. Second amendment OVER-RULED: Mr. Tupper's amendment, if adopted, obliterates "the original motion, and no further amendment can be proposed "pending its consideration." Mr. Tupper's amendment put and carried. Journal, p. 300.

38. Bill from Senate Imposing Burdens.—10 May 1873. On third reading of Bill from Senate, respecting Inspection of Steamboats, Hon. Mr. Holton took notice that the Bill contained provisions which will be a burden on the people, when the House by resolution, waived its privileges on this point. Journal, p. 319.

39. Motion not According to Notice.—12 May 1873. On motion of Mr. Mackenzie to go into Committee on Resolution, that no person interested in the Pacific Railway "shall be capable of being elected to, or of sitting and voting in Parliament," Hon. Sir J. A. Macdonald objected that motion was not in accordance with notice given, which read "shall be eligible to be elected a member of this House," RULED:—"The objection is well taken." Mr. Mackenzie altered his motion accordingly. Journal, p. 326.

40. Reading Papers in House Relating to Matters before Committee.—15 May 1873. Hon. Mr. Huntington moved, upon information of important documents, in reference to Pacific Railway charges under investigation by Select Committee, being in the hands of a Trustee, under such circumstances, that there is great danger of their being placed beyond the reach of the Committee before 2nd July next, to which date Committee is adjourned; that the Committee assemble to-morrow, and summon the Trustee to produce the documents. The mover proceeding to read certain letters and documents, Hon. Sir J. A. Macdonald objected thereto. RULED :— "The question of Order, as I understand it, is this :—Whether a Member in making a motion is to be permitted to read certain letters and papers which, it is said, will support that motion, and which relate to a charge referred on a previous occasion to a Select Committee for investigation. This is bringing into the House for discussion evidence that must come before that Committee in support of the charge. I do think, and I appeal to both sides of the House, that upon the point of Order, as well as upon the strong justice of the case, I am bound to rule that the Honorable Member cannot read those papers." The motion was then put and carried. Journal, p. 349.

41. Accusing Action of Crown as being "for a purpose."—3 Nov. 1873. In resumed debate upon the amendments proposed to the Address, in reply to the Speech from the Throne, which amendments expressed opinions upon the conduct of His Excellency's advisers, Mr. Mills made reference to the despatches from the Governor-General to the Imperial Government, submitted to the House by Message, "as being sent down for a purpose." Hon. Sir J. A. Macdonald objected, that no Member had a right to say that the Representative of the Sovereign sent down certain despatches for the purpose of influencing debate in this House. RULED :—"There "is no doubt an Honorable Member may criticise the subject-matter "of such despatches, but he should not say 'they were sent "down for a purpose.'" Journal, p. 137.

SPEAKER—THE HON. T. W. ANGLIN.

42. Petition Rejected as an Election Petition.—20 April 1874. On motion for reception of Petition of H. La Boutillier, that Return for last Election for Gaspé be completed and amended, as a matter of privilege, by substituting the name of Petitioner for that of L. G. Harper. Objection being taken, that the subject is one which could only come under the cognizance of the Courts of Law, as provided by Statute, RULED: "I cannot find any rule or precedent "to guide me in coming to a conclusion on this question. I think "it would be well for the House to consider this matter, and lay "down a rule with respect to similar Petitions in the future. I am "of opinion that it is an Election Petition. Looking over the late "English journals, I cannot find any cases of Petitions of this nature

" having been ruled out. After considering all the circumstances " I think that the Petition ought not to be received." Journal p. 82.

43. Trade—Bill on Banking.—30 April 1874. On motion to introduce a Bill, amending the Acts relating to Banks and Banking, respecting liability of shareholders, objection being taken that the Bill affects Trade, and should originate in Committee of the Whole, RULED: The Bill cannot proceed. Journal, p. 142.

44. Abstract Proposition, Affecting Expenditure, in Order.—11 May 1874. On motion of Mr. Blain, for a Committee of Seven, to consider the feasibility of an Ontario and Huron Ship Canal, also declaring expediency of the appointment of a Commission to confer with the U.S. Transportation Committee for a similar purpose, Mr. Thompson (Haldimand) objected, that the motion involved Public Expenditure in recommending appointment of Commissioners, objection OVER-RULED:—" The motion was an abstract " proposition such as could be regularly proposed by a private " Member. If it should pass, it would not necessarily bind the " House in any way." Question was again proposed, debated and finally withdrawn. Journal, p. 214.

45. Motion of Concurrence in an Improper Report of Committee. —11 May 1874. On motion of Mr. Bunster, that the House doth concur in report of Select Committee, appointed to enquire into the way in which British Columbia is affected by the present tariff; objection being taken that the motion asked for concurrence in a Report which ought not to have been received by the House, RULED:—" That the objection was well taken. The Report was " clearly out of order, inasmuch as it recommended the enactment " of a special tariff, which could only be originated with the " sanction of the Crown, and in a Committee of the Whole." Journal, p. 216.

46. Improper Tariff Amendment.—15 May 1874. On third reading of Bill amending the Tariff, an amendment moved by Mr. Ryan, that the Bill be re-committed, with a view of substituting ad valorem for specific duties on tea and coffee, was objected to and OVER-RULED (on the ground that it might involve an increase of the public burthen). Journal, p. 243.

47. Committee Cannot Embody Reports of Previous Committees.— 20 May 1874. Mr. Orton, having moved that the House doth concur in the Second Report of Select Committee upon the Agricultural Interests, Hon. Mr. Mackenzie objected that it is not competent for a Special Committee to embody in its report the opinions of a similar Committee appointed in a previous Session. RULED: "My attention has been directed to this subject, and I have "come to the conclusion that the motion is decidedly out of order. "It is laid down distinctly by May: 'A Committee re-appointed "'cannot report the evidence taken before the Committee in the "'previous Session.' This I find has been done in the Report now "before the House: 'The Committee having carefully examined "'the result of the labors of a former Committee on the subject of "'Agriculture, find that much valuable information had been "'obtained directly from the farmers and millers of the country, "'etc. The substance of which information, as obtained from a "'draft Report of a former Committee, the present Committee beg "'to embody in the Report which they now have the honor to "'submit;'—consequently the Report, and the motion founded "upon it, are out of order." Journal, p. 282.

48. Motion to Change Destination of Grant Recommended by Message.—26 Feb., 1875. On consideration of Resolutions reported from Committee of Supply, Mr. Masson moved, in amendment to the vote for Mennonite Immigration, that a part thereof be assigned to inducing Canadians in the United States to settle in Manitoba. OVER-RULED, it not being competent for the Hon. Member to move to change the destination of the grant recommended by the Crown.—Journal, p. 140.

49. Irregular Motions, appearance of in Journal.—5 March 1875.—A Member pressed that an amendment, offered by him, though OVER-RULED as irregular, should appear on the Journals, and precedents therefore were quoted. Suggested that a Committee consider the point, and prepare a Standing Order; but objected [by Hon. Mr. Holton], that a cast-iron rule would prove inconvenient in practice. Mr. Speaker, considering sense of House, in present case, to be for insertion of Motion in Journal; ORDERED accordingly. Hansard pp. 501-3.

50. Petition Cannot be Referred to Committee till Called — 8 March 1875. On motion of concurrence in 1st Report of Select Stand. Com. on Pub. Accts., Mr. Domville moved to refer a certain petition to said Committee. Objection being taken to this motion, as one now on the notice paper and undisposed of, it was OVER-RULED until it was called. Journal, p. 177.

51. Penalties for enforcing Statutes, not "Imposts."—20 March 1875. On second reading of Mr. Cook's Bill (Protection of Life on Wharves, &c.) Mr. Speaker RULED: The old principle of regarding penalties for enforcing Statutes as an Impost upon the people is virtually obsolete, and the Bill is in order. Hansard, p. 807. See also No. 64.

52. Petitions Refused—Exemptions from Duty—22*nd*, 24, 27 March 1875.—Presentation of Petitions for the passing of Acts to authorize Commissioner of Customs to exempt certain rolling stock from duty, OVER-RULED, as involving a public charge, and not being recommended by the Crown. Journal, p.p. 260, 269, 287.—9 March, 1874. A Resolution, declaring opinion of the House that the Welland Canal should be enlarged; similarly OVER-RULED. Journal, p. 191. See also No. 6.

53. Motions Conflicting with Previous Decisions.—11 March 1875. In the resumed debate upon the motion for an Address to the Queen, upon the New Brunswick Schools question, two amendments (Messrs. Baby and Costigan) were OVER-RULED, on the ground that they conflicted with resolutions just affirmed by the House.—Journal, pp. 200, 203.

54. Northern Railway Bill not a Public Bill.—12 March 1875. Hon. Mr. Mackenzie having moved the introduction of a Bill to re-arrange the capital of the Northern Railway Co., to enable it to change its gauge, &c., objection was taken that some of the provisions of the Bill were of a private nature, and should be dealt with under the Rules. RULED: The Bill cannot be introduced as a Public Bill. Bill withdrawn.—Journal, p. 213.

55. Voting of Members according to their Voices before Division.—23 March 1875. On an abstract motion (in favor of Divorce Courts) a Division was had, being called for by five members. The Premier pointed out that two members, who had called for a Division against the Speaker's decision, "The Nays have it," had yet voted "Nay" on division; he proposed that their votes be therefore recorded "Aye." Mr. Speaker observed that, while here, as n England, the voice was more binding than the vote on Division, the Rules differed on the point of calling for a Division. By the English Rule on the Speaker's ruling "Noes have it," those differing from him called for a Division. Here, any five might call for Division, without necessarily opposing the Speaker. Hansard, p. 861.

56. Amendments to Clauses of Bills in Committee.—1 April, 1875.

The Committee of the Whole, on Bill to amend the General Railway Acts, reported for instructions, whether a Member might move an addition to the 4th section, to provide that all supplies for Government Railways, for a greater amount than $1.000, should be purchased only upon public tender and contract. It being objected—1st, it was not relevant to the Bill, and could not properly be moved in the Committee; 2nd, it imposed a burthen, and should have been first originated by a resolution in a Committee of the Whole. RULED: "1. There is no doubt that it is perfectly legiti-"mate to make, in Committee, any amendment to a clause, pro-"vided that it is relevant to the subject-matter of a Bill, or pur-"suant to instructions; but if any such amendment shall not be "within the Title of the Bill, then the Committee must amend the "Title accordingly. 2. The clause, if added to the Bill, will be "actually restrictive of the expenditure of public money, and will "not tend in any way to increase the public burthens. The amend-"ment is in order." Committee resumed. Journal p. 327.

57. Abstract Motion Respecting Tariff Allowed.—18 February, 1876. On adjourned Debate, on motion of Mr. Mills, for appointment of a Committee upon the present financial depression, Mr. DeCosmos moved in amendment, that the early revision of the Tariff is very desirable; and that a revised discriminative Tariff would be productive of great benefit, &c. Objection being taken that the amendment involved the imposition of a burthen upon the people, RULED: That being an abstract proposition, and barren of results, it was in order. Journal p. 96; Hansard, p. 124.

58. Motion Affecting Privilege, Unimportant.—28 February, 1876. The Motion of Mr. Masson to concur in Report of Select Committee on reporting and printing of debates, was not allowed to be put without previous notice, not being considered sufficiently important to be treated as a matter of privilege; but on March 2nd, on which day it appeared on the notice paper, it was allowed to take precedence, when Notices of Motions were reached. Journal pp. 87, 93; Hansard, p. 289.

59. Second Amendment on Motion into C. of Supply.—29 February, 1876. Mr. Workman's motion in favor of Protection was OVER-RULED as irregular, being in amendment of an amendment by Mr. Irving, to the motion that the Speaker leave the Chair for the House in the Committee of Supply. Journal, p. 89. See also No. 36.

60. Bill, Examination of Engineers, Relates to Trade.—8 March, 1876. On resuming debate, the motion for second reading of Bill providing for Examining and Licensing Engineers employed elsewhere than on steamboats was OVER-RULED, because: 1. The Bill related to Trade, and should have originated in Com. of Whole. 2. It imposed penalties and exacted a fee, which could only be done with consent of Crown. Journal p. 119; Hansard, p. 524.

61. Precedence of Abstract Motions of Want of Confidence.—10, 13 March, 1876. On adjournment of debate of Sir John A. Macdonald's Resolution against the Tariff policy of the Government, Mr. Speaker RULED: That though it was the custom to give precedence to want of confidence motions, he could see no rule for it. On the 13th, he justified this decision by quotations from English practice. Hansard, pp. 601-2.

62. Mode of Entry on Journals of personal statements.—16 March, 1876. On motion for reading extracts from Journals of 1866, affecting personal character of a present Member; discussion arose as to whether: 1. That Members' statements to the House on the subject, before retiring for the discussion, should, in the Journal, follow the reading of the papers. 2. His statement should be entered in full. DECIDED: In both cases—Yes. Journal pp. 145 and 158; Hansard, pp. 688-9 and 695.

63. Reception of Petition, having Schedules attached, Rejected.—28 March. 1876. Reception rejected to a Petition against Judge Loranger, because Shedules or Appendices, containing details of the case, were attached.

Examination of Petitions by Speaker.—From discussion hereon and result, it would appear that the Speaker has functions, respecting reception of Petitions, similar to those of the Examiners of Petitions in British Parliament; Hansard, pp. 867-8; Journal, p. 212.

64. Bill need not originate in Com. of Whole, merely because containing penal clauses.—29 March, 1879. Similar Ruling to No. 51; Hansard, p. 904.

65. Amendment Irrelevant to Motion.—7 April, 1876. Two Resolutions reported from Committee of Supply; 1, Grant for expenses of Pacific Railway; 2, Expenses of its Survey. Res. 1 was, with an amendment, adopted. Res. 2 being read, Mr. Plumb moved, in amendment, an addition, recommending the construction of the Railway as speedily as practicable. Objected to, and OVERRULED, as irrelevant to the Resolution under consideration. Mr. Plumb then moved an amendment, recommending the surveys being proceeded with, which motion was put and lost on division. Journal, p. 286; Hansard, p. 1137.

66. Petitions excluded, involving expenditure.—15 February 1877. Reception REJECTED to Petition of ex-members of Manitoba Provisional Battalion, alleging grievances, and asking for six months' pay, on the ground of public expenditure being therein involved. Hansard, p. 42.

67. Reading Reports of Sub-Committees objectionable.—15 Feb. 1877. Mr. Speaker pointed out that the Report of Committee should embody all matter necessary to be read in the House. Hansard, p. 42.

68. Petition, affecting Fiscal Policy, received.—15 and 16 Feb. 1877. Mr. Mackay presented petition from coal owners and others, for duty on imported, or bounty on exported coal. At first RULED inadmissible, but, upon consideration, RECEIVED, Mr. Speaker saying:—"The "objection to the asking of bounties will, I think, only apply to "cases where an individual or individuals personally interested, ask "for such bounty as will be profitable to themselves. Where the "petition is of a general character, and is signed by persons other "than those immediately interested, and, in fact, asks for a modifica- "tion or change of the financial or fiscal policy of the Dominion, "on the ground that such change will be beneficial to the county at "large, then such a Petition stands precisely in the same position as "one asking for an imposition of taxes for general purposes. On "examination of this Petition, I may state that I see no reason to "conclude that it is signed exclusively by persons immediately and "directly interested, and I am therefore of opinion that it can be "properly received." Hansard, pp. 42, 51, 77; Journal, p. 37. See also No. 81.

69. Abstract motion for granting land to veteran Militia-men, discussed.—15 Feb. 1877. Resolution of Dr. Brouse in favor of Veterans of 1837-38 was discussed, Mr. Speaker observing that, though not strictly in order, latitude was, in such a case, allowable. Bill to give it effect must, of course, emanate from Government. Motion, after discussion, was withdrawn. Hansard, p. 54.

70. Petitions addressed to Crown, House obtaining cognizance of.—15 Feb. 1877. On appointment of Committee on Petition against Judge Loranger, motion was made to refer to Committee other petitions on same subject, which, however, proved to be addressed to the Crown. It was POINTED OUT that the House could take no cognizance of such petitions, unless they were first moved for, and sent down in Return to Address. Hansard, pp. 75, 76.

Administration of Justice.—In the above discussion, it was shown that the special investigation then instructed, in no way trenched upon the general Administration of Justice, which is vested in the Provincial Legislatures.

71. Petitions of Aliens not resident in Canada excluded.—19 Feb. 1877. On Petitions from Boards of Trade, of Detroit and five other United States cities, against stoppage of traffic on canals during Sundays, RULED: "That these Petitions could not be received, on "the ground that Aliens, not resident in this country, had no right "to Petition this Parliament, and that this House could not receive "any Petitions from such persons." Journal, p. 41; Hansard, pp. 93-4.

72. Printing Committee, Powers of.—19 Feb. 1877. On motion of Mr. Orton, for printing of evidence before Agricultural Committee of last Session, discussion ensued as to making the order, resulting in REFERENCE of motion to Printing Committee as the regular course.

Papers of last Session are not under cognizance of present Session. —This point was made during above discussion. Hansard, pp. 115 and 118.

73. Replying to newspaper statements discountenanced.—20 Feb. 1877. Mr. Mackay rising to Privilege, and proceeding to reply to certain newspaper misrepresentations, Mr Speaker OBSERVED: That if the member had a charge to make against a newspaper proprietor he could do so, but that a reply in this mode was out of order. Hansard, p. 123.

74. Petitions excluded, Breach of Rule 85.—26 Feb. 1877. On this and other occasions, neglect of Rule requiring signatures, of at least three Petitioners, on sheet containing prayer, caused rejection of Petitions. Hansard, p. 269.

75. Two Bills with same Title introduced—26 Feb. 1877. The right of Mr. Palmer to introduce his Insolvent Acts Repeal Bill was questioned a Bill having a similar title being already before the House, but was, after discussion, CONCEDED. Hansard p. 269–271.

76. Reading speeches checked— 26 Feb. 1877. After Mr. Barthe's speech (in English) on second reading of his Insolvent Acts Repeal Bill, Mr. Speaker, pointing out that a portion of the speech had been read, observed that his duty and intention was to prevent such a practice. Hansard, p. 283. On 2 March 1877, in tariff debate, Mr. Bunster, in allusion to above, objecting to Mr. Dymond reading from pamphlets and papers. Mr. Speaker RULED that extracts, and very copious extracts (of this nature) might be read. Hansard p. 413.

77. Insolvent Acts not Acts affecting Trade.—26 Feb. 1877. On Bill mentioned in No. 76, Mr. Speaker Anglin confirmed the decisions of his predecessor, that such Bills do not come under Rule 41, requiring introduction in Committee of Whole. Hansard, p. 288. See also Nos. 80 and 84.

78. Questions not to contain assertions or debateable matter—28 Feb. 1877. Mr. Speaker laid down the rule of the Imperial Parliament, to be ENFORCED here,—that no Question should contain any matter that might possibly be the subject of argument, and no assertion, either directly or indirectly. Hansard, p. 339.

On 1 March 1877, on Mr. Cheval's question respecting withdrawal of 20c. pieces, "a real nuisance to the public," Mr. Speaker reminded him that this was a debateable assertion. Hansard, p. 368.

On 5 March 1877, on Mr. Blanchet's question as to intention of constructing a Branch Railway from St. Charles to St. Joseph de Levis, "to avoid the detour by the Chaudiere," Mr. Speaker characterized this clause debateable; but his decision hereon was questioned. Hansard, p. 437.

79. Power of Speaker to issue Election Writs, during Session.—1 March 1877. On motion of Sir John A. Macdonald, that a Writ do issue for new election in Charlevoix, discussion ensued as to the Speaker's duty to issue Writs without order of House, on seats being voided during session. Mr. Speaker ORDERED issue of Writ proprio motu. Hansard, p. 366.—On March 5 1877, Mr. Speaker, in a lengthy ruling, defined the law and practice hereon.—Hansard, p. 436; and on a subsequent occasion, April 17 1877, he confirmed the precedent. Hansard, p. 1541.

80. Bills respecting Banking and Interest, not subject to Rule 41— 1 March 1877. On second reading of Mr. Jones' Bill, Protest of Inland Bills, Mr. Mackay observing that it related to Trade, Mr. Speaker quoted May, that the Rule requiring origination in Com. of Whole only applied to Bills affecting any particular trade, and did not include general measures respecting Banking, Insurance, and Interest; and he RULED the Bill in order. Hansard, p. 370.

NOTE.—This accords with decisions of Mr. Speaker Anglin's predecessors. See also Nos. 77 and 84.

81. Select Committees, Composition of.—Petitions affecting fiscal policy, Reporting upon—1, 2, 7 March 1877. On Mr. Mackay's motion to refer Petition respecting Coal Trade (see No. 68) to a Select Com. two important points of procedure were discussed at length. 1. Under Rule 78, the exclusion of members from appointment to the Committee, who had declared themselves adverse to the principle to be discussed, the expediency of Committee comprising members of both sides of opinion was disenssed and admitted; and on a resumed debate the Speaker ruled that only members should be excluded who spoke against the matter being referred to a Committee at all. 2. The power of the Committee to report on the prayer of the petition (for a duty or bounty), as well as on the allegation of facts. This the Speaker affirmed, together with the power of the Com. to offer an abstract opinion as to the expediency of the duty. Hansard, pp. 379, 392 to 399, 541.

82. Authenticity of Letters read—6 March, 1877. In Tariff Debate, Mr. Wood having read a letter, but, witholding the writer's name when called for, Members suggested that the letter was "bogus." Mr. Speaker RULED: That the gentleman who had the floor was not bound to submit to interrogation, or to give the name; that Hon. Members were entirely out of order in characterizing the letter as a bogus one; but that Hon. Members could attach what importance they pleased to it. Hansard, p. 512.

83. Using His Excellency's name in Debate—7 March 1877. In debate on motion for Special Tariff for British Columbia, Mr. Bunster quoted a promise, or partial promise made by His Excelleney (in a speech). Mr. Speaker OBSERVED that His Excellency could make no statement on public affairs, except under advice of Ministers; that it was not in order to state what His Excellency had said, or to use His Excellency's name for the purpose of influencing the opinion of the House. Hansard, p. 533.

84. Bills respecting Weights and Measures not subject to Rule 41—12 March 1877. On first reading of Mr Jones' Weights and Measures Act Repeal Bill, objection and discussion arose as in No. 77 and 80, resulting similarly, in Bill proceeding without originating in Com. of Whole. Hansard, p. 618.

85. Motion for Return [speech on]—12 March 1877. Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Domville that in moving for papers, his making the contents of other papers laid on the table the subject matter of his remarks, was inadvisable and out of order. Hansard, p. 635.

86. Divorce Bills, Practice respecting—16, 19 & 21 Mar. 1877. —The practice of referring these Bills to Select Com. after first reading, was, upon deliberation, confirmed. Hansard, pp. 797 & 811-12. Motion for "second reading to-morrow" instead of "placing on order paper for 2nd reading to-morrow," though objected to, was agreed to (on Division.) Hansard, p. 876. On 23rd March, however, the above practice was reversed, a Divorce Bill being ordered for a second reading, instead of being referred to a Select Com. Hansard, p. 937.

87. Newspaper Extracts, 23—March 1877. HELD (in accordance with May) that extract from newspapers or other documents, relating to the debates, could not be read by Members. Hansard, p. 965.

88. Bills, 3rd reading, Amendments.—4 April 1877. Maintained that, at this stage, Bills may not be re-committed [Rule 47]. Hansard, p. 1152.

89. Resolutions [Ways and Means] reading en bloc—5 & 26 April 1877. Upon the Finance Minister moving second reading, Customs and Excise Acts Amendments Bill, Mr. Masson objected to an irregularity, in the omission of the 2nd reading of the Resolutions [Ways and Means Com.] when the general question might have been discussed. On a second discussion, Mr Speaker explained that the Canadian custom had hitherto been to read the Resolutions separately, [general discussions being had on the second reading of the first resolution.] The English and more correct system, as laid down by May, was: first reading, pro forma, of the Resolutions, en bloc; second reading, en bloc, at which stage the general discussions took place; third reading of Resolutions singly, when discussion was confined to subject-matter of each Resolution. The latter system was practically accepted by the House, by the following entry, which was made in the Journals by agreement:

"That the 2nd reading of the said Resolutions does not appear "to have been put to the House, but only the 2nd reading of the "first Resolution. It was resolved that the said informality should

"not in future be quoted as a precedent." Hansard, pp. 1171-74 & 1843.

90. Reading Extra-Parliamentary Correspondence.—5 April, 1877. Mr. Speaker took strong exception (although he stated he did not rule thereon) to the reading in the House, by the Minister of the Interior, of a personal correspondence between said Minister and Sir A. T. Galt. Mr. Holton also protested; and the letters were not read. The special point of order was that the discussion to which the letters referred was then closed, and the reading of them was not pertinent to subject before the House; but the Speaker's point was that a gentleman, not a Member, should not have his views ventilated in the House by having his letters read there. Hansard, pp. 1190-92.

91. Private motion for "refund," excluded.—12 April, 1877. Motion of Mr. Cheval, to re-commit Bill, to add clause for "refund" to ship-owners, ruled out of order, as affecting expenditure, which requires previous recommendation by Governor-General. Hansard, p. 1396.

92. When debating irregular, right of making a reply.—14 April, 1877. Mr. Young, Chairman of Sel. Com. on Pub. Accts. having moved adoption of 3rd Report, was afterwards stopped in taking part in debate thereon; but Mr. Speaker, subsequently finding that the member had been exercising his right of reply, desired him to proceed. Hansard, pp. 1493 & 1495.

93. Exemption from sub-pœna.—17 April, 1877. The House, on Division, negatived a motion for leave of absence to the Minister of Finance, to enable him to obey a sub-pœna. (Queen vs. Wilkinson.) Hansard, p. 1540.

94. Explaining misrepresentations.—17 April 1877. In a question of accuracy between Mr. McDonald and Mr. Mackay, Mr. Speaker RULED: When an Hon. gentleman is misunderstood by anybody following him, or if anything is misrepresented, he has a right to explain and state: "I did not say so," or "I meant to say so and so;" or "what I stated was this;" but he cannot at that time reply. Hansard, p. 1551.

95. Standing Orders, Suspension of.—24 & 26 April 1877. Upon a motion to place a Divorce Bill on the Orders of the Day, and subsequent motion to suspend the Standing Orders for the purpose (Session being at its close), considerable discussion ensued respecting practice and precedent, result being that the motion was negatived, on division. Hansard, pp. 1757 & 1837-40.

96. Senate Amendments, Discussion. — 27 April 1877. Mr. Speaker sustained point of order raised by Sir John A. Macdonald: That, a Bill having passed both Houses, its general merits cannot thereafter be questioned, and that discussion on amendments, by the Senate, must be confined to subject of such amendments. Hansard, pp. 1879-80.

97. Relevancy of Paper Read.—13 Feb. 1878. A discussion (not important) upon the relevancy of a paper read, to the question under consideration. Hansard, pp. 152–3.

98. Unparliamentary Language.—13 Feb. 1878. Mr. Speaker's censures. Hansard, pp. 195, 197.

99. Impugning Statements—15 Feb. 1878. RULED: A charge being formally denied in the House, IN ORDER to repeat that such charge had been made, but not that it was true. A Member being then asked as to his belief of a certain statement, averred that he believed it; was censured; and then explained that he believed it, but not in a "parliamentary sense." Hansard, p. 337.

100. Petition from Foreigners Excluded—18 Oct. 1878. Hansard, p. 348.

101. Amendment Motion—25 Feb. 1878—A motion for Return may be amended by a motion which, though similar, differs in specifying form of Return. Hansard, p. 521.

102 Reference of Return to Committee—Notice Necessary.—26 Feb 1878.—Mr. Dymond, moving to refer Return respecting payments for printing to the Standing Committee on Public Accounts, Opposition Members objected, and Mr. Speaker maintained that previous notice of motion was necessary. Hansard, pp. 529-31.

103. Expression, Parliamentary—28 Feb. 1878.—Mr. Speaker called Mr. Tupper to order, for alluding to a "packed majority of Committee," the Committee being "appointed" or "selected" by the House. Hansard, p. 630.

104. Personal Explanations—7 Mar. 1878—A Member, impugned, may explain; but no other Member has a right to interpose. Hansard, p. 820.

105. Personal Explanation—8 Mar. 1878.—Mr. Mitchell, having risen to explain respecting an article in the Globe, which affected him, Mr. Speaker informed him that such explanation was out of place, as the article did not relate to anything that Mr. Mitchell had said, or that was said to have been said or done in the House. Hansard, p. 864.

106. Want of Confidence Motion; what Constitutes it; its Precedence in Debate—8 & 11 Mar. 1878.—A long discussion, and on March 11 a RULING by Mr. Speaker, too elaborate to be here condensed, the conclusion being, "unless both sides of the House "consent, or until after a notice of motion to that effect should be "made and carried, the rules of this House, with regard to the order "of transacting the business of the House, must be adhered to." Hansard, pp. 937-950.

107. A Petition from Aliens, received.—11 March 1878. Petition "from certain American citizens interested in the Connecticut Mutual Insurance Company" was received, although contrary to the rule established in many previous rulings. Mr. Killam observed that many mutual companies in the United States doing business in this country, were practically Canadian companies, and petitions sent by directors thereof were entitled to be considered. Hansard, p. 950.

108. Personal references checked—11 March 1878. Messrs. Dymond and Bowell. Hansard, p. 978.

109. Petition, no prayer.—15 March 1878. Petition from Temiscouata Township rejected. Had it contained a prayer for an appropriation, it would have been out of order [see previous rulings]; as it merely expressed a hope for a money grant, it contained no prayer at all. Hansard, p. 1163.

110. Government answers to questions.—20 March 1878. Mr. Kirkpatrick, rising to call attention to the mode in which Questions put by Members were answered, was checked by Mr. Speaker, his proper course being to bring the matter before the House by regular motion. He concluded his remarks upon a motion of adjournment by Mr Mitchell. Hansard, p. 1269.

111. Allusions to past debates checked.—20 March 1878. Mr. Goudge. Hansard, p. 1652.

Speaking after motion is negatived.—12 April 1878.

112. Privilege and the Press. 21 March 1878. A discussion upon statements made in the Globe, during which Mr. Speaker expressed his strong opinion that Members who were connected with the Press should not, as Members, be held responsible for articles published in papers with which they were connected. Hansard, p. 1315.

113. Trade Bill, Bottles, Rejected.—3 April 1878. Mr. Macdonald having moved second reading "Drinks, Bottles, 'Bill," which secured ownership in bottles stamped with a trade mark, and objection having been taken that the Bill, affecting Trade, should have been first considered in Committee of Whole, (Rule 41,) Mr. Speaker SUSTAINED said objection. Hansard, p. 1669.

114. Precedence in Speaking.—10 April 1878. On a question of the floor, between Messrs. Béchard and Mackay, the former of whom, having a notice of amendment [on going into Committee of Supply] upon the paper, had obtained the Speaker's eye; Mr. Mackay, [citing May,] objected that such notice gave no claim to precedence, per se. This was admitted; but, it was maintained that such notice naturally led the Speaker to look to the mover to take the floor, rather than to another Member. Hansard, pp. 1815 & 1842.

115. Privilege and the Press.—11 April 1878. Mr. Costigan having risen to a question of privilege upon certain attacks made upon him in newspapers, a long discussion ensued upon the propriety of Members bringing Press strictures on their conduct before the House. Mr. Speaker, in closing it, observed: "As he understood "it, a question of privilege, according to the modern practice, at all "events, must be something attacking a Member of the House, "attributing to him corrupt and improper motives, because he "spoke or voted in a certain way; assaulting a Member of Parlia- "ment going to, or coming from, the House, on account of his "behaviour in Parliament, because it was held: That no Member of "this House should be accountable in any way, except to the "House; therefore, attacking a Member outside the House was a "breach of the privileges of Parliament."—Hansard, pp. 1867-72.

116. Mr. Speaker sustained an objection taken to a Member, who has moved or seconded a motion to adjourn debate, and whose motion has been negatived, speaking again to the main question. Hansard, p. 1976.

117. Imputation Checked.—17 April 1878. Mr. Speaker sustained the objection of Mr. Cartwright, to a remark of Mr. McCarthy, that the Premier had "withheld information, and suggested a false- "hood." Hansard, p. 2068.

118. Conduct in Committee.—29 April 1878. Mr. Plumb having said that the Member for North York had, in Committee, endeavored to stifle discussion, was called to order. Sir John A. Macdonald then observed that the effect of examination in Committee might be commented upon; and Mr. Blake, that allusion to actions of members of the Committee might not. Hansard, pp. 2267-68.

TABLE OF TITLES.

Governor-General of Canada to be styled His Excellency.

The Lieutenant-Governor of each Province to be styled His Honor.

Privy Councillors of Canada to be styled Honorable and for life.

Senators of Canada to be Honorable, but only during office, and the title not to be continued afterwards.

Legislative Councillors in the Provinces not in future to have that title; but gentlemen who were Legislative Councillors at the time of the Union (July 1 1867) to retain their title of Honorable for life.

[Mem.—The title, though without precise warrant, has generally been conceded to the Legislative Councillors appointed at the time of the Union, as well as to their colleagues who had previously been Councillors.]

By a mere lapsus pennæ the Speaker of the House of Commons was omitted from this list—an omission, we believe, not yet rectified, though usage—which becomes law where none exists opposed to or superseding it—has always conceded the title to him.

C., having, after the passing of Militia Act of 1854, been the first to organize companies in the rural districts; became Brigade Major 8th Military District, and in 1862 was promoted to his present rank, with command of 12th Volunteer Rifles, retaining the appt. he had received in 1859 of Commandant of the whole Volunteer Foree in M.D. No. 8. Is now Lieut.-Col. commanding Laval Reserve Militia. In 1858, H.M. the Queen, being desirous of showing her estimation of his military services, charged Sir E. W. Head, then Gov.-General to offer him a captaincy in the 100th or "Prince of Wales Royal Canadian Regiment," then being organized, a position he accepted, but subsequently, for private reasons, resigned, notwithstanding that he had passed the necessary examinations therefor. On two occasions declined important appts. under Government, and after death of Sir G. E. Cartier, refused a seat in the Cabinet owing to the unsettled policy of Govt. on Manitoba Amnesty and N.B. School questions, but principally on account of Pacific Railway charges then pending. Sat for Laval in Can. Assembly from g. e. 1863, until the Union, and for same seat in House of Commons from that event up to his elevation to the Senate, 7 October, 1873. Represented Laval in Quebec Assembly from the Union until g. e. 1875, when he retired, and was, during the whole of that time, Chairman of the Contingent Committee, and as such effected great reductions in the House expenditure. A Conservative.—St. Vincent de Paul, P.Q.

BENSON, Hon. JAMES REA.

Descended from an Irish family of Eng. extraction, that came to Am. 1875, and settled at Kingston, Ont. M. the eld. dau. of the late Chas. BROWN, Hon. GEORGE.

S. of the late Peter Brown, Esq., merchant, Edinburgh, Scot., who in 1838 emigrated to New York, where he edited the British Chronicle newspaper, and thence, in 1843 moved to Toronto, where he established the Toronto Banner as an Independent organ of Liberal Presbyterian views, by the only dau. of George Mackenzie, Esq., of "The Cottage," Stornoway, Isle of Lewis. B. in Edinburgh, 29 Nov. 1818. Ed. at Edinburgh High School. M. in the same city, 27 Nov. 1842, Annie, eld. dau. of the late Thomas Nelson, Esq., of Abden House, Edinburgh. Founded the Toronto Daily Globe newspaper, of which he became chief political writer, 1844; founded the Canada Farmer, a weekly journal devoted to agricultural interests, 1864. Is now Managing Director of "Globe Printing and Publishing Company;" and largely engaged in stock raising. A mem. of the Senate of the University of Toronto. Was a mem. of Commission apptd. to inquire into certain alleged abuses in the management of the Provincial Penitentiary, Kingston, 1849. Was for many years leader of the Reform Party of U.C., and as such called on to form a Govt. for late Province of Can., 2 Aug. 1858, which he succeeded in doing in co-operation with the Hon. A. A. (now Chief Justice) Dorion. Before it was possible for the members of his Administration to be re-elected, the House of Assembly passed a vote of want of confidence. He consequently determined to dissolve Parliament, but the Governor-General (Sir Edmund Head) refused to grant a dissolution, when Mr. Brown and his colleagues at once resigned. He again entered Ex. Council, 30 June 1864, as a member of the Administration formed to carry out the scheme of Confederation, being leader of the Refo m section, then in a majority in the House, as Mr. Macdonald was leader of the Ontario Conservatives, and Mr. Cartier of the French Canadian Conservatives. Mr. Brown had, in the Session of 1864, obtained a Select Committee to enquire into and report upon such changes in the constitution as might satisfy the just expectations of Western Canada. The Committee reported in favor of a Federal system, such as was afterwards established. He resigned 21 Dec. 1865, after the Confederation scheme was arranged, though the Imperial Act was not passed, owing to his disapproval of the policy of the Govt., with reference to a Reciprocity Treaty with the U.S. Was a mem. of the Charlottetown Union Conference, 1864, of that at Quebec in same year, and of the Confederate Council of B.N.A. Colonies for the negotiation of Commercial Treaties, that sat in latter city, Sept. 1865. Proceeded to Eng. as a delegate on public business, 1865, and to Washington, March 1874, on behalf of Can. and the Empire, as joint Plenipotentiary, with Sir Edward Thornton, to negotiate with the Govt. of the U.S., a commercial treaty. Declined the Lieut.-Governorship of Ont., 1875. Sat for Kent in Can. Assembly from g.e. 1851 to g.e. 1854; for Lambton from latter date to g.e. 1857, when returned for North Oxford and the City of Toronto (elected to sit for Toronto); for South Oxford from March 1863, until the Union. Was an unsuccessful candidate for Haldimand, April 1851; for Toronto East, at g.e. 1861; and for South Ontario, in House of Commons, at g.e. 1867. Called to the Senate, 16 Dec. 1873. A Liberal.—252 Wellington street West, Toronto; Bow Park, near Brantford, Ont.; Toronto Club; Rideau Club.

BUREAU, Hon. JACQUES OLIVIER, N.P. (De Lorimier.)

MACKENZIE, Hon. ALEXANDER. (Lambton.) P.C.

Third s. of the late Alexander Mackenzie, of Logierait, Perthshire, Scot., by Mary, second dau. of Mr. Donald Fleming, of the same parish; and grands. of Mr. Malcolm Mackenzie, of Strathtummel. The family, consisting of the parents and seven sons, came to Can. 1842. One of the sons—the late Hope F. Mackenzie, Esq., represented Lambton, and afterwards North Oxford, in the Can. Assembly for some years. B. near Dunkeld, Perthshire, 28 Jan. 1822. Ed. at the public schools of Moulin, Dunkeld and Perth. M. 1st, Helen, dau. of the late Mr. Wm. Neil, of Irvine, Scot. (she d. 2 Jan. 1852), 2nd, 17 June 1853, Jane, eldest dau. of the late Mr. Robert Sym, of Perthshire, Scot. In youth learned the business of a builder and architect, and after arrival in Canada became a contractor. For some years edited the Lambton Shield, a Reform journal. Is Presdt of the Isolated Risk and Farmers' Fire Insurance Co., and a Commr. ex officio, to assist Mr. Speaker in the management of the interior economy of the House of Commons. Was Major 27th Lambton Batt. of V.I. for some years up to Oct. 1874, when he resigned. Was a mem. of the Ex. Council and Treas. of Ont. (in Mr. Blake's Administration), from 21 Dec 1871, until Oct. 1872, when he retired with Mr. Blake for the purpose of confining themselves entirely to Dominion politics. Declined a seat in the Can. Cabinet on the occasion of the retirement of Mr. Brown, 1865. Was leader of Ontario Reform Opposition in House of Commons from the Union until 1873, when elected leader of the whole Opposition party, and continued in that position until 5 Nov. 1873, when, owing to the resignation of Sir John Macdonald, he was called on to form a new Administration, a duty he succeeded in accomplishing on the 7th of the same month, when he and his colleagues were sworn of the Privy Council, he (Mr. M.) taking the office of Minister of Public Works, which he held until he resigned with the other members of the Ministry, Oct. 1878. Proceeded to the Mother Country in June, 1875, and while there was presented with the Freedom of Irvine, Dundee and Perth, and visited Her Majesty at Windsor Castle. Sat for present seat in Can. Assembly from 1861 until the Union. Returned to Commons at g.e. 1867, and at g.e. 1872; re-elected by acclamation on his appt. to office; again at g.e. 1874, and again at last g.e. Represented West Middlesex in Local House from g.e. 1871 until Oct. 1872, when he resigned. Several important measures owe their existence to Mr. M. as a private member, viz—the Act amending the Assessment Act of U.C. (1863); that consolidating and amend ng the Acts relating to the Assessment of Property, U.C. (1866); and the highly useful measure for providing means of egress from Public Buildings (1866.) As Chairman of Committee on Municipal and Assessment Laws (1866), wrote and framed the greater part of the General Act on Municipal Corporations, &c. All the measures of his Government, including the enactment of a striugent election law, with the trial of election petitions by judges, and vote by ballot; the abolition of the real estate qualification of members; the inspection of produce and weights and measures; the better administration of Penitentiaries; the enactment of the Marine Telegraph Law, which virtually abolishes the monopoly of the Cable Company; the establishment of a Dominion Military College, and the improvement of the Militia system; the enlargement of the Canals; the permanent organization of the Civil Service; the establishment of a Supreme Court for the Dominion; the reduction of postage to and from the U.S.; the free delivery of postal matter in cities and towns; the opening of direct mail communication with the West Indies; the construction of a transcontinental telegraph line; the better administration of Govt. Railways; an improved copyright law; the adoption of a final route for the Pacific Railway; the opening of negotiations, conducted on our behalf by our own delegate in person, between Can. and the U.S. for the establishment of an equitable Reciprocity Treaty between the two countries; a new insolvent law; and the establishment of a territorial govt. for the great North-West, have all been more or less moulded and directed by him. In addition, two very important questions, which for some time agitated the public mind and threatened the gravest complications—the Manitoba Amnesty and the N.B. school questions—have been satisfactorily adjusted during Mr. M's administration. A Liberal; and "has always held those political principles—which by some in England may be considered peculiar—of the universal brotherhood of man, no matter in what rank of life he may have taken his origin. Has believed, and now believes in, the extinction of all class legislation, and of all legislation that tends to promote any body of men, or class of men, for the mere fact of their belonging to a body or class, to a higher position politically than any other class in the country. In our great colonies, while no fault is found with the political organization of the Mother Country, or of any other country, we take our stand simply and completely on the ground that every man is equal in the eye of the law, and has the same opportunity, by exercising the talents with which God has blest him, of rising in the world, in confidence of his fellow-citizens —one man quite as much as another. Believes thoroughly in party govt., and that it is utterly impossible to conduct the govt. of a new country without it. While an earnest advocate and upholder of the present connection with the Mother Country, he will always endeavor to maintain Can. rights and to bring Can. into prominence in the eyes of the world.'—Toronto, Ont.; Sarnia, Ont.; Rideau Club.

MILLS, Hon. DAVID, LL.B. (Bothwell.)

Family, which came from near Plymouth, Eng., proceeded to

Holland in the time of Charles I , thence to New England with the Puritans, and the descendants removed to N.S. at the time of the Am. revolution. S. of Nathaniel Mills, who removed from N.S. to Can. 1817. B. in the Tp. of Orford, Kent, Ont., 18 March 1831. Graduated at Michigan University. M. December 1860 Miss M. J. Brown. Was Superintendent of Schools for Co. of Kent from April 1856 to April 1865. Was employed by Ontario Government to define the North Western boundary of the Province, 1872. [See report on that subject.] Author of a pamphlet on The Present and Future Political Aspects of Canada (1869); and another on The Blunders of the Dominion Government in connection with the North West Territory (1871). Elected mem. of the Council of Public Instruction for Ont. (representing the School Inspectors) Aug. 1875. An unsuccessful candidate for a seat in the Council of Public Instruction, Ont., 1874. First returned to Parlt. for present seat at g.e. 1867; re-elected at g.e. 1872; at g.e. 1874, and again at last g.e. Sworn in as Minister of Interior (vice Laird) Oct. 1876, which position he held until resignation of Govt., Oct. 1878. An advanced Liberal. Favors the amendment of the Constitution so as to provide for the election of the Senate; for the appointment of Provincial Judges by the Provincial Executives, and the complete separation of Provincial and Federal jurisprudence. Was opposed to admission of British Columbia into the Union as premature, and the terms of Union as preposterous. He was of opinion that with more than two thousand miles of unsettled territory between the Upper Ottawa and British Columbia, we were not in a position to undertake the responsibilities of governing the country upon the Pacific coast. He held that railway construction, if needed in British Columbia, was a work to be undertaken by Imperial rather than by Canadian authority. He was opposed to pledging Canada to the construction of a continuous line of Railway to the Pacific, as wholly beyond the resources of this country. He denies that there ever can be a through traffic of Asiatic or European products over the road of any consequence, and that no engagement yet made with British Columbia, looking to the completion of the road, can be fulfilled. He holds that since the Northern Pacific Railway has been built to the banks of the Red River of the North, that the Eastern terminus of the Canadian road ought to have been at Pembina. He holds that railway travel and traffic are not in any way affected by political boundaries, and that by utilizing the Northern Pacific we would have made it dependent upon the continuance of our trade over it to and from the North West. Favors the government of Canada by the Canadian Parliament, and not by despatches from the Colonial Office. In favor of the establishment of Canadian Courts having Admiralty jurisdiction. Holds that power to legislate upon the subjects of navigation and shipping carries with it power to establish Courts to adjudicate upon matters arising under such legislation, in accordance with the well-settled rules of maritime law. Favors a national policy, based not upon principles of commercial exclusion, but upon principles of commercial extension. Thinks Canada has outgrown the condition of an ordinary colony. She has commercial relations with Foreign States, in which she alone is interested, and which she alone ought to regulate and control on her own behalf. Is opposed to the People's representatives abdicating their functions, either by failing to maintain an effective control over the expenditure of the national resources, or by surrendering to the Crown and Privy Council an important part of their legislative functions. Does not regard an enormous public debt as a national blessing; and believes that the prosperity of the country is to be promoted by habits of economy among the people, by encouraging a feeling of self-reliance and personal independence, and by fostering a spirit of patriotism—not flunkeyism—by which the interests, the prosperity, and the honor of Canada are made the paramount duty of their representatives, and not upon gigantic and costly works built in wild and uninhabitable regions. Considers the present state as one of transition; and regards the Confederation of the Empire, for certain specified purposes, as the most satisfactory solution of our political future.—Palmyra, Ont.

MONGENAIS, Lieut.-Col. JEAN BAPTISTE, J. P. (Vaudreuil.)

ROBERTSON, THOMAS, Q.C. [Hamilton].

B. 25 Jan. 1827, at the Village of Ancaster, then the most important business centre west of York. His father, the late Alexander Robertson, Esq., of Goderich, a remote descendant of the Robertsons of Struan, Chiefs of the Clan Donnachie, came to this country in 1820, from Foxbar in Renfrewshire, which had been the the home of his family for several generations, since the time when, the misfortunes of Prince Charlie having proved the ruin of so many of his adherents, not a few of the Robertsons had left their beloved Rannoch to seek for better fortunes in the, to them, unwontedly peaceful pursuits of the lowlands. He M. in 1824 Matilda, eldest dau. of Colonel Titus Geir Simons, High Sheriff of the old Gore District, who had served in command of his regiment in the war of 1812-13, and fought at Lundy's Lane, where he was dangerously wounded. Of this marriage Mr. Robertson is the eldest child. He was ed. at the London and Huron District Grammar Schools, and the Univ. of Toronto; studied law under the late Hon. John Hillyard Cameron; became an Attorney in 1849; was called to the Bar in 1852; became a Q.C. under Patent from the Earl of Dufferin, Governor General, in 1873, and a Bencher of the Law Society of Ontario in 1874. Mr. Robertson m. in June 1850, Frances Louisa, youngest dau. of the late Theodore Reed, Esq., one of the earliest pioneers of the "Huron Tract," by whom he has three sons and one daughter living. He began his professional career at Dundas, whence he subsequently removed to Hamilton, where he enjoys a large practice and a widely-extended reputation as a leading nisi prius advocate. He was the first Crown Attorney for Wentworth, and he remained such until 1863, when he was superseded by the appointment by Mr. Sandfield Macdonald, of the late Mr. S. B. Freeman, Q.C., to the clerkship of the Peace, whereby he became also ex-officio Crown Attorney. At the first g.e. after Confederation, Mr. Robertson contested South Wentworth with Mr. Rymal, the then and now sitting mem. for that constituency, at whose hands he suffered defeat by a majority of twenty-seven votes. Mr. Robertson and his colleague, Mr. F. E. Kilvert, M.P., were elected at the g.e. of 1878, in opposition to Mr. Irving, Q.C., and Mr. Wood, the late members, to the representation of the constituency for which they now sit. A Lib.-

Con. and a supporter of the National Policy, which, as to its main features, he strongly advocated in 1867 in his contest with Mr. Rymal in South Wentworth. He is also in favor of compulsory voting, which he suggested as a desirable amendment of the law, both through the press and in letters to Mr. Edward Blake and other persons, so long ago as 1870.—Hamilton, Ont.

Sat in Legislative Assembly of N.S. from 1854 until 1867, and was Speaker of that body from 1863 to 1867. Defeated at g.e. 1867, in consequence of having supported Confederation. First returned to Commons, for present seat, 21 Jan. 1878, defeating Hon. W. B. Vail, Minister of Militia. Re-elected at last g.e. A Conservative. —Digby, N. S.

WALLACE, WILLIAM. (South Norfolk.) 2ND MEM.

Eld. s. of the late John Wallace, a native of Ayrshire, Scot., who served in the Scots Greys at Waterloo, by Anne Spiers, his wife. B. near Galston, Ayrshire, 4 Feb. 1820. Ed. at the parish school at Whithorn, Wigtonshire. M. 1852, Mary Anne, second dau. of George Kent, Esq., of Simcoe, Ont. Came to Can. 1840. Founded the British Canadian newspaper (Simcoe) 1861, of which he still remains editor and proprietor. Was School Trustee of Simcoe for many years, and has been Reeve of Simcoe and a mem. of the County Council. Sat for present seat from g.e. 1872, until g.e. 1874. Again returned 16 Dec. 1874, on the unseating of the sitting mem.; re-elected at last g.e. A Conservative, but not opposed to well-considered change or wise progress. Is an advocate of a Federation of the Empire, and introduced a series of resolutions bearing on that question in 1873; of railways and telegraphs being owned by the Govt.; of a scheme for building the Pacific Railway on the credit of the country, but not by money borrowed from abroad; of a national currency; and of a Civil Service reform, which will divest Govts. of patronage; of compulsory voting; and of every other measure that will advance the moral or industrial interests of the country. Determinedly hostile to "Canada First" if it means Independence, but strongly in favor of it if it means Canada first in all that will tend to the elevation of man and the greatness of a people. Opposed to an elective Senate because it is another step towards Republicanism, in which it is his opinion Canada and Canadians have already gone too far.—Simcoe, Ont.

WALLACE, NATHANIEL CLARKE. [West York.]

Third s. of Capt. Nathaniel Wallace, of Woodbridge, who came to Can. from Sligo, Irel., in 1834. B. in Woodbridge, County of York, 21 May 1844. Ed at the Public School there, and for a short time in 1863 at Weston Grammar School. M. 7 June 1877, in the City of Ottawa to Belinda, youngest dau. of the late James Gillmor, of Ottawa. Had been first Deputy Reeve of the Township of Vaughan for the last five years, and for the current year is Warden of the County of York. Taught Public School from 1864 to 1869, when he went into mercantile business with his brother, under the firm of Wallace Bros. Has been successful. First returned to Parlt. at last g.e. A Liberal Conservative. Believes in the National Policy, the construction of the Canada Pacific Ry., and opening up of the North West as far as our means will permit.—Woodbridge, Township of Vaughan, Co. of York, Ont.

WELDON, CHARLES WESLEY, A.M., Q.C. (St. John.)

Eldest s. of Hon. John W. Weldon, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, by Frances Chandler, (who died in 1844,) youngest dau. of Hon. Judge Upham, one of the Judges of the Supreme Count of New Brunswick at its first organization. Judge Upham was a Massachusetts Loyalist, and took part in the Revolutionary War as a Colonel of Dragoons. B. at Richibucto, N.B., 27 Feb. 1830. Ed. at the Academy and King's College, Windsor, N.S.; graduated 1847. M. at St. John, N.B., March 1860, to Annie, only dau. of John McKee, Esq. First returned to Parlt. at last g.e. Was strongly opposed to the Confederation of the Provinces, and was a supporter of the Government of which Hon. Mr. Mackenzie was the head. Opposed to the so-called National Policy and the present Government.—St. John, N.B.

WHELER, GEORGE, J.P. (North Ontario.)

Eldest s. of Edward Wheler, J.P., Ex-Reeve of the Township of Whitchurch, Co. of York, Province of Ont., now Reeve of Stouffville, Co of York, who came to Canada, A.D. 1832, from Devonshire, Eng., by Anna Maria, third dau. of Peter Reeson, one of the first settlers in the Township of Markham, Co. of York, who emigrated from Pennsylvania, U.S., about the year 1800. B. at Markham, 2 Sept. 1836. Ed. at Toronto and Victoria College, Cobourg. M. at Uxbridge Sept. 1861, Harriet, only dau. of Wm. Hamilton, Esq., of Uxbridge. Has filled the position of Reeve of Uxbridge, and Warden of the Co. of Ontario. Was Postmaster of Uxbridge for 1865, until he resigned to contest North Ontario at last g.e. First returned to Parlt. at last g.e.—A Liberal.—Uxbridge, Ont.

WHITE, PETER, JR. (North Renfrew.) 3RD MEM.

Of Scottish descent. S. of the late Lieut.-Col. Peter White, who settled at Pembroke 1828. B. at Pembroke, Ont., 30 Aug. 1838. Ed. there. M. Dec. 1877, Miss Thompson. A lumber merchant. Has been Reeve of the Township and Town of Pembroke. An unsuccessful candidate for present seat at g.e. 1873, and in Nov. 1874. Sat for present seat from g.e. 1874 until 14 Sept. same year, when unseated on petition. Again returned 21 January, 1876, on the sitting mem. being unseated. Re-elected at last g.e. A Liberal Conservative.—Pembroke ; Rideau Club.

WHITE, THOMAS. (Cardwell.)

Father emigrated to this country from Co. Westmeath, Ire., in 1826, and carried on business for many years in Montreal as leather merchant. B. in Montreal, 1830. Ed. at High School, Montreal. M. in 1853. Served in Peterboro' and Hamilton as member of Grammar School Boards ; was for some time Reeve of Town of Peterboro'. Representative for a number of years of the Montreal Board of Trade in the Dominion Board ; member for three years of Executive Council of Dominion Board, and representative for five years of that body at the National Board of Trade of the United States. First returned to Parlt. at g.e. 1878. Was a candidate for S. Wentworth in 1867, for the Leg. Assembly, Ont.; for the Commons in Prescott Co., Ont., 1874, and for Montreal West in 1875, and again in 1876. The aggregate majorities against him in the first three elections was only sixteen. A Conservative. Believes that Canada occupies an exceptional position, rendering it impossible to apply the principle of Free Trade, as stated by political economists, without serious injury. Thinks the Tariff should be so framed as to promote foreign trade by Halifax in winter, and the St. Lawrence in summer, as against trade by American seaports ; and as to foster the development of the Agricultural, Mining, and Manufacturing interests of the country.—Montreal, Gazette Office.

WILLIAMS, Lt.-Col. ARTHUR TREFUSIS HENEAGE. (East Durham.)

S. of John Tucker Williams, Esq., a Commander in the Royal Navy, who sat for Durham in Can. Assembly from 1840 to 1848. B. at Penryn Park, Port Hope, Ont., 1837. Ed. at U. C. College and Edinburgh University. M. the dau. of Hon. Senator Seymour. Is Lieut.-Col. commanding 46th "East Durham" Batt. V.I. Chairman of the Port Hope Harbour Commrs.; President of the Midland Loan and Savings Co. First returned to Parlt. for present seat at g.e. 1867. Re-elected by acclamation at g.e. 1871. First elected to Commons at last g.e. A Conservative.—Penryn Park, Port Hope, Ont.; Toronto Club.

WISER, JOHN PHILIP. (South Grenville.)

B. in Oneida Co., State of New York. M. Emily, second dau. of Hon. H. Godard, of Richville, St. Lawrence Co., N.Y. Came to Prescott in 1857, as Manager for Egert & Nowells; succeeded to their distilling business in 1862, which he has since enlarged and increased. Is also extensively engaged in stock raising. First returned to Parlt. at last g.e. A Liberal.—Prescott, Ont.

WRIGHT, Lieut.-Col. ALONZO. [Ottawa Co.]

S. of the late Lieut.-Col. Tiberius Wright; and grands. of the late Philemon Wright, formerly of Woburn, Mass., who came to Can., 1797, founded the village of Hull, on the Ottawa, and became the first representative of the Co. of Ottawa in the L.C. Assembly. B. at Hull, P.Q., 26 Feb. 1825. Ed. at Potsdam Academy, N.Y. M. Mary, eld. dau. of the late Nicholas Sparks, Esq., of Ottawa City. Is Lieut.-Col of the Ottawa Co. Reserve Militia; Presdt. of the Co. of Ottawa Agricultural Society; and a dir. of the City of Ottawa Agricultural Society. Sat for present seat in Can. Assembly from 1862 until the Union, when returned to Commons by Acclamation; re-elected by acclamation at g.e. 1872; again returned at g.e. 1874, and again at last g.e. by a majority of 1624.—A Liberal Conservative.—Ironsides, Hull, P.Q.; Rideau Club.

YEO, Hon. JAMES. [Prince.]

Second s. of the late Hon. James Yeo, of Porthill, P.E.I., who came from Devonshire, Eng., 1827, and held a seat in the Provincial Assembly for a period of thirty years. B. at Porthill, 1832. CHURCH, Hon. LEVI RUGGLES, Q.C. [Pontiac.]

Descended from one of the oldest families in New England, his ancestors having emigrated from the Old Country to the then Colony of Massachusetts in the early part of the 17th century. One of them, Col. Benjamin Church, distinguished himself in the French and Indian wars, in which the New England colonists were engaged, having commanded the volunteer army, which, in a protracted kind of guerilla warfare, defeated and afterwards killed the celebrated Indian King Philip, who had given so much trouble and alarm to the early settlers. At the breaking out of the Revolutionary war, the Church family, respectable both in numbers and position, being Whigs, espoused the Republican cause, except two, who took up arms to defend the Royal prerogative. One of these was killed in battle, and the other, Jonathan Mills Church, was taken prisoner in 1777 by the Am army, from whose custody he escaped and came to Can., and ultimately settled in the neighborhood of Brockville. He took an active part in defending Canada during the war of 1812-13-14, and died at a very advanced age in 1846. Second s. of the late Dr. Peter Howard Church, of Aylmer, P.Q., and grands. of the above mentioned Jonathan Mills Church. B. at Aylmer, 26 May 1836. Ed. at Victoria University, Cobourg. Oddfellows' Hall Co. of St. John; Presdt. of the St. John Land and House Co.; a member of Enniskillen Loyal Orange Lodge, St. John. In 1874 Mr. Marshall offered as an Independent candidate for the city of St. John, on the platform that the N.B. School Law was too expensive, and that, without destroying the principle of non-sectarian free schools, modifications might be made in the Bill, which, while doing no wrong to Protestants, would lead the Catholics to accept it without further trouble. At that time he was defeated, and now these very modifications have been made, and general harmony on the education question has been secured. First elected in 1876 ; contested the seat rendered vacant by the death of the late William H. A. Keans, with Charles A. Everett, Esq., J.P., who polled 1,162 votes, Mr Marshall having 1,350 votes—majority for Mr. Marshall, 188. This election was most determinedly contested, and, to avoid complications, Mr. Marshall resigned; and on 19 Jan. 1877 he was re-elected by acclamation. At the general election in June, 1878, Mr. Marshall was again elected to represent the city of St. John in the Provincial Parliament. ABOLITION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Up to Jan. 1876, the Province of Manitoba had an upper chamber or Legislative Council; but the political machinery for so sparsely populated a Province was considered altogether too cumbersome, and upon Financial Delegations conferring with the Dominion Govt., an arrangement was entered into in 1875, that the Provincial Govt. should endeavour, on condition of the annual subsidy to Manitoba being increased to $100,000, to simplify legislation by abolishing the second chamber. The minority, to meet the views of which the Legislative Council had presumably guaranteed, gracefully yielded to the generally expressed desire, and the abolition motion was carried on the following division :—

Vote on the Second Reading of the Bill, 26 Jan. 1876 :—

YEAS : Messrs. Brown, Burke, Bird, Cornish, Cowan, Chonier, Davis, Dick, Girard, Gunn, Luxton, Lemay, Lepine, Murray, McKay, McKenzie, Norquay, Nolin, Royal, Taylor—20.

NAYS : Mr. Sutherland—1.

The Bill, after passing the House, was reserved by His Honor the Lieut.-Gov. for the Governor General's consideration and formally assented by His Excellency shortly after.

PART XIII.

The Fisheries Commission and the Halifax Award

A summary of the history and proceedings of the Fisheries Commission, at Halifax, resulting in an award of five and a half millions of dollars, in gold, in favor of Great Britain, was given in the Parliamentary Companion of last year. The Treaty of Washington provides for the payment of any sum of compensation that might be awarded within twelve months. This time had nearly expired when the money was paid by the United States Government. The interim was occupied in discussing the whole subject between the public press of both countries and the respective Governments. Generally speaking, United States journals advised prompt and honorable settlement. In the United States Senate an acrimonious attack on the Umpire was accompanied by wholesale denunciation of the award. This assault failed to accomplish anything more than to show that the selection of the third Commissioner was the joint and deliberate act of the parties to the treaty, substantially in conformity with its provisions, and to embitter somewhat the excited state of public feeling. A message by President Hayes, submitting the record to Congress, suggested an appropriation of the necessary sum with such instructions regarding its payment as Congress should deem advisable. The requisite sum was voted, subject to the discretion of the Executive, after further correspondence with Great Britain Secretary Evarts discussed the matter ably and at great length, taking several grounds to invalidate the award. It was contended:

1. That the award was excessive and inconsistent with the evidence;

2. That it was not conformable to the submission;

3. That the dissent of the United States Commissioner rendered it void.

The arguments supporting this contention were dealt with by Lord Salisbury in a calm and masterly reply. Her Majesty's Government declined to review the proceedings of the Commission, and stood by the judgment of the tribunal which both Governments had constituted, and to which the subjects in dispute had been solemnly referred under the treaty without appeal. The British Minister pointed out that a legitimate claim for compensation had been laid at fifteen millions of dollars, and although the Commission had reduced it nearly two-thirds, it was not consistent with the voluntary submission of their Case to decisive arbitration that they should question the result. Respecting the necessity for unanimity, Lord Salisbury established clearly that the judgment of a majority of the Commissioners was undoubtedly contemplated by the treaty, and was in undisputable accord with the standard authorities governing international arbitrations. An incident occurring about the eleventh hour afforded the American Secretary of State an additional plea in arrest of payment. It was the occurrence at Fortune Bay in Newfoundland. Several fishermen from Gloucester had been forcibly prevented from fishing by the inhabitants, because of their operations being contrary to existing Provincial laws by which British subjects were restrained. Secretary Evarts adopted the strange view that United States citizens could fish as they pleased, and that any restrictions imposed on their pursuit by municipal authority was an unwarrantable interference with privileges acquired by the treaty. Lord Salisbury replied that the parties to the treaty enjoyed common rights, and that United States citizens could not be privileged participants.

Ultimately, the American Minister at London received instructions to offer the amount of the award to Lord Salisbury, if Her Majesty's Government thought fit to accept it under protest. It was accepted. The money has been apportioned as follows :—

Receiver-General of Canada	$4,387,500
Newfoundland	975,000
Retained by Imperial Government for expenses	137,500

The United States Government has since expressed further dissatisfaction by giving notice to terminate the fishery articles of the Treaty of Washington in 1885, and by claiming damages for loss sustained by the American fishermen concerned in the affair at Fortune Bay last year. This claim forms the subject of an opportune report by Mr. W. F. Whitcher, who points out that the claimants were seining herrings from the shore when molested, which the treaty does not authorize. Also, that there is a very remarkable inconsistency between the contention of the American Government that the Award is excessive, although it covers twelve years of inshore fisheries for mackerel, herrings, cod, halibut, bait, and other fishes, on all the coasts of the Maritime Provinces and part of Newfoundland, while the present claim for one hundred thousand dollars is based on the loss of a single day's fishing for herrings alone in a small bay of Newfoundland. Mr. Whitcher shows that at least one hundred trips annually are made by American herring vessels to Newfoundland, and that the owners claim to be enabled to catch five thousand dollars' worth of fish per vessel at each trip. This figures up half a million of dollars' worth of fishing yearly. During twelve years it would amount to a considerable sum. The herring fishery is but a fractional part of the privileges conceded to the United States by the treaty. If they cannot profitably pursue it without the additional liberty of landing to haul or "trip" their seines, then they should endeavour to supplement the treaty; but after exposing their dependence on the British fisheries so completely as the present claim for indemnity has done, there ought not to be any more depreciation of the extensive privileges secured by the Treaty of Washington and partially paid for by the Halifax Award.

A ponderous blue book has been issued by the Fisheries Department containing the proceedings of the Commission, and has been laid before the Canadian Parliament. These documents are exceedingly interesting o the people of Canada, and bear witness to the industry, skill and ability of the various persons to whom colonial interests were entrusted in connection with the Fisheries Commission.

IX. RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS 395

X. MISCELLANEOUS CASES 396

I. MINISTERS OF THE CROWN.

1. Change of Office.

Defendant, while a member of Parliament, was appointed to the office of Postmaster-General, and again re-elected for the same constituency. On the 29th July he resigned that office, and within a month was appointed President of the Council, which office he resigned on the same day, and on the next day was re-appointed to his old office of Postmaster-General —Held, that this was authorized by the 20 Vict. c. 22. The penalties imposed by that Act apply to members of the Assembly retaining their seats without re-election after acceptance of office, and not only to persons absolutely ineligible. The exemption contained in the seventh clause is not confined to one resignation and acceptance of office, but allows the change to be repeated, and the person may thus go back to the same office which he first resigned. It was stated in the pleadings that the Ministry, of which defendant as Postmaster-General, was a member, all resigned office on the 29th July, and on the 2nd August were succeeded by the opposition, who resigned on the following day; that on the 6th, the old Ministry were re-appointed, but took different offices from those which they before held, and on the 7th resigned again and were re-appointed to their old places; and it was alleged that the appointment to a different office in the first instance was colorable, and made only to enable defendant to resume his original appointment without going back for re-election:—Held, that although such a proceeding was probably not contemplated by the Act, it was allowed by it; that the court could not look at defendant's motives, or strain the construction of the statute so as to impose a penalty; and that whether the course taken was or was not consistent with the system of political government established in this Province, was a question which they could not take into consideration. McDowell v. Smith, 17 Q. B. 310. See also Macdonell v. Macdonald, 8 C.P., 479.

See 31 Vict. c. 25, secs. 5, 6, D.

II. Privilege of Parliament.

1. In Actions Against Members.

A member of parliament had formerly the privilege of being sued by bill and summons, not by the ordinary process. This was abolished by 12 Vict. c. 66, now contained in the C.L.P. Acts, s. 2. For decisions under the old practice, See McKoane v. Fothergill, Tay. 350; Phelps v. McKenzie, 5 O.S. 80; Mahon v. Ermatinger; 1 Q.B. 334; Hincks v. Crooks, et al., E.T. 2 Vict., R. & H. Dig. 333; Lyster v. Boulton, 5 Q.B. 632.

In an action against a member the declaration would not be set aside for a variance between it and the original bill.—Hill v. McNab, 1 Q B. 413.

2. From Arrest and Attachment.

An attachment was granted against a sheriff who was a member of parliament, for not returning a writ pursuant to a rule of court. Bell v. Buchanan, M.T. 1 Vict.

Members of parliament in Upper Canada have the same privilege from arrest as in England. One of the defendants, being a member, was arrested on the 29th November, 1851, under an attachment issued against him as an attorney for non-payment of a debt. The last preceding session during which he had been a member expired on 30th August, 1851, and that parliament was dissolved on the 6th November following. On the 10th December he was again elected, and in February applied to be discharged on the ground of privilege: Held, that he was not privileged under the first election, as at the time of arrest he was not a member, and more than forty days had elapsed from the close of the last session; but that he was entitled to his discharge as a member of the new parliament, having been arrested within forty days next before the return of the writ of election. The return at the new election was held sufficiently proved by the affidavit of the applicant. Regina v. Gamble, et al., 9 Q.B. 546.

An attachment against a member of parliament is illegal, and may be set aside, though no proceedings have been taken upon it. S.C., 1 P.R. 222.—P.C.—Burns.

An order to commit to close custody for not attending to be examined pursuant to a judge's order is a commitment for contempt, not a commitment in execution. A member of parliament is therefore not privileged from arrest under such order, and a party committed under it is not entitled to his discharge on payment of the debt and costs. Semble, that if the order be so framed as to entitle defendant to his discharge on payment of the claim, the privilege of parliament would avail against it. Henderson v. Dickson, 19 Q.B. 592.

An order will not be made for the examination of a judgment debtor whose home is in the Province of Quebec, though temporarily residing in Ontario, attending to his duties as a member of parliament. Regan v. McGreevy, 5 P.R. 94.—C.L. Chamb.—Hagarty.

A member of the Provincial Parliament is privileged from arrest for forty days after the prorogation or dissolution of Parliament, and for the same period before the next appointed meeting. Wadsworth et al, v. Boulton, 2 C. L. Chamb. 76.—McLean.

Defendant applied to set aside an arrest for irregularity; his application was defeated, not on the merits, but owing to plaintiff's applying for and obtaining an order to amend:—Held, therefore, that the plaintiff was still at liberty to move after the amendment against the arrest on the ground of illegality.—Ib.

Where a party having privilege had been in contempt for non-compliance with an order of the court, and the order nisi for a sequestration had been duly served; but between that and the application for the writ to issue the party had ceased to be a member, the court refused the writ, and directed the party moving to commence proceedings for the contempt de novo. Meyers v. Harrison, 4 Chy. 148.

An application to commit the sitting member for contempt in not attending the investigation before the County Judge as a witness for his adversary, refused. In re Essex Election, 4 L.J. 212. —C.C.—Chewett.

3. Other Cases.

The House of Assembly has the power of imprisoning persons guilty of contempt in answering or refusing to answer questions before a select committee.—McNab v. Bidwell et al. Dra. 144.

To an action on a bond, alleging a departure, defendants pleaded that the debtor, by virtue of a warrant of the Speaker of the House of Assembly, then in session, was required to attend as a witness before said House, and that to obey the warrant he left the limits and remained away ten days:—Held, no defence, as it was not shewn that the Speaker knew the debtor to be on the limits, or what occasion there was for requiring his attendance, or that any process had issued by which he was placed in custody of an officer while absent. Brown et al. v. Paxton et al., 19 Q. B. 238.

The engagements of a witness, who was a Senator of the Dominion and a member of the Executive Council, at his duties at Ottawa, where the Senate was in session, were deemed sufficient excuse for not procuring his attendance, and good grounds for putting off the hearing. Rees v. Attorney-General, 2 Chy. Chamb. 386.—Taylor, Secretary.

III. ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

1. Property Qualification of Candidates.

Held, 1. As in the North Victoria case, that the Dominion Election Act of 1874 not being retrospective, the question of property qualifications of candidates, at elections for members of the House of Commons held before the passing of the Dominion Election Act of last session, can still be raised in pending cases. 2. That it is not necessary for an elector, demanding the property qualification of a candidate, to tender the necessary declaration for the candidate to make, the intention of the statutes being that the candidate must himself prepare the declaration. 3. That if the property qualification of a candidate be properly demanded at the right time, the demand must be complied with; and it is not sufficient after the return of a candidate is contested, for him to shew that at the time of his election or return he was duly qualified. Cardwell Election Petition—Hewitt et al. v. Cameron, 10 L.J.N.S. 230. —E.C.—Richards.

[By the Dominion Election Act of 1874, property qualification for a candidate for the Dominion Parliament is annulled. For the Senate the qualification is property representing $4,000, above all liabilities.]

2. Nomination.

A nomination paper for the House of Commons was signed by twenty-five persons. Twenty-four of the names were on the voters' lists, but through some omission one was not. This person had sufficient property to be on the list, and had been on the roll for the previous year:—Held, under 37 Vict. c. 9, D., that the nomination paper was nevertheless sufficient. Semble, that a returning officer is both a ministerial and judicial officer. South Renfrew Election Case—Bannerman v. McDougall, 11 L.J.N.S. 47.—E. C.—A. Wilson.

Held, following the decision of the Chancellor in the Dundas case (not reported), that the meeting of the electors at the nomination of candidate is a meeting "for the purpose of promoting the election of a candida e," within the meaning of the 36 Vict. c. 2, s. 2, O. North Middlesex Election Petition—Cameron v. McDougall, 12 L. J. N.S. 14.—E.C.—Spragge.

3. Voters.

(a) Naturalized Subjects and Aliens.

Held, that naturalized subjects are not required to procure certificates of naturalization in order to entitle them to vote. West Elgin Election, 9 L.J. 330.—Parliamentary Committee.

Where the voter was born in the United States, both his parents being British born subjects, his father and grandfather being U.E. Loyalists, and the voter residing nearly all his life in Canada: —Held, entitled to vote. Stormont Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 213. —E.C.—Richards.

(b) Voters' List and Assessment Roll.

Where the voter had been originally, before 1865 or 1866, put upon the assessment roll merely to give him a vote, but by a subsequent arrangement with his father, made in 1865 or 1866, he was to su port his father, and apply the rest of the proceeds to his own support:—Held, that if he had been put on originally merely for the purpose of giving a vote, and that was the vote questioned. it would have been bad, but being continued several years after he really became the occupant for his own benefit, he was entitled to vote, though originally the assessment began in his name merely to qualify him. Stormont Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 213.—E. C. Richards.

The name of a voter being on the poll book is prima facie evidence of his right to vote. Ib.

The only question as to the qualification of a voter settled by the Court of Revision under the Assessment Act is the one of value. Ib.

Where the voter and his son leased certain property, and the lease was drawn in the son's name alone, and when the crops were reaped the son claimed they belonged to him solely, the voter owning other property, but being assessed for this only, and voting on it:—Held, that although he was on the roll and had the necessary qualification, but not assessed for it, he was not entitled to vote. Ib.

If a man be duly assessed for a named property on the roll even though there was a clerical error in describing such property in the voters' list, or erroneously setting down another property on the voters' list, if no question or difficulty arose at the poll as to the taking the oath, the vote will not be struck off on a scrutiny. Brockville Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 221.—E.C.—Hagarty.

When a voter, properly assessed, who was accidentally omitted from the voters' list for polling sub-division No. 1, where his property lay, and entered in the voters' list for sub-division No. 2, voted without question in No. 1, though not on the list—vote held good. Ib.

Quære, even if accidentally omitted from the voters' list should the vote be received. Of course, if questioned at the poll, it could not have been received, not being on the voters' list. Ib.

A voter duly qualified is not to be disfranchised if his name is entered as tenant, instead of owner or occupant, or vice versa. Stormont Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 213.—E. C.—Richards; Brockville Election Petition, Ib. 221.—E. C.—Hagarty.

The 32 Vict. c. 21, s. 7, and sub-s. 1, O., enacts that the clerk of each municipality shall, in each year, make from the assessment rolls a list of the persons entitled to vote therein, and deliver it to the clerk of the peace on or before the 15th August. By sub.-s. 3, this period shall be directory only to the clerk, "and the said lists shall be valid and effectual for the purposes of this act, even though not so completed and delivered by the said period of time;" and by sub-s. 10, no person shall be admitted to vote unless his name appear on the last list of voters, delivered to the clerk of the peace, "at least one month before the date of the writ to hold such election." The writ to hold the election was tested on the 25th of February, 1871. The list of voters for one of the townships in the electoral division was made up from the assessment roll of 1870, and sworn to on the 13th August; but it was not delivered to the clerk of the peace until the 17th March 1871. The list for 1869 had been delivered on the 19th August on that year. Per Richards, C.J., and Morrison J., the list of 1869, was one which should have been used. Per A. Wilson, J., that of 1870 was properly used; for that the month should be construed to mean a month from the 15th of August, when the roll should have been, or any earlier day when it may in fact have been, delivered; that the roll, though delivered too late, would not otherwise be "valid and effectual for the purposes of this Act," and the neglect of the clerk should not be allowed to disfranchise voters. There were 41 voters on the list of 1869 who were not on that of 1870, but it was not shewn that the vote of any one entitled to vote by either list had been rejected; nor was it shewn or suggested that the use of one roll instead of the other could in any way have affected the result of the election:—Held, that the election was not avoided. The Election for the Electoral Division of the County of Monck, 32 Q. B. 147.

Under the Dominion Election Act, 1874. the assessment roll is conclusive as to the amount of the assessment; but the mere fact of the name of a person being on the roll is not conclusive as to his right to vote. The returning officer is bound to record the vote if the person take the oath, but that is not conclusive. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 10 L. J. N. S. 217. —E.C.—Richards, Spragge, Hagarty.

Mistakes in copying the voters' lists should not deprive a legally qualified voter of his vote, (though the returning officer might properly refuse to receive it,) any more than the name of an unqualified voter being on the list would give him a right to vote. But the mere fact that the lists were not correct alphabetical lists, or had not the correct number of the lot, or were not properly certified, or the omitting to do some act as to which the statute is directory, is no ground for setting aside an election unless some injury resulted from the omission. Ib.

The names of certain voters who were entitled to vote at the election appeared on the last revised assessment roll, and should have appeared on the copies of the voters' lists as furnished to deputy returning officers, but were omitted from such lists. They tendered their votes to the deputy returning officer, and many of them stated they desired to vote for the petitioner. Semble, that these votes must be counted for the petitioner, if it were clear that they tendered their votes and intended to vote for him. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 11 L.J.N.S. 163. —Q.B.—A. Wilson.

The above decision affirmed on appeal The petitioner, upon a scrutiny of the ballots, having a majority in his favor, it appeared that the names of eighteen persons upon the last revised assessment roll, and entitled to vote, were omitted from the copies of voters' list made for the purposes of the election, and their votes were rejected by the returning officer. Eight of them tendered their votes for the petitioner at the poll, and four others made affidavits that they wished to vote for him, which they left with the returning officer. The other six tendered their votes, but did not say for whom, but there was evidence that they declared at the poll, though not to the returning officer, that they would have voted for the petitioner :—Held, no ground for setting aside the election; for that it was competent to receive evidence shewing how they intended to vote, and it was clear therefore that their rejection had not affected the result. S. G., 37 Q.B. 234.

Under 37 Vict. c. 4, s. 5 O., the county judge has the right to examine and decide whether the person objecting to any votes in the list of voters is a voter or person entitled to be a voter, although such complainant may appear on the roll as duly qualified. The judge having found as facts, on the evidence before him, that one of the two complainants did not give the notice of his complaint required by sec. 6, and that the other was not entitled to be a voter :—Held, that this decision could not be reviewed. In re Parsons and Toms—Re Voters' List of Goderich, 36 Q.B. 88.

The list of voters required to be posted to various persons under 37 Vict c. 4, O., was prepared and certified by the clerk of the municipality, ready for transmission on a certain day, but he died before that day came, and they were in fact transmitted by his successor without any alteration in the certificate. They were regular in every respect, with this exception :—Held, that as sec. of 37 Vic. c 4, was only directory, and as the object of the statute was fulfilled to all intents and purposes, the list was sufficient to give jurisdiction to the county judge to revise it. In re Revision of Voters' Lists of the Township of Goderich, 6 P.R. 213.—C. L. Chamb. —Morrison.

(c) Property Qualification.

Where father and son live together on the father's farm, and the father is in fact the principal to whom money is paid, and who distributes it, and the son has no agreement binding on the father to compel him to give the son a share of the proceeds of the farm, or to cultivate a share of the land, and the son merely receives what the father's sense of justice dictates:—Held, the son has no vote. Stormont Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 213.—E.C.—Richards.

In a milling business, where the agreement between the father and the son was, that if the son would take charge of the mill and manage the business he should have a share of the profits, and the son, in fact, solely managed the business, keeping possession of the mill, and applying a portion of the proceeds to his own use:—Held, that the son had such an interest in the business, and, while the business lasted, such an interest in the land as entitled him to vote. Ib.

Where a certain occupancy was proved on the part of the son distinct from that of the father, but no agreement to entitle the son to a share of the profits, and the son merely worked with the rest of the family for their common benefit:—Held, that although the son was not merely assessed for the real, but the personal property on the place (his title to the latter being on the same footing as the former) he was not entitled to vote. Ib.

Where the father had made a will in his son's favour, and told the son if he would work the place and support the family he would give it to him, and the entire management remained in the son's hands from that time, the property being assessed in both names—the profits to be applied to pay the debt due on the place:—Held, that as the understanding was that the son worked the place for the support of the family, and beyond that for the benefit of the estate, which he expected to possess under his father's will, and he did not hold immediately to his own use and benefit, he was not entitled to vote. Ib.

Where the objection taken was, that the voter was not at the time of the final revision of the assessment roll the bona fide owner, occupant or tenant of the property in respect of which he voted, and the evidence shewed a joint occupancy on the part of the voter and his father on land rated at $240 :—Held, that the notice given did not point to the objection that if the parties were joint occupants they were insufficiently rated. The learned chief justice intimated that if the objection had been properly taken, or if the counsel for petitioner (whose interest it was to sustain the vote) had stated that he was not prejudiced by the form of the objection, he would have held the vote bad. Ib.

Where the voter had only received a deed of the property on which he voted on the 16th of Aug. 1870, but previous to that date had been assessed for and paid taxes on the place, but not owning it : —Held, that not possessing the qualification at the time he was assessed, or at the final revision of the roll, he was not entitled to vote Ib.

Where the voter was the equitable owner, the deed being taken in the father's name, but the son furnishing the money, the father in occupation with the assent of the son, and the proceeds not divided :—Held, that being the equitable owner, notwithstanding the deed to the father, he had the right to vote. Ib.

Where the voter was tenant of certain property belonging to his father-in-law, and before the expiration of his tenancy, the father-in-law, with the consent of the voter (the latter being a witness to the lease), leased the property to another, the voter's lease not expiring until November, and the new lease being made on the 28th March 1870 :—Held, that after the surrender by the lease, to which he was a subscribing witness, he ceased to be a tenant on the 28th of March 1870, and that to entitle him to vote he must have the qualification at the time of the final revision of the assessment roll, though not necessarily at the time he voted, so long as he was still a resident of the electoral division. Ib.

Where a verbal agreement was made between the voter and his father in January 1870, and on this agreement the voter from that time had exercised control, and took the proceeds to his own use, although the deed was not executed until September following:—Held, entitled to vote. Ib.

Where it was proved that an agreement existed (verbal or otherwise), that the son should have one-third or one-half of the crops as his own, and such agreement was bona fide acted on, the son being duly assessed—vote held good; the ordinary test being, had the voter an actual existing interest in the crop growing and grown? Brockville Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 221.—E.C.—Hagarty.

Where it is proved that for some time past the owner has given up the whole management of the farm to his son, retaining his right to be supported from the product of the place, the son dealing with the crops as his own, and disposing of them to his own use—the son's vote is good. Ib.

A clearly established course of dealing or conduct for years as to management and disposition of crops, and acts done by the son in the management of the farm:—Held, sufficient to establish an interest in the crops in the son, though the evidence of any original agreement or bargain was not clear. Ib.

If the evidence would warrant a jury finding the crops (say in the year preceding the last assessment) to be the property of the voter—the vote is good. Ib.

No question of actual title is to be entertained, occupancy to the use and benefit of the occupant being sufficient. Ib.

Where the owner dies intestate, and the estate descends to several children, only the interest of the actual occupants is generally to be considered. Quære, unless the occupant be shewn to be receiving the rents and profits, and on account of a party interested, though not in actual possession, a mere liability to account is not to be considered. Ib.

Held, that by the Dominion Election Act of 1873, the qualification of voters to the House of Commons was regulated by the Ontario Act. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. MacLennan, 10 L.J.N.S. 217.—E.C.—Richards, Spragge, Hagarty.

Held, that a postmaster of a city is not liable to a penalty for voting at an election for a member of the House of Commons of the Dominion. But, semble, per Hagarty, C.J., he is not entitled to vote, and should he do so his vote might be struck off on a scrutiny. Savage v. Deacon, Smythe v. Deacon, 22 C.P. 441.

The words "illegal and prohibited acts in reference to elections," used in 34 Vict. c. 3, s. 3, O., mean such acts done in connection with, or to affect, or in reference to elections; not all acts which are illegal and prohibited under the election law. The right to vote is not to be taken away or the vote forfeited by the act of the voter unless under a plain and express enactment, for it is a matter in which others besides the voter are interested. In re The Election of the Town of Brockville and the Township of Elizabethtown, 32 Q.B. 132.

See Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald.

4. Agents and Canvassers.

When a candidate puts money into the hands of his agent, and exercises no supervision over the way in which the agent is spending that money, but accredits and trusts him, and leaves him the power of spending the money, although he may have given directions that none of the money should be improperly spent, there is such an agency established that the candidate is liable to the fullest extent, not only for what that agent may do, but also for what all the people whom that agent employs may do. Grey (South Riding) Election Petition—Hunter v. Lauder, 8 L.J.N.S. 17.—E.C.—Mowat.

Where bribery by an agent is proved, costs follow the event, even though personal charges brought against the respondent have not been proved, there having been no additional expense occassioned to the respondent by such personal charges. Ib.

Friends of the candidate formed themselves into committees, and some of them voluntarily distributed cards and canvassed different localities with books containing lists of voters, noting certain particulars as to promises, &c. These canvassers often came across voters in public houses, and, when there, according to custom, treated those whom they found there, and thus spent their money as well as their time. On this being represented to those who had charge of the money for election expenses, the latter, in several cases, reimbursed the canvassers :—Held, that these general payments, if not exceeding what would be paid to a person for working the same time in other employments, would not be such evidence of bribery as to set aside an election. East Toronto Election Petition—Rennick v. Cameron, 8 L.J.N.S. 113.—E.C.—Richards.

Held, that a candidate is responsible for the corrupt acts of sub-agents and persons acting under them. Semble, that no limit can be placed to the number of parties through whom the sub-agency may extend, even though the chain is not purposely lengthened. Niagara Election Petition—Black v. Plumb, 10 L.J.N.S. 317.—E.C.—Hagarty.

Responsibility for acts of sub-agents. Kingston Election Petition—Stewart v. Macdonald, 11 L.J.N.S. 19.—E.C.—Richards.

What acts constitute a person an agent in a parliamentary election, considered.—Canvassing combined with other acts.—An accumulation of trifling acts.—Attendance at meetings.—Entrusting a person with money for election purposes.—Canvassing in company with candidate. Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald, 10 L.J.N.S. 313.—E.C.—Spragge.

When a large and general authority is given to an agent, the candidate will be held responsible for the acts of sub-agents of such person. Ib.

Evidence of what acts constitute agency considered. London Election Petition—Pritchard v. Walker, 10 L.J.N.S. 281.—E.C.—Hagarty.

Held, following the judgments in the London election case, and the Kingston election case, that a candidate is not disqualified by the corrupt act of his agents, under 36 Vict. c. 27, s. 18, D., without his knowledge or consent. Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald, 11 L.J.N.S. 81.—E.C.—Spragge.

Held, that the evidence set out in the report did not constitute Peters an agent for the petitioner, so as to make the latter responsible for his acts. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 11 L.J.N.S. 163; 37 Q.B. 234.

Quære, whether the giving by an agent of a free dinner to a number of voters who have come a long distance in severe winter weather, the evidence not showing a corrupt intent on the part of the agent, is a "corrupt act." Ib.

About a dozen of the electors met some time before the nomination to consult as to the candidate who should run in the interests of the political party to which they belonged. By them and others the respondent was nominated, and accepted the nomination. The met occasionally to report progress and consult as to the canvass. One of them, named Sullivan, on the election day, during the hours of polling, treated some of the electors at a tavern. The respondent was present, and gave a silent consent to the act, and drank with the rest:—Held, that Sullivan was an agent, and that the respondent was a party to, and personally responsible for, a corrupt practice under the above statute. North Wentworth Election Petition—Christie v. Stock, 11, L.J.N.S. 196.—E.C.—Draper. Affirmed on appeal.—Ib., 296.

The mere fact of a political association putting forward and supporting a particular candidate does not make every member of the association his agent, though the candidate may so avail himself of their services as to make them his agents. One M., the reeve of a township, exerted himself strongly in favor of the respondent, to whom he was politically opposed, and against the other candidate, and attended meetings where the respondent was, and spoke in his favor. The reason for supporting the respondent and opposing the ministerial candidate, with whom he was politically in accord, was, that the ministry of the day had separated the township of which he was reeve from the riding. He was much annoyed and indignant at this separation, and announced his intention of using all his influence against the ministerial candidate:—Held, that the question of agency being one of intent, the respondent never conferred, and M. never assumed the authority of an agent for the respondent. North Grey Election Petition—Boardman v. Scott, 11 L.J.N.S. 242. This was reversed on appeal.

Held, that if an agent partakes of a treat during the hours of polling, the election is thereby avoided. South Essex Election Petition—McGee v. Wigle, 11 L.J.N.S. 217.—E.C.—Spragge.

By the constitution of the Reform Association for the east riding of Northumberland, each delegate to the convention was actively to promote the election of the candidate appointed by the convention. The candidate had himself been for six years a member of this organization, and was familiar with its objects and constitution. He had also as a delegate acted for other candidates in the promotion of their election, and expected the like assistance from the present members of the association. No committees were formed, and it was the recognized business of the association to see to the necessary canvass and organization for polling day:—Held, that delegates to the association, and acting as such in promoting the election of the candidate, were his agents, for whose acts he was responsible. East Northumberland Election Petition—Casey v. Ferris, 11 L.J.N.S. 328.—E.C.—Gwynne.

In this case the respondent forwarded some books containing names of voters to one J. H., to be put "into good hands to be selected by him for canvassing." Among others, J. H. gave one of the books to B., who was found guilty of corrupt practices, under 32 Vict. c. 21, s. 66. O. Gwynne, J., held, that J. H. was an agent of the respondent, specially authorized to appoint sub-agents, and that under such authority he appointed B. a sub-agent, and that the respondent was responsible for the corrupt practices of ., under the provisions of 36 Vict. c. 2, s. 3, O Welland Election Petition—Buchner v. Currie, 11 L.J.N.S. 273.—E.C.

IV. BRIBERY AND CORRUPT PRACTICES.

1. Treating.

Declaration, for hire of horses and carriages, and provisions furnished. Plea, that the alleged debt was contracted for and on account of spirituous liquors and other refreshments furnished by the plaintiff to defendant and his friends and supporters during a parliamentary election, at which election defendant was a candidate, and for work and services performed, and for provisions and materials provided by plaintiff for defendant as a candidate at and during said parliamentary election, contrary to law and statutes in such case made and provided:—Held, a good plea, under 22 Vict. c. 17, s. 6.—Mottashed v. Read, 23 Q.B. 432.

The distribution of liquor on the polling day, with the object of promoting the election of a candidate, will make his election void, under 34 Vict. c. 3. Grey (South Riding) Election Petition—Hunter v. Lauder, 8 L.J.N.S. 17.—E.C.—Mowat.

Held, that the furnishing of refreshment to a voter by an agent of a candidate, without the knowledge or consent of the candidate, and against his will, will not be a sufficient ground to set aside an election, if not done corruptly or with intent to influence votes. East Toronto Election Petition—Rennick v. Cameron, 8 L.J.N.S. 113. —E.C.—Richards.

Upon questions reserved by by the rota Judge under the Controverted Elections Act of 1871, it appeared that H. and B. voted for respondent. H. kept a saloon, which was closed on polling day, but upstairs, in his private residence, he gave beer and whiskey without charge to several of his friends, among whom were friends of both candidates. B., who had no license to sell liquor, sold it at a place near one of the polls to all persons indifferently. This was not done by H. or B. in the interest of either candidate, or to influence the election, B. acting simply for the purpose of gain; and the candidate did not know of or sanction their proceedings:—Held, though with some doubts as to B., that neither H. nor B. had committed any corrupt practice within sec. 47 of 34 Vict. c. 3, O., and therefore had not forfeited their votes; for they had not been guilty of bribery or undue influence, and their acts, if illegal and prohibited, were not done "in reference to" the election, which, under sec. 47 of 34 Vict. c. 3, is requisite in order to avoid a vote. In re the Election for the Town of Brockville and the Township of Elizabethtown, 32 Q.B. 132.

Effect of treating as a corrupt practice considered. Kingston Election Petition—Stewart v. Macdonald, 11 L.J.N.S. 19.—E.C.—Richards.

Held, that the receiving of a treat by the respondent during the hours of polling, does not, under sec. 66 of 32 Vict., c. 21, O., which must be construed strictly, either avoid the election or render him liable to any penalty. North Grey Election Petition—Boardman v. Scott, 11 L.J.N.S. 242.—E.C.—Gwynne.

Semble, that as to the seller or giver of the treat, the only person liable to the penalty would be the tavern-keeper, as the statute does not authorize two penalties for the same act.—Ib.

Held, that if an agent partakes of a treat during the hours of polling, the election is therefore avoided. South Essex Election Petition—McGee v. Wigle, 11. L.J.N.S. 247—E.C.—Spragge.

Held, 1. That 32 Viet. c. 21, s. 66, O., is limited in its effect to tavern-keepers, &c., who alone can sell or give liquor so as to avoid the election. Draper, C.J., dissented, holding that s. 66 extends to all persons who sell or give liquor in a tavern. 2. That the words of the section "Municipalities in which the polls are held," and "within the limits of such municipality," are not confined to the municipality in which are held the polls at which the voters, who are treated, are entitled to vote. The prohibition extends to the selling or giving liquor within the limits of any municipality of the Riding in which a poll is being held, irrespective of the person to whom the liquor is sold or given South Ontario Election Petition—Farewell v. Brown, 12 L.J.N.S. 216. In appeal.

Held, upon the evidence, that one Peters was properly held not to have been an agent of the petitioner; and that the dinner given by him to forty electors at a distant polling place in the winter where there was no inn, was not shown to have been corruptly given or accepted, nor was there sufficient evidence that these persons all voted at the election. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v Maclennan, 11 L.J.N.S. 163; 37 Q.B. 234.

See North Middlesex Election Petition—Cameron v. McDougall.

2. Hiring Rooms.

The candidate is not restricted to his purely personal expenses, but may (if there is no intent thereby to influence votes or to induce others to procure his return) hire rooms for committees and meetings, and employ men to distribute cards and placards, and similar services. East Toronto Election Petition—Rennick v. Cameron, 8 L.J.N.S. 113.—E.C.—Richards.

Alleged expenditure of money intended to influence a certain class of voters, viz., keepers of public houses; hiring of rooms at public houses to hold meetings—effect of, and how far a violation of the law as to bribery. Kingston Election—Stewart v. Macdonald. 11 L.J.N.S. 19.—E.C.—Richards.

Held, 1. That the hiring of teams, &c., is not a "corrupt practice" within the meaning of sec. 3 of the Controverted Election Act, 1873, unless the hiring amounts to bribery. 2. That the words "Act of Parliament of Canada" in that section, refer to an Act of the Dominion of Canada. East Toronto Election Petition—Woodhouse v O'Donohoe, 10 L.J.N.S. 248.—E.C.—Richards.

See Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald.

4. Fraudulent Devices.

Shortly before the polling day the respondent's agent issued a circular, signed by the President of the Reform Association, the substance of which was that they had ascertained upon undoubted authority that Webb, despairing of election himself, was procuring his friends to vote for Mr. Cochrane. This statement Webb declared to be false. Held, that this was not a "Fraudulent Device," within the meaning of s. 72 of 32 Vict. c. 21, O., to interfere with the free exercise of the franchise of voters East Northumberland Election Petition—Casey v. Ferris, 11 L.J.N.S. 328.—E.C.—Gwynne.

5. Other Cases of Bribery.

Semble, per Draper, C.J., contrary to the opinion expressed by Mr. Justice Gwynne, at the trial, that sec. 66 of 32 Vict. c. 21, O. must be construed distributively, and that under it the penalty may be inflicted (1) on a tavern-keeper, &c., who does not keep his tavern closed during the hours of polling, and (2) on any person, whether a tavern-keeper, &c., or not, who sells or gives drink to another within the time and place specified. Lincoln Election Petition.— Rykert v. Neelon, 2 L.J.N.S. 161.—E. & A.

The payment of a voter's expenses in going to the poll is illegal, as such, even though the payment may not have been intended as a bribe. Ib.

A candidate in good faith intended that his election should be conducted in accordance both with the letter and spirit of the law; and he subscribed and paid no money, except for printing. Money, however, was given by friends of the candidate to different persons for election purposes, who kept no accounts or vouchers of what they paid:—Held, that bribery would not be inferred against the candidate, who neither knew nor desired such a state of things, from the omission of these subordinate agents to keep an account of their expenditure, especially as the law is new, and contains no provision similar to the Imperial statute, which required a detailed statement of expenditure to be furnished to the returning officer. But it is always more satisfactory to have the expenditure shewn by proper vouchers; and if money is paid to voters for distributing cards, or for teams, or for refreshments, this will be open to attack, and judges will be less inclined, as the law becomes known, to take a favorable view of conduct that they may bear two constructions, one favorable to the candidate and the other unfavorable. East Toronto Election Petition—Rennick v. Cameron, 8 L.J.N.S. 113—E.C.—Richards.

Rule when there appears to have been general corruption, or only isolated cases of bribery.—Money given to sub-agents to expend without accompanying directions.—Colorable purchases.—Colorable charity and liberality.—Loans of money.—Hiring conveyances to take voters to poll. Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald, 10 L.J.N.S. 313.—E.C.—Spragge.

Remarks as to subscriptions to churches and charities given a short time before the election. Re South Huron Election Case—Ritchie v. Cameron, 24 C.P. 488.

The Court decided, in the present state of the law, the election having taken place in January, 1874, to exclude enquiry as to the payment of travelling expenses of persons going to and returning from the poll, inasmuch as the same might amount to bribery. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 10 L.J. N.S., 217.—Richards, Spragge, Hagarty.

On a petitioner claiming the seat on a scrutiny, the Court declined on a preliminary objection to strike out a clause in the petition, which claimed that the votes of persons guilty of bribery, treating and undue influence, should be struck off the poll. The giver of a bribe, as well as the receiver, may be indicted for bribery; but quære, as to the effect on their votes respectively under the present state of the law. Ib.

Acts legitimate in themselves done with mixed legitimate and illegitimate motives.—Expenditure reasonable or otherwise, according to attendant circumstances. Kingston Election Petition—Stewart v. Macdonald, 11 L.J.N.S. 19.—E.C.—Richards.

The English and Dominion Election Acts as to corrupt practices and their consequences compared and considered. Ib.

The respondent said to the wife of a voter that if she would do what she could to prevent her husband from voting, he would give her a "nice present":—Held, that this was a promise of a valuable consideration, within the meaning of 32 Vict. c. 21, s. 67, O. Halton Election Petition—Harris v. Barber, 11 L.J.N.S. 273.—E.C.—Gwynne.

One M. a carter, who voted for respondent, at the request of P. the respondent's agent, carried a voter five or six miles to the polling place, saying that he would do so without charge. Some days after the election P. gave M. $2, intending it as compensation for such carriage, but M. thought it was in payment for work which he had done for P. as a carter. The candidate knew nothing of the matter:—Held, that there was properly no payment by P. to M. for any purpose, the money being given for one purpose and received for another; but that if there had it had been made after P.'s agency had ceased, and there was no previous hiring or promise to pay, to which it could relate back. If such payment had been established as a corrupt practice, it would have avoided P.'s vote, but not M.'s; and it would not have defeated the election, for it was not found to have been committed with the knowledge or consent of the candidate, but the contrary. In re the Election for the Town of Brockville and the Township of Elizabethtown, 32 Q.B. 132.

6. Undue Influence.

Appeal from a decision of Mr. Justice Wilson avoiding the election and disqualifying the respondent. Both the respondent and his opponent claimed to be supporters of the ministry of the day; but the respondent was the recognized ministerial candidate, and claimed that his opponent, having originally pledged himself to support him, and then came out in opposition, could not expect to retain the confidence of the Government, and that, as the ministerial candidate, whether elected or not, according to his ideas of constitutional practice, the patronage in the constituency would be in his hands. There was a grievance in the riding that strangers were sent up to superintend the work on the roads, and the respondent was reported to have stated at a public meeting that he would endeavor to get the evil remedied, and that "he would have the patronage, as he was the choice of the Government—he would have it whether elected or not elected;" adding by way of explanation, "It was the laying out of money on the roads and appointment of overseers." The judge who tried the case held (1) that such language did not amount to an offer or promise of any place or employment, or a promise to procure or to endeavor to procure, any place or employment to or for any voter or other person, within the 1st sec. of 36 Vict. c. 2, O.; but he held (2) that it amounted to undue influence within the 72 sec. of 32 Vict. c. 21 O., or according to the common law:—Held, that the first finding of the learned judge was correct, but that the second was incorrect. Muskoka Election Petition—Miller v Starratt., 12 L.J.N.S. 109.—C.A.

V. RIOTS AND ASSAULTS.

Under the statute for repressing riots at elections no power is given to magistrates to convict summarily. The offenders must be tried by a jury.—Ferguson v Adams, et al., 5 Q.B. 194.

Sec. 60 of the 32 Vict. c. 21, O., enacts that "every person convicted" of a battery committed during any part of the days whereon "any election is to be held, within two miles of the place where such election is to be held, &c., shall incur a penalty of $50." By s. 77, all penalties imposed by the Act shall be recoverable by any person who will sue for the same by action of debt or information in any court having competent jurisdiction. And it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff in any such action or suit to state in the declaration that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of money thereby demanded, and to allege the particular offence for which the action is brought, and that the defendant has acted contrary to the Act. It was held, in the County Court, that the words, "every person convicted," &c., did not mean who had been convicted in some criminal proceedings, but that the offence might be proved, and the person "convicted," in this action. On appeal, Wilson, J., was of opinion that the judgment below was right; Morrison, J., that it was wrong. The appeal therefore was dismissed. Wild v Brown, 37, Q. 504.

VI. PERSONAL DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS.

1. For Acts of Agents.

The respondent entrusted about $700 to an agent for election purposes without having supervised the expenditure:—Held, that this did not make him personally a party within 34 Vict. c. 3, s. 46, O., to every illegal application of the money by the agent, or by those who received money from him. But, if a very excessive sum had been so entrusted to the agent, the argument of a corrupt purpose might have been reasonable. South Grey Election Petition—Hunter v. Lauder, 8 L.J.N.S. 17.—E.C.—Mowat.

The evidence showed that very extensive bribery and corruption was practised by a very large number of persons, and that immense sums of money were expended by the agents of the successful candidate, but not personal acts of corruption were proved against him, and he denied all knowledge of these acts, though he made a very diligent personal canvass. Quære, whether it must not be presumed that he was cognizant of the acts of his agents and consenting thereto. London Election Petition—Pritchard v. Walker, 10 L.J.N.S. 281.—E.C.—Hagarty.

Quære, also, as to whether under sec. 18 of 36 Vict. c. 27, D, nothing but such personal bribery as would disqualify the candidate would avoid his election, or whether his disqualification was not a necessary consequence of the loss of his seat by corrupt acts on the part of his agents. Ib.

In the last case, on appeal from the judgment of the presiding judge at the trial:—Held, that the circumstantial evidence, as set out in the report of this case, was sufficient to show that corrupt practices were committed by the agents of the respondent, and with his knowledge and consent, notwithstanding his disclaimer on oath. Re London Election Case—Pritchard v. Walker and Walker v. Pritchard, 24 C.P. 424.

It is sufficient to show the candidate's knowledge of and assent to the fact that his agents were using bribery to procure his election, without connecting him with any particular act of bribery; and his assent must be assumed from his non-interference or objection when he has the opportunity. Semble, that wilful intentional ignorance is the same as actual knowledge. Ib.

Appeal from the judgment of Mr. Justice Gwynne, avoiding the election and disqualifying the respondent. His decision sustained as to the complicity of the respondent in the "Stewart case," the particulars of which are set out in the report, but otherwise as to the "Sunday raid," his knowledge and consent to the corrupt acts of his agents:—Held, not proven, the circumstances not being inconsistent with his innocence. Lincoln Election Petition—Rykert v. Nelson, 12 L.J.N.S. 161.—C.A.

The question discussed as to how far or when a candidate is to be assumed to be aware of and impliedly consenting to corrupt acts done by his agents, of which in the natural course of things he can scarcely be ignorant, or of which he wilfully avoids any knowledge. Ib.

A petition was filed by one Bergin, the unsuccessful candidate, against the return of the respondent in January 1874, on the usual grounds. This election was avoided on the ground of the corrupt acts of respondent's agents. But the chancellor reported to the Speaker of the House of Commons that these acts had been committed without the knowledge and consent of respondent. A new writ was issued, and the same persons were again candidates when respondent was again elected. The present petition was filed by electors claiming the seat for B., charging corruption against respondent and his agents at the second election, and also that persons guilty of corrupt practices at the first election could not vote at second election, because the two elections were one in law. The petitioners also claimed that respondent was ineligible by reason of the acts of his agents at the first election, and that public notice had been given of such disqualification, and that Bergin should be seated, although respondent had the majority of votes: —Held, 1. That the two elections were one in law. 2. That the evidence may be given by petitioners in a petition attacking the election, of corrupt practices by agents of respondents at the previous election, and if these corrupt acts are proved on the second trial, the votes of persons guilty of corrupt practices at the first election are void if polled at second election, and must be struck out. This also applies to the unsuccessful candidate. 3. But the mere fact of persons being "reported" to the speaker as guilty of corrupt practices at the first election does not require the disallowance of their votes at the second election. 4. The respondent is not ineligible at a second election because his first election was set aside on account of corrupt practices by his agents without his knowledge or consent. 5. Held, following the judgment of the Court of Common Pleas in the London case, and that of the chief justice of Ontario in the Kingston case, that a candidate is not disqualified by the corrupt acts of his agents under sec. 18 of the Act of 1873, without his knowledge or consent. 6. It is not material that the two elections were held under different Acts of Parliament. 7. The difference between the "adjudication" of the judge and his "report" to the Speaker discussed and explained. Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald, 11 L.J.N.S. 81.—E.C.—Spragge.

2. Evidence.

Held, that the writ of election and return need not be produced or proved before any evidence of the election is given. Stormont Election Petition, 7 L.J.N.S. 213.—E.C.—Richards.

On a scrutiny the practice in the English cases is for the person in the minority to first place himself in a majority, and then the person thus placed in a minority, to strike off his opponent's votes; and the same practice followed in this case. Ib.

The name of a voter being on the poll-book, if prima facie evidence of his right to vote. The party attacking the vote may either call the voter or offer any other evidence he has on the subject. Ib.

When all the accounts and records of an election are intentionally destroyed by the respondent's agent, even if the case be stripped of all other circumstances, the strongest conclusions will be drawn against the respondent, and every presumption will be made against the legality of the acts concealed by such conduct. South Grey Election Petition—Hunter v. Lauder, 8 L.J.N.S. 17—E.C.—Mowat.

Where a charge of bribery is only the unaccepted offer of a bribe, the evidence must be more exact than that required to prove a bribe actually given or accepted. Ib.

The total expenditure proved was $610, and the number of votes on the roll was 4,669:—Held that the expenditure was not excessive. Various acts of alleged bribery discussed; and—Held, that the evidence was not sufficient. The language of Martin B., in the Wigan case (1 O'M. & H. 192), adopted as a general rule applicable to this case. East Toronto Election Petition—Rennick v. ameron, 8 L.J.N.S. 113.—E.C.—Richards.

The respondent was charged with several acts of corrupt practice. As to four of them, the judge took time to consider, and subsequently found three proved. Each separate charge was supported by only one witness, and each was separately denied or explained away by the respondent. There was no corroborative testimony on either side. The judge below thought that if each case stood by itself, oath against oath, each person equally credible, there being collateral or accompanying circumstances either way, he should hold the charge not to be proved; but as the charges were severally sworn to by a credible witness, the united weight of their testimony overcame the effect of the respondent's oath; and he felt compelled to attach such a degree of importance to the combined testimony of these witnesses as to hold that the charges to which they severally spoke were sufficiently proved in law as against the opposing testimony of the respondent;—Held, that this view could not be sustained, and the appeal was allowed. Muskoka Election Petition—Miller v. Starrett, 12 L.J.N.S. 193—C.A.

Re London Election Petition—Pritchard v. Walker.

3. Other Cases.

How far disqualification in the nature of a penalty, considered. As the penalty imposed by the Act of 1873 is not merely that which pertains to locality, but to the person of the candidate, it is to be construed with the strictness of a penal statute. Meaning of the words "directly and indirectly," and "by himself or by any other person on his behalf" Kingston Election Petition—Stewart v. Macdonald, 11 L.J.N.S. 19—E.C.—Richards.

After the nomination of the candidates in a rural constituency, and on another occasion after a meeting assembled "for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate," the electors dispersed to various taverns, mostly to where their vehicles were put up, and then according, to their usual custom, treated each other before starting. The respondent himself partook of a treat:—Held, that this was not a contravention of 36 Vict. c. 2, s. 2, O., and that the respondent was not disqualified under sec. 3, sub-sec. 2 of the same Act. North Middlesex Election Petition—Cameron v. McDougall, 12 L.J.N.S. 14—E.C.—Spragge.

Treating per se is not, except when made so by statute, a corrupt act, but the intent of the party treating may make it so, and this intent must be gathered from the circumstances attending it. Where, therefore, it was sought to disqualify a candidate who had treated during his canvass, though to a much less extent than was his habit previously, and who did not seem to have treated for the purposed of ingratiating himself with the public;—Held, that such treating was not a corrupt act. Ib.

See Muskoka Election Petition—Miller v. Starrett.

VII. BALLOT PAPERS.

Mode of marking ballot papers, and as to where the mark or cross may be placed, and various irregular modes of making the marks considered. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 11 L.J.N.S. 163—E.C.—Wilson.

The neglect or irregularities of a returning officer in his duties under the Act will not invalidate an election, unless they have or might have caused some substantial injustice in the way of effecting the election: Held,—therefore, that the neglect of a returning officer to initial the ballot papers, and to provide pen and ink instead of pencil to mark them, would not void the election. Monck Election Petition—Grant v. McCallum, 12 L.J.N.S. 113.—E.C.—Blake.

The following irregularities in the mode of marking ballot papers—Held to be fatal: 1. Making a stroke instead of a cross; 2. any mark which contains in itself a means of identifying the voter, such as his initials or some mark known as being one used by him; 3. crosses made at left of name, or not to right of the name; 4. two single strokes not crossing. Ib.

The following irregularities—Held, not to be fatal: 1. An irregular mark in the nature of a cross, so long as it does not lose the form of a cross; 2. a cross not in the proper compartment of the ballot paper, but still to the right of the candidate's name; 3. a cross with a line before it; 4. a cross rightly placed with two additional crosses, one across the other candidate's name, and the other to the left; 5. a cross in the right place on the back of the ballot paper; 6. a double cross or two crosses; 7. ballot papers inadvertently torn; 8. inadvertent mark in addition to the cross; 9. cross made with pen and ink instead of pencil. Ib.

VIII. PRACTICE ON TRIAL OF CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS.

1. Before the Acts of 1871 and 1873.

[The 20 Vic., c. 23: "An Act to improve the mode of obtaining evidence in case of controverted elections" was repealed by 22 Vic., c. 11.]

Semble, a returning officer, whose conduct has been impeached, is not entitled to his expenses as a witness before a committee of the House of Commons, although he was summoned to attend by the Speaker's warrant, in the same manner as other witnesses. Blacklock v. McMartin, Tay. 320.

As to the form of declaration under 4 Geo. IV. c. 4, sec. 35, to recover the costs incurred by a member of parliament in opposing a petition against his return. Smith v. Rourke, 6 O. S. 307.

Held, on appeal, reversing the judgment of the Queen's Bench, that commissioner for taking evidence in a contested election, under 20 Vict. c. 23, s. 6, might maintain an action for his fees, and was not restricted to the remedy given under the recognizance: —Held, also, that all those who had petitioned againt the return and took an active part in the case before him, were liable, not the person only on whose written request the evidence was taken. Burritt v. Hamilton, 18 Q. B. 461; 17 Q. B. 443.

The 20 Viet. c. 23, did not extend to elections for the legislative council. Where County Court Judge, assuming that it did so extend, acted at defendent's request as commissioner for taking evidence in a contested election for that body:—Held, that he could recover nothing for his services. Burritt v. Jones, 19, Q. B. 194.

A judge of a County Court in a legislative council electoral division, had authority where the election for the divison is contested, to take evidence under 20 Viet. c. 23. In re the Contested Election of the Electoral Division of Tecumseh, 4 L.J. 283; S. C., Ib. 284—C.C.—Cooper, Burritt.

It is not essential to the due service of the notice made necessary by sec. 1 of the statute 20 Vict. c. 23, that it should be made in the manner prescribed by that Act. Where, therefore, the sitting member removed himself and his family so as to avoid a personal service, and continued absent or concealed for fourteen days allowed by the statute for a personal service or services at his residence upon a grown up person of his family, service by nailing a copy of the notice on the door of his residence, and by leaving a copy with his brother, who was also his agent, was Held, sufficient. In re Essex Election—4 L. J. 70.—C.C.—Chewett. See S. C., 4 L. J., 161.

2. Petitioners.

Held, that a candidate may be a petitioner, although his property qualification be defective, if it was not demanded of him at the time of his election. If he claim the seat, his want of qualification may be urged against his being seated, but he may still shew that the respondent was not duly elected, if he so charge in his petition. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 10 L.J.N.S. 217.—E.C.—Richards, Spragge, Hagarty.

A duly qualified voter is not debarred from being a petitioner on the ground that he has been guilty of bribery, treating, or undue influence during the election. Disqualification from such acts on the part of a voter or candidate arise after he has been found guilty, and there is no relation back. North Simcoe Election Petition —Edwards v. Cook, 10 L.J.N.S. 232.—E.C.—Richards.

3. Particulars.

Where particulars of alleged corrupt practices, &c., have been delivered under an order for that purpose, better particulars will not be ordered if those delivered substantially comply with the spirit of the order by giving all reasonable information. Nor will better particulars be ordered even when the order is not complied with in furnishing certain details, provided the judge to whom the application is made thinks these details unnecessary or unreasonable, nor unless the respondent can shew on affidavit that the want of such information will prejudice him in his defence.—West Toronto Election Petition—Armstrong v. Crooks, 5 P.R. 436.—Richards, Hagarty, Morrison, Mowat.

Semble, that the powers of the judge at the trial, as to amendment of the petition and particulars and postponement of the trial, should be liberally exercised, so as to prevent a failure of justice to either party. Ib.

The petition in this case stated that M. was returned by a majority of ten votes; that persons not qualified to vote had voted for him; that good votes for his opponent [H.] were tendered and rejected; that ballots improperly marked were received and counted for M.; and that M. and his agents were guilty of corrupt practices:—Held, on a summons asking for particulars [1] of the persons not qualified to vote, and the grounds of disqualification; [2] of the votes tendered for H.; [3] of the counterfoils and ballots for H. improperly rejected; [4] of the counterfoils and ballots for M. improperly received, and the names of the voters so rejected or received; [5] of the corrupt practices by respondent and his agents —that particulars should not be ordered as asked in the first, third and fourth clauses of the summons. As to the fifth clause, the order followed that in Beal v. Smith, 4 L.R.C.P. 145.—West Elgin Election Petition—Cascaden v. Munroe, 11 L.J.N.S. 160—E. & A.—Draper.

4. Security.

Held, 1. That upon a petition against two members, under the 36 Vict. c. 28, D., only the same security in amount need be given as upon a petition against one; 2. That the place where it was taken need not be shewn on the face of the recognizance; 3. That a practising attorney may be a surety; 4. That a county magistrate can take the recognizance in a city which has a police magistrate, if within his county. Re Hamilton Election Petition, 10 L.J.N.S. 170. —C.L. Chamb.—Dalton, C. C. & P.

The recognizance filed in this case was in the usual form, but was not signed as directed by rule 24 of the general rule of the Election Court:—Held, that the recognizance was nevertheless valid. Niagara Election Petition—Black et al. v. Plumb, 10 L.J.N.S. 249.—E. C. Dalton, C. C. & P.—Richards.

One thousand dollars, the deposit required to be paid in on filing Dominion election petitions, was handed to the Clerk of the Election Court, that clerk being also Clerk of the Queen's Bench. The latter Court, no petition having been filed in it, refused an order to pay the money out. Re Kingston Petition, Q.B.E.T. 1877; not yet reported.

5. Costs.

Where bribery by an agent is proved, costs follow the event, even though personal charges made against the respondent have not been proved, there having been no additional expense occasioned to the respondent by such personal charges.—South Grey Election Petition—Hunter v. Lauder, 8 L.J.N.S. 17.—Mowat.

Costs should follow the event, although the personal charges against the respondent fail, unless put in wantonly, or unless the expense of the trial has been thereby increased. Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald, 10 L.J.N.S. 313.—E.C.—Spragge.

It is not a champertuous transaction that an association of persons with whom the petitioner was politically allied, agreed to pay the costs of the petition. Even if the agreement were champertuous, that would not be a sufficient reason to stay the proceedings on the petition. North Simcoe Election Petition—Edwards v. Cook, 10 L.J.N.S.—E.C.—Richards.

The respondent sought to establish, on an enquiry under a preliminary objection, that the petitioner (the opposing candidate) had been guilty of bribery, and was therefore disqualified as such. The enquiry was not concluded, as, during its pendency the court held that bribery would not disqualify a petitioner, but so far as the evidence went, it did not show bribery by the petitioner:—Held, that the general rule as to costs should prevail, and that the respondent should pay the costs of the inquiry as well as the general costs of the cause. South Renfrew Petition—Bannerman v. McDougall, 10 L.J.N.S. 286.—E.C.—Spragge.

The learned judge at the trial declined to decide what witness fees should be paid by the respondent, thinking it to be the province of the taxing master on taxation, after hearing both parties, to decide what witnesses to allow or to disallow, as in ordinary cases. Niagara Election Petition—Black v. Plumb, 10 L.J.N.S. 317—E.C.—Hagarty.

In trials under the Controverted Elections Act of 1871, the costs and witness fees, and the materiality of evidence, are in the discretion of the master, subject to the court, as in other trials. The master will generally be the sole judge as to how many witnesses shall be allowed for as to one issue. So, where the master allowed fees to seventy witnesses subpœned, but not called, on charges of bribery by the petitioner, the election having been avoided on the evidence of other witnesses:—Held, that the master exercised a proper discretion, even though respondent's attorney swore he believed the witnesses would have disproved the charges they were called to prove; the facts, that each witness was subpœnaed to prove, appearing on the petitioner's brief put in before the master, and it appearing also by affidavit that the witnesses were subpœnaed bonâ fide, and were material. Prescott Election Petition—McKenzie et al. v. Hamilton, 32, Q.B. 303.

There is no presumption in a trial under the Controverted

Elections Act of 1871, arising from the number of witnesses subpœnaed, that they are unnecessarily called. The presumption is to the contrary.—Ib.

At the trial of an election petition, and on appeal from the judgment, the petitioner, a barrister, appeared in person, but was assisted by a junior counsel. On taxation, the petition having been dismissed, counsel fees were charged, to the first counsel at the trial $300, and to second counsel $150; and on argument of the appeal, to first counsel $150; second counsel $100. The master disallowed fees to the first counsel, but allowed $200 to the second counsel at the trial, and the $100 on appeal; there being no affidavit of payment or receipts for such fees, though it was called for and insisted upon for the respondent. On an application for revision:—Held, 1. That the fees should not, under the circumstances, have been allowed without proof of payment; 2. That no more than $150 should have been taxed for the second counsel at the trial. A revision was therefore ordered, with an intimation that the $150 and $100 might be allowed on satisfactory proof of payment. Re North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 39 Q.B 147.

On the trial of an election petition against the return of a member of the Local Legislature, which resulted in favor of the petitioner, to whom the costs were awarded, the defendant was retained by an association for prosecuting the petition, and acted as petitioner's attorney, and M., one of the plaintiffs, a firm of attorneys as well as barristers, acted as petitioner's senior counsel, under an agreement to that effect with defendant, neither he nor his firm being retained by petitioner. The petitioner's costs were settled by defendant and respondent's attorney, and defendant received $1,600, including $365 counsel fees to M., which M. proved became the property of his firm. The plaintiffs having brought an action against the defendant to recover these counsel fees as money had and received to their use:—Held, that they could not recover, for that the costs, including these fees, belonged to the petitioner, and not to defendant as attorney. Miller et al v. McCarthy, 27 C.P. 147.

The learned judge who tried an election case, having set aside the election for bribery by agents, but found that the candidate was not himself guilty of corrupt practices, the court on appeal, declined, under the evidence set out in the case to interfere; but the appeal was dismissed with costs, as there were strong grounds for presenting it, and had the finding been otherwise, it would not have been disturbed. South Huron Election Case, Ritchie v. Cameron, 24 C.P. 488.

6. Judges' Report.

The effect of section 20 of the Controverted Elections Act of 1873, as to the report of election judges to the Speaker considered. North Victoria Election—Cameron v. Maclennan, 10 L.J.N.S. 217.—E.C.—Richards, Spragge, Hagarty.

The judges' report to the Speaker as to those persons "other than the candidate," who have been proved guilty of corrupt practices, is not conclusive, so as to bring them within 34 Vict. c. 3, s. 49, and so liable to penal consequences. South Oxford Election Petition—Hopkins v. Oliver. 11 L.J.N.S. 161.—E. & A.—Draper.

See Cornwall Election Petition.—Bergin v Macdonald.

7. Other Cases.

A question being raised in this case as to the sufficiency of the notice of objection, that the voter was not actually and bona fide the owner, tenant or occupant of real property within the meaning of section 5 of the Election Law of 1868, the learned chief justice remarked, "The respondents counsel does not say that he is prejudiced by the way in which the objection is taken. If he had, I would postpone the consideration of the case. It is objected that the case of O.B. should be subject to the same rule, and if the question had been presented to me in that view, I think I should have felt at liberty to go into the case, giving time to the petitioner to make further enquiries if he thought proper."—Stormont Election Petition, 2 L.J.N.S. 213.—E.C.—Richards.

Held, that the writ of election and return need not be produced or proved before any evidence of the election is given. On a scrutiny, the practice in English cases is for the person in a minority to first place himself in a majority, and then the person thus placed in a minority to strike off his opponent's votes; and the same practice was followed in this case. The name of a voter being on the poll-book is prima facie evidence of his right to vote. The party attacking the vote may either call the voter, or offer any other evidence he has on the subject. Stormont Election Petition, 7 L.J. N.S. 213.—E.C.—Richards.

When a rule of court has been granted in pursuance of 34 Vic. c. 3 s. 14, O., appointing a place for the trial, not within the division, the election for which is in question, the judge by whom the petition is being tried has no power to adjourn for the further hearing of the cause, from the place named in the rule of court to a place within such division. South Grey Election Petition—Hunter v. Lauder, 8 L.J.N.S. 17.—E.C.—Mowat.

Held, that the twenty-one days limited for the filing an election petition after the return of the writ, are to be reckoned from the time of receipt of the return of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and not from the time of mailing by the returning officer. Good Friday and Easter Monday are holidays within the meaning of the Act, and they are not to be reckoned in computing the twenty-one days. The joint effect of the 32 Vic. c. 21 O., and the Ontario Interpretation Act, 31 Vic. c. 1, s. 7, sub-sec. 13, is, that when the word "holidays" is used, it includes the above days as "set apart by Act of the Legislature." West Toronto Election Petition—Armstrong v. Crooks, 5 P.R. 394.—C. L. Chamb.—Hagarty.

The Interpretation Act of Ontario, 31 Vic. c. 1, s. 6, and sub-sec. 13, enacts that in constructing it, or any Act of Ontario, certain days specified, including Good Friday and Easter Monday, shall be included in the word holiday; and the Controverted Elections Act of 1871, sec. 52 enacts that in reckoning time for the purposes of that Act any day set apart by any Act of Ontario for a public holiday shall be excluded:—Held, that the effect of the Interpretation Act alone, was to make the days mentioned in it holidays; and if it were not so, that when the other statute used the word holiday, such days would by virtue of the Interpretation Act be included in it:—Held, therefore, that in reckoning the twenty-one days after the return allowed for presentation of a petition, Good Friday and Easter Monday must be excluded. The decision in chambers in this matter, 5 P.R. 394 affirmed as regards the computation of time. Re Election for the West Riding of Toronto, 31. Q.B. 409.

The word "treating" refused to be struck out of the petition though not specifically prohibited by the Act. West Toronto Election Petition—Armstrong v. Crooks, 5 P.R. 394.—C.L. Chamb.—Hagarty.

The trial of an election petition should not be postponed without the applicant shewing very cogent and almost unanswerable grounds. In this case the reason given was that the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario was a necessary and material witness, and that he could not properly leave Toronto during the sittings of the House of Assembly:—Held, not a sufficient reason. Glengarry Election Petition—McDonald v. McNab, 12 L.J.N.S. 117.—E.C.—A. Wilson.

Held, that application to postpone a trial allowed by 38 Vict. c. 10, s. 2, is confined to that part of the enactment relating to the proceeding of the trial de die in diem after it has commenced. Ib.

The 38 Vict. c. 10, s. 2, D., enacts, "The trial of every election petition shall be commenced within six months from the time when such petition has been presented, and shall be proceeded with de die in diem, until the trial is over, unless on application supported by affidavit it be shewn that the requirements of justice render it necessary that a postponement of the case should take place." The petition here was filed on the 12th Dec. 1874. Hilary and Easter terms, and the session of parliament took up three months and eleven days, so that under the Act the six months would not expire until the 21st Sept. 1875. The trial having been fixed for 10th of Aug., the respondent's attorney consented without prejudice, to adjournment, and on the 30th July an order was made postponing the trial until a judge should be able to attend. On the 22nd Dec. 1875, the trial was fixed for the 18th Jan. 1876, and afterwards by consent postponed till 2nd Feb.:—Held, that the trial need not be commenced within six months in order to authorize a postponement, but that the commencement may be postponed beyond that time. The Glengarry election, 12 L.J.N.S. 717, not followed. But, under the facts more fully stated in the report, it was held that the long delay was not warranted; and all further proceedings stayed. In re the Election for the Electoral Div. of Addington—Wagyoner v. Shibley, 39 Q.B. 131.

Quære, where, under 37 Vict. c. 3, s. 20, O., the judge has power, before the close of the case, to reserve questions for the court. In re the Election for the Town of Brockville and the Township of Elizabethtown, 32 Q.B. 132.

Held, that the judge had power to amend the petition by allowing the insertion of an objection to the roll used. In re the Election for the Electoral Division of the County of Monck, 32 Q.B. 147.

Held, that the Dominion Election Act of 1874 does not affect the rights of parties in pending proceedings, which must be decided according to the law as it existed before the passing of that Act; sec. 20 of that Act referring to candidates at some future election. North Victoria Election Petition—Cameron v. Maclennan, 10 L.J.N.S. 217. —E.C.—Richards, Spragge, Hagarty.

A petitioner claiming the seat on a scrutiny may shew, as to votes polled for his opponent: 1. That the voter was not twenty-one years of age; 2. That he was not a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization; 3. That he was otherwise by law prevented from voting; and 4, that he was not actually and bona fide the owner, tenant, or occupant of the real property in respect of which he is assessed. Ib.

The petition, besides charging the respondent with various corrupt acts, charged an agent of his with similar acts, and claimed that the agent was subject to the same disqualifications and penalties as a candidate. The prayer of the petition asked that this agent might be made a party to the petition, and that he might be subjected to such disqualification and penalties:—Held, 1, that there is no authority in the Election Acts or elsewhere for making an agent of a candidate a defendant in a petition on a charge of personal misconduct on his part; 2, there is no authority given to the Election Court or the judges, to subject a person "other than a candidate" to such disqualifications.—South Oxford Election Petition—Hopkins v. Oliver, 11 L.J.N.S. 161.—Chamb.—Draper.

Appellate Courts will not, except under special circumstances, interfere with the finding as to questions of fact depending on the veracity and credit of witnesses. Halton Election Petition—Harris v. Barber, 11 L.J.N.S. 273.—E. & A.

"The Dominion Controverted Elections Act, 1874," 37 Vict. c. 10, repealed "The Controverted Elections Act, 1873," 36 Vict. c. 28, under which the Election Court existed, except as respected elections held before the passing of the Act, and directed all elections in future to be tried in this court. The petitioner, on the 6th of February, 1875, filed his petition under the last Act, but intituled "In the Election Court," the notice of filing and of the deposit and other papers being intituled in the same court, and delivered it to the clerk of the Crown, who was the clerk both of the Election Court and of this court. Afterwards, on the 28th August, an order was made setting aside the notice of trial given, intituled in this court, on the ground that no petition was filed in this court; and by a rule of the Election Court the petition was taken off the files of that court, on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction to try a petition under the Act of 1874. The petitioner then, on the 20th November, 1876, applied to this court to fix a day for the trial, which was refused; for 1. There was no petition in this court; and 2. If it had been at first well filed, the trial was not commenced within six months from its presentation, and no application made within the time to postpone. Kingston Election—Stewart v. Macdonald, 39 Q.B 139.

IX. RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS.

Secs. 10 & 12 of 32 Vict., c. 4, O, provide that a member may resign, 1. By giving notice in his place of his intention; 2. By delivering to the Speaker a declaration of such intention, either during a session or in the interval between two sessions; or 3. By delivering it to any two members, in case there is no Speaker, and the resignation is made in the interval between two sessions:—Held, to mean only an interval between two sessions of the same assembly, and not to apply to the interval between the last general election and the election of a Speaker. Sec. 13 provides for a new election in case of a vacancy happening by the death of any member, or by his accepting any office, or by his becoming a party to any contract, as mentioned in the third section. And s. 14, for the case of a vacancy arising subsequently to a general election, and before the first meeting of assembly thereafter, "by reason of the death or other of the causes aforesaid":—Held, that the "other of the causes aforesaid," were the two other causes besides death mentioned in s.

13; and that a voluntary resignation, therefore, did not create a vacancy within s. 14. In re the Election for the West Riding of Durham, 31 Q.B. 404.

X. MISCELLANEOUS CASES.

Held, that the printing of hand-bills by which a person announced himself a candidate for election to the legislative council, was a contract relating to a parliamentary election within the 23 Vict. c. 17, and that such printing was a lawful debt and might lawfully be paid without incurring the penalty of that statute; but such payment could not be enforced at law, the 6th section of the Act rendering it a void contract at law. Luke et al v. Perry, 12 C.P. 424.

[This Act is repealed as to Ontario, by 32 Vict. c. 21, s. 1, O.]

The Common Law of England relating to Parliamentary Elections is in force in this Province. Cornwall Election Petition—Bergin v. Macdonald, 10 L.J.N.S. 313.—E.C.—Spragge.

Semble, that a returning officer is both a ministerial and judicial officer. Bannerman v. McDougall, 11 L.J.N.S. 47.—E.C.—A. Wilson.

Quære, as to whether an action for parliamentary and departmental printing would lie against the Postmaster-General, and the propriety of asking the courts to pass an opinion. Taylor v. Campbell, 33 Q.B. 264.

THE ADDRESS.

In the Senate, Hon. C. F. Cornwall moved, and Hon. C. Boucher de Boucherville seconded, the Address.

In the Commons, Mr. F. De St. Croix Brecken moved, and Mr. Joseph Tasse, seconded the Address.

THE SENATE.

In sketch of Lt.-Col. the Hon. J. H. Bellerose, the following was omitted: Ed. at the College of Nicolet and St. Hyacinthe. Was for some years President of the Union Navigation Co. During the last session of the first Parliament of Quebec was offered the Speakership of the Legislative Assembly of that Province, but before the meeting of the second Parliament in 1871, the Government of the Hon. Mr. Chauveau having met with some political difficulty, resigned all his claims to help the Government out of the same.

In sketch of Hon. R. P. Grant, read "President" instead of "Vice-President" of the Pictou Bank.

Hon. H. B. Bull, of Hamilton, was called to the Senate on March 1st, 1879, in the room of the Hon. Donald McDonald, deceased. The honorable gentleman was formerly a member of the Legislative Council of Canada.

THE COMMONS.

ARKELL, THOS. (Elgin, East.)

S. of Henry Arkell, Esq., and Mary Arkell, of Gloucestershire, Eng. Came to Canada in 1832, and settled near St. Thomas, Ont. B. in Gloucestershire, Eng., 1825. Ed. in Canada. M. 1st, 1855, Miss Morgan, Tp. of Yarmouth, (she died), and 1864, Miss Urlin, of city of London, Ont., (she died). Was Mayor of St. Thomas for seven years. Has been connected with Municipal Councils, in one capacity or another, for the last twenty years. Contested East

Elgin in 1875 for the Ontario Assembly, and was defeated by Dr Wilson, by a majority of twenty-four. First returned to Parlt. at last g.e., defeating Colin MacDougall, Esq., the late member, by a majority of forty, out of a vote of 4,300. Conservative, and in favor of the National Policy.—St. Thomas, Ont.

PERRAULT, JOSEPH STANISLAS. (Charlevoix.)

S. of Edward Perrault, gentleman, and of Emilie Mathurin, dit Girbourg, descendant of a French family who came to Canada about two centuries ago. B. 13 May 1846 in the parish of L'Assomption, near Montreal. Ed. at the College of L'Assomption. M. to Dlle, Maria Louisa Brault, in the same parish. Studied law at the University, Laval, Quebec, where he graduated LL.B., and was called to the Bar, 13 July 1870. Has practised his profession since that date. Has been Crown Prosecutor for the District of Saguenay. Was a candidate at the last g.e., being defeated by the late Pierre Alexis Tremblay. Mr. Tremblay having died, he again became a candidate for the County of Charlevoix, in Feb. 1879, being opposed by Mr. Xavier Cimon, whom he defeated. The following was the vote: J. S. Perrault 1077, X. Cimon 878. A Conservative.—St. Etienne, Malbaie, Que.

PLUMB, JOSIAH BURR. (Niagara.) 2ND MEM.

S. of an Episcopal Clergyman of Eng. descent on both sides. B. in his father's parish, East Haven, Conn., U.S., 1816. M. in 1848, the youngest dau. of the late Hon. Samuel Street, of Niagara Falls (she d.). First returned to Parliament for present seat at last g.e. Unseated on petition, 22 Oct. 1874; re-elected 19 Dec. 1874. Was a candidate at last g.e., when his opponent, Mr. Hughes, of Toronto, was declared elected by a majority of two votes. Subsequently, that gentleman was disqualified, and four votes having been struck off his list for bribery, seat was awarded Mr. Plumb. A Conservative. Is of opinion that "the great aim of Parliament should be to remove sectional jealousies, and to cement the Union into a whole, in which Provincial boundaries should be obliterated in the carrying out of Parliamentary work."—Niagara, Ont.; Toronto Club; Rideau Club; U.E. Club.

WHITE, JOHN. (East Hastings.)

B. in town of Donegal, Irel., 1833. Ed. there. M., 1856, Miss Esther Johnson, of Roslin. Reeve of Tyendinaga three years. Elected Grand Master Grand Orange Assn. Ontario East; and a

Deputy Grand Master of Grand Black Chapter of Orangemen of B.A., 1874. First returned to Parlt., March, 1871 ; re-elected at g.e. 1872, at g.e. 1874, and in Feb. 1879. A Conservative.—Roslin, Ont

North Ontario.—A petition was entered against the return of Mr. Wheeler, which resulted in Mr. Justice Armour giving judgment on the 26th February, 1879, unseating and disqualifying the respondent.

East Hastings.—In accordance with Mr. Justice Armour's desicion, a new election was held in this constituency on 26 Feb., 1879. The candidates in this instance were Mr. White, who opposed Mr. Aylsworth at the general election, and Mr. Farley, Mr. Aylsworth declining to accept nomination. The result was the return of Mr. White by a majority of 74. The following was the vote :—White, 1,337 ; Farley, 1,263.

Niagara.—Petition was entered against the return of Mr. Hughes for this constituency, resulting in the disqualification of that gentleman The case was adjourned for several weeks after the disqualification of the respondent, and on the reassembling of the court, Mr. Justice Galt struck off four votes from Mr. Hughes' list for bribery, thus giving Mr. Plumb the seat by two majority.

Centre Wellington—The Returning Officer, on opening the ballot boxes and compiling the certificates of the Deputy Returning Officers, declared Dr. Orton to have a majority of six. A recount being applied for, Judge Chadwick proceeded with it until the box for the 6th division of Peel Township was reached, when it was found that the used ballots were not in either of the three envelopes which the statute empowers the Judge to open. It was alleged that they were in another envelope, but it was not endorsed in any way to prove this. Dr. Orton's counsel (Mr. Jacob) objected to the recount going on. The Judge upholding the objection and declining to go on with the recount, appellant's counsel applied to Chief Justice Hagarty for a mandamus, which was refused. Judge Chadwick granted a certificate, reciting the facts, to the Returning Officer and appellant's counsel applied to the full court of Queen's Bench for a mandamus. This was again refused, the Court holding that it had no power over a County Judge sitting as an Election Judge, and that the power was vested solely in the House of Commons. The Returning Officer then returned Dr. Orton as elected.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

On the 6th March, 1879, the then existing Government of Prince Edward Island was defeated by a vote of nineteen to eleven. The Ministry resigned next day, and His Honor the Lieut.-Governor called upon the Hon. W. W. Sullivan to form a new Administration, which he did, the Cabinet being as follows:—

Hon. William W. Sullivan, Premier and Attorney-General.
Hon. Donald Ferguson, Commissioner of Public Works.
Hon. Neil McLeod, Provincial Secretary and Treasurer.
Hon. Mr. Shaw Minister of Marine.

Hon. Samuel Prouse,	Hon. John Lefurgy,
Hon. Joseph O. Arsenault,	Hon. William Campbell,
Hon. Nicholas Conroy,	Hon. Joseph Wightman.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Sergeant-at-Arms.—FREDERICK JOSEPH GLACKMEYER. Apptd. 27 Dec. 1867. (Salary, $600.)

Government of Canada.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.

1. The following Post Office Savings Banks in Ontario and Quebec are open daily for the receipt and repayment of deposits, during the ordinary hours of Post Office business

2. The direct security of the Dominion is given by the Statute for all deposits made.

3. Any person may have a deposit account, and may deposit yearly any number of dollars, from $1 up to $300, or more with the permission of the Postmaster General.

4. Deposits may be made by married women, and deposits so made, or made by women who shall afterwards marry, will be repaid to any such woman.

5. As respects children under ten years of age, money may be deposited—

FIRSTLY—By a parent or friend as Trustee for the child, in which case the deposits can be withdrawn by the Trustee until the child shall attain the age of ten years, after which time repayment will be made only on the joint receipts of both Trustee and child.

SECONDLY—In the child's own name—and, if so deposited, repayment will not be made until the child shall attain the age of ten years.

6. A depositor in any of the Savings Bank Post Offices may continue his deposits at any other of such offices, without notice or change of Pass Book, and can withdraw money at that Savings Bank Office which is most convenient to him. For instance, if he makes his first deposit at the Savings Bank at Cobourg, he may make further deposits at, or withdraw his money through, the Post Office Bank at Collingwood or Quebec, Sarnia, Brockville, or any place which may be convenient to him, whether he continue to reside at Cobourg or remove to some other place.

7. Each depositor is supplied with a Pass Book, which is to be produced to the Postmaster every time the depositor pays in or withdraws money, and the sums paid in or withdrawn are entered therein by the Postmaster receiving or paying the same.

8. Each depositor's account is kept in the Postmaster General's Office, in Ottawa, and in addition to the Postmaster's receipt in the Pass Book, a direct acknowledgment from the Postmaster General for each sum paid in is sent to the depositor. If this acknowledgment does not reach the depositor within ten days from the date of his deposit, he must apply immediately to the Postmaster General, by letter, being careful to give his address, and, if necessary, write again, because the Postmaster's receipt or entry in the Pass Book is not sufficient without the further receipt for the money, from Ottawa.

9. Every depositor must send his book, once a year, viz., on the anniversary of his first deposit, for comparison with the Books of the Department, and for insertion of interest. The Book will be returned to him by first mail. At no other time should a depositor suffer his book to be out of his own possession.

10. When a depositor wishes to withdraw money, he can do so by applying to the Postmaster General, who will send him by return mail a cheque for the amount, payable at whatever Savings Bank Post Office the depositor may have named in his application.

11. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum is allowed on deposits, and the interest is added to the principal on the 30th June in each year.

12. Postmasters are forbidden by law to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount of any sum deposited or withdrawn.

13. No charge is made to depositors on paying in or drawing out money, nor for Pass Books, nor for postage on communications with the Postmaster General in relation to their deposits.

14. The Postmaster General is always ready to receive and attend to all applications, complaints, or other communications addressed to him by depositors or others, relative to Post Office Savings Bank business.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, OTTAWA,
February, 1879.

(CIRCULAR.)

CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT

Regulations Governing Travellers' Carriages, &c., Crossing the Frontier.

To ensure uniformity at the frontier ports in dealing with "carriages of travellers and carriages laden with merchandise," and to afford the utmost facility to parties visiting the Dominion for transient purposes, consistent with the protection of the Revenue, the Minister of Customs has approved of the following "Regulations and Restrictions."

1st—Regular stages and hacks, when the owners or the drivers are known to the officers, may be allowed to cross the frontier and return, within two days, without being required to make an entry at the Custom House, subject only to the ordinary examination, search and inspection.

2nd—Travellers intending to remain within the Dominion for a longer period than two days, are required in all cases to report and enter their horses, carriages, and travelling equipage; and in cases where they do not intend to leave at the same point at which they enter, or are uncertain on that point, they must deposit with the Collector the full amount of duty on such horses, carriages, and other dutiable articles, to be returned only on their furnishing satisfactory evidence that the same articles have been returned unchanged to the United States. Travellers intending to leave at the Port of Entry may be allowed to enter as above, and, in lieu of cash, to give a bond, with an approved resident surety, covering the amount of duty, and with the additional condition that such bond shall be enforced if the time specified therein be exceeded.

3rd—The time to be allowed travellers in either case shall not exceed one calendar month ; and if that time be exceeded, the entries shall be considered bona fide entries for duty, and be included in the accounts of the port.

4th—All moneys received by Collectors on deposit, under the above Regulations, shall be, if possible, deposited ad interim in a bank, in the Collector's name ; and if there is no bank available, then in some other place of security under the Collector's credit, and a separate account of the receipt and disposal of such deposit should be sent quarterly to the Department.

5th—The entries in such case should contain such a description of the horses, carriages, &c., as would enable the Collector or other officer to identify them on their leaving the Dominion ; and a copy shall be furnished the owner or other person making such entry, which shall be his permit for travelling in the country.

Commissioner of Customs.

ASSISTED PASSAGES.

The Dominion Government issues, through its Agents, Passenger Warrants, whereby approved Emigrants in the United Kingdom may obtain Passages to Canada at the following rates:—Adults, £4 15s. stg. ; children under eight years, £2 7s. 6d. stg. ; and infants under 1 year 14s. 2d.

The above warrants are available for the powerful steamships of the Allan, the Dominion, the Temperley, and the Anchor lines.

These Special Warrants are only available from the ports of Liverpool, London and Belfast.

The above arrangements remain valid until further notice.

All information relating to Passenger Warrants, in the United Kingdom, may be obtained either personally or by letter, from the CANADIAN CHIEF EMIGRATION AGENT, 31 QUEEN VICTORIA STREET, E.C., LONDON, ENGLAND.

—o—

CARE OF EMIGRANTS.

Emigrants, on arrival in Canada, will find Agents of the Government at the following places :—

Quebec.—L. Stafford.
Montreal.—John J. Daley.
Ottawa, Ont.—W. J. Wills.
Kingston, Ont.—R. McPherson.
Toronto, Ont.—John A. Donaldson.
Hamilton, Ont.—John Smith.
Sherbrooke, Quebec.—Henry Hubbard.
London, Ont.—A. G. Smith.

In the Maritime Provinces there are the following Government Officers :

Halifax, N. S.—E. Jay.
St. John, N. B.—John Livingston.

And in Manitoba :—Winnipeg.—W. Hespeler.
Dufferin.—J. E. Tetu.

These Officers of the Government will meet every Steamship, Sailing Vessel, and Train bringing Immigrants. They will afford to all who apply to them the fullest advice and protection, and all complaints should be immediately addressed to them on arriving. They will also furnish information as to lands open for settlement in the respective Provinces and Districts, farms for sale, demand for employment, rates of wages, routes of travel, distances, expense of conveyance, and will receive and forward letters and remittances for Immigrants, &c.

All information which immigrants obtain from the Agents of the Dominion they may accept as reliable.

Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, 1879.

THE DOMINION LANDS OF CANADA

These Lands are situated in Manitoba and the North-West Territories.

The system of Survey is rectangular, the Township being six miles square, divided into 36 sections of one mile square each, which latter are subdivided on the ground into quarter sections of 160 acres each.

Sections 11 and 29, amounting to 1,280 acres, in each Township, are dedicated to the purposes of public schools.

Sections 8 and 26 in each Township represent the one-twentieth reserved throughout the "fertile belt" to the Hudson Bay Company, under the Deed of Surrender.

Dominion lands open for sale or settlement may be purchased for cash at one dollar per acre, may be entered by Military Bounty Warrant, or may be entered as homesteads for actual settlement.

Homestead settlers pay a fee of $10 at the time of entry for the land, and are required to reside upon and cultivate the quarter section entered as a homestead, for three years, upon which they get a patent free.

The homestead settler has also the privilege of entering for an adjoining quarter-section of land as a homestead reserve, of which he is admitted into immediate possession and cultivation, and for which, on the completion of his homestead conditions, he may acquire the full title on the payment of one dollar per acre.

Coal lands are not subject to the operation of the Homestead Provision of the Dominion Lands Act.

Persons desiring to carry on coal mining in unsurveyed territory, may apply to purchase, sending forward the description by a Dominion Land Surveyor, setting forth generally the situation and dimensions of the land, and accompanying the same by the price thereof, estimating the number of acres, which shall not exceed 640, at the rate of one dollar per acre.

The Minister of the Interior, with the view of preventing undue monopoly in Coal lands, may, in his discretion, on a Township being surveyed, exempt from sale and settlement the lands in such Township containing Coal, excepting those on which mining may have been carried on under the above regulations, and may subsequently sell or otherwise deal with the same in such manner as may be deemed expedient by the Governor in Council.

The Dominion Lands Act is not intended to apply to territory over which the Indian title may not at the time have been extinguished.

The above is merely a synopsis of the law embracing the policy connected with the Administration of the Dominion Lands. Persons wishing more full and complete information are referred to the Dominion Lands Act.

All communications relating generally to the Dominion Lands to be addressed to the Minister of the Interior, at Ottawa.

All specific applications to enter Surveyed Lands should be addressed to the Agent of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, Canada.

By Order,

LINDSAY RUSSELL,

Surveyor-General.

Dominion Lands Office,
January, 1878.

INSPECTION

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The Act respecting Weights and Measures, XXXVI. Vic., Cap. 47, came into operation on the 1st of July, 1875, under the proclamation published in the Canada Gazette of 26th December, 1874.

The duties of Excise upon Spirits theretofore computed by the old wine gallon have been since that date computed—as provided in the Acts above cited—by the Imperial gallon, the rate of such duty being as follows :—

On Spirits theretofore subject to 75 cents per wine gallon, 90 cents per Imperial or Standard gallon of the strength of proof.

It may be observed that the Wine gallon containing 231 cubic inches, and the Imperial or Standard gallon 277-274. Quantities stated in Wine gallons may be reduced to Imperial gallons by deducting one-sixth—or, quantities stated in Imperial gallons may be converted into Wine gallons by adding one-fifth, thus :—

20 Imperial or Standard gallons = 24 Wine gallons.
24 Wine gallons = 20 Imperial gallons.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND RAILWAY.

THIS Railway was opened for traffic in the summer of 1875, and is now in regular running order, being well supplied with new equipment, and offers every facility for tourists in the Summer season.

It is 200 miles long, and connects all the important places on the Island. At Souris and Georgetown it reaches the most easterly parts of the Island on the open sea, and passing through Charlottetown, the capital of the Island, proceeds by way of Summerside, Alberton and Tignish, the latter being the most westerly point on the Island.

The scenery of the Island is picturesque; the climate moderate and bracing in the hottest weather, and the sea-bathing and fishing both excellent.

Daily steamers run between Shediac and Pictou on the Mainland, and Summerside and Charlottetown on the Island.

At Pictou and Shediac connections are made with the trains upon the Intercolonial Railway, which will be opened throughout in June next.

Excellent Hotels are to be found on the Island, and no more delightful summer journey can be taken than a visit to Prince Edward Island.
